Dresses such as we offer in this interesting selling need no verbal recommendations. These values are best appreciated by personal examination of the garments. Come in and try them on, look at the linings, the workmanship, the style, then consider the remarkable prices. Yours for Exclusive Garments. Tramp's Ready to Wear.

At the Free Camp grounds today we saw a small Ford chassis on which was mounted a structure built of light wood and covered with tin. He has traveled as high as 150 miles in one day and then lays over to suit his pleasure as he is in no hurry.
