

PECKHAM-SUTTIE

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Peckham of Brady, Nebr. was the scene of an unusually pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon, June 9th, when their daughter Goida Verlene became the bride of Jas Cook Suttie of Omaha in the presence of seventy-five relatives and friends. The spacious rooms of the lower floor were artistically festooned with Southern Smilax and decorated with bouquets of Butterfly roses. In the dining room the guests were served from a handsomely decorated table with an immense center piece of Butterfly roses and streamers of smilax extending from the chandelier to the table. The color scheme of peach and green being carried out in the refreshments and decorations.

Immediately before the ceremony Mrs. Perry Rushlau of Brady sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. C. J. Pass of North Platte. "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" was then sung by little Miss Lucille Rushlau to the strains of which the bride party entered.

First came Miss Dorothy Bignall and Miss Julia Streeter of Lincoln with streamers of green satin ribbon with which they formed an aisle to the improvised altar of palms, araucarias, ferns and blooming plants, Miss Winifred Schriver of Gothenburg as maid of honor, attired in peach brocaded crepe, with hat of georgette to match and carrying a shower bouquet of butterfly roses, accompanied by Mr. Winford Schultz of Omaha, as best man, preceded the bride. Little Lucille Anderson dressed in peach organdy and Margaret Woods in green organdy as flower girls, carried baskets of flowers which they strewed in the path of the bride. The bride entered on the arm of her father and was met by the groom at the altar, where the Rev. Jas. Balle Butter of Alexandria read the impressive marriage lines.

The bride was gowned in white brocaded crepe combined with white satin, designed in simple lines and trimmed with sash pearls. The satin train hung from the side-back. Her veil was arranged in Egyptian style and was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley.

An informal reception was held immediately after the ceremony during which Miss Julia Streeter of Lincoln entertained the guests with two whistling solos.

Mrs. Suttie is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peckham and possesses an attractive and charming personality. She was a graduate of the Brady High School and later of Nebraska Wesleyan, a member of the Beta Phi Sorority. During the world war she was a member of the Women's Motor Corps. In the summer of 1920, accompanied by Miss Schriver, her maid of honor, she toured Europe where much of her trousseau was procured.

Mr. Suttie is a successful business man of Omaha and prominent in Masonic circles. During the war he was a member of the 63rd Balloon Corps. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Suttie and Miss Margaret Suttie of Omaha, father, mother and sister of the groom, Miss Maude Goodlette of Omaha, Gerald Bryan Rich of Lincoln, uncle of the bride, Miss Lola Gillett of Corning, Iowa, Miss Lela Gravatt of Talmadge, Margaret Lind of Columbus, and other guests from nearby towns. After a wedding trip to northern Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Suttie will be at home at 2559 Titus street, Omaha, Nebr.—Contributed.

FARM WAGES MUST COME DOWN SAY FARMERS OF NICHOLS PRECINCT.

The farmers of Nichols Precinct held a meeting recently at which they agreed not to pay over $25 to $30 a month for farm hands. This is about $1.25 a day. Hay hands are to have from $1.25 to $1.50 a day and stackers $2. Harvest hands are to get a little more, $2.50 being the price for ordinary harvest help and $3 for stackers. All these wages are for a ten hour day.

REMOVAL NOTICE
I am now located in the large room 2 doors north of the postoffice, with a complete line of plumbing and heating material. Also the well known Quaker and Zero King pipe and pipeless furnaces which have larger registers than the ordinary furnaces, consequently giving you more heat and more cold air return in less time. Save fuel by installing a Quaker or Zero King furnace, by a man of 50 years experience. Also tinshop in connection. Good work and reasonable prices is my motto. Come in and see me. Yours for business.
