A NEW PRINCIPAL FOR THE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL HAS BEEN SECURED.

After four years of faithful service as principal of the Junior High School, Miss Florence Antonides is to be relieved of the burden and has been offered the head of the Normal Training Department in the Senior High School for the coming year. In her place the Board of Education has placed George Meyers who has agreed to take up the work with the opening of the coming school year. Mr. Meyers is a graduate of Washburn College and has had a number of years of successful school work before coming to North Platte. He was an instructor in Senior High School the latter part of last year and earned the respect and confidence of the school people. He is well qualified to take up the work where Miss Antonides left off and no better choice could have been made as her successor.
