AT MAXWELL

Maxwell was visited by the boosters of the North Platte Chamber of Commerce Wednesday morning about eight o'clock. After the band concert and parade they resumed their trip eastward, boosting for the American Legion carnival to be held in North Platte July 4th.—Telepost.

INSURES BALL GAME

C. F. Coy, agent for the Hartford Insurance Company is in town today paying a loss to the Paxton base ball team on account of rain. This loss was for the game May 29 when rain stopped the game between Grant and Paxton after four innings of play. The policy covering this game and two others was written by M. C. Murphy, local Hartford agent.—Paxton Times.

AT SUTHERLAND

About 150 of North Platte's boosters arrived in Sutherland last night at about 9:30 and their band led them in a parade. They were out boosting for the celebration in that city and the Fourth, and if boosting will do any good North Platte will surely have a crowd. The celebration will be under the management of The Lincoln County Agricultural Society.—Courier.

AT HERSHEY

The North Platte boosters arrived in Hershey Wednesday evening at about nine o'clock, a little later than their schedule. Quite a crowd of Hershey people were out to witness the stunts. The band rendered several selections as did the male quartet. Souvenirs were distributed and the boosters went on to Sutherland.—The Times.

AT BRADY

The American Legion and North Platte business men were here for a half hour Wednesday forenoon advertising their carnival and Fourth of July celebration. They expected to make a complete circuit of the county during the day. Their cars almost filled Main street, the band played two pieces, and every child in town was generously supplied with a dozen or more souvenirs. North Platte has the real booster spirit all right.—Brady Vindicator.

A FOOTBRIDGE

The business men and other citizens of Ogallala have been busy for a few days constructing a foot bridge across the river to accommodate people of the south table until the commissioners can rebuild the main bridge. The foot bridge is built in two sections, one was completed last evening and the other will be finished by the time this paper is off the press.

The village had previously fixed up the grade from the railroad tracks to the city limits which is to the approach of the bridge.

The commissioners are pushing plans to begin the work of rebuilding the bridge the first of the week. Chas. Jones, the highway commissioner is in Omaha since Monday getting the necessary machinery to drive piling and rebuild the grade.—Keith Co. News.

AT GOTHENBURG

About fifty automobiles, containing 225 men and women and the North Platte Chamber of Commerce Band, swooped down on Gothenburg last Wednesday morning. The blasts of sirens, the good music of the band, the circus like uniforms and humorous capers forced every citizen to stop and take notice. The visitors constituted the North Platte Boosters, who came to remind us that their city will put on a mammoth Fourth of July celebration.

The procession moved up and down the business section of Lake Avenue, stopping at last at the corner of Lake Avenue and Tenth street but not until all kinds of souvenirs had been thrown from the marching ranks to bystanders. From a platform L. C. Carroll gave a short speech, expounding on the glorious Fourth, telling of the wonderful preparations being made for the day, and extending an invitation to us to be at North Platte on this Independence Day. A double male quartet sang two selections and they sang mighty well. The band played again and again, citizens and visitors mixed during the hour's visit, then the line of autos formed an amidst the din of sirens, the party left on the return trip.—The Independent.

NEW COMMANDERS OF AMERICAN LEGION

"I hope only to carry out the aggressive policies launched by Col. Galbraith," said the new national commander, John T. Emery, of Grand Rapids, Mich., as he took command of American Legion affairs. He entered the world war as captain, was promoted to major, and, while leading the 1st Battalion of the 18th Infantry, was severely wounded by shell fire. Thomas J. Bannigan of Hartford, Conn., is the new National vice commander elected to place through the death of Col. Galbraith.

A Cause and a Remedy for High Battery Costs

How gasoline quality affects the battery

Spinning a motor repeatedly to get it started puts a big strain on the battery. It is due largely to the gasoline—to gasoline that does not vaporize properly. It is not a matter of high or low specific gravity, but of chemical composition.

Straight distilled gasoline has a natural chain of boiling point (vaporizing) fractions which insure quick ignition and complete combustion of every particle of the gasoline—puts a minimum strain on the battery.

leaves a minimum of carbon. It is as UNIFORM as the most modern refining methods can make it.

Importance of uniformity
Economical operation depends largely on the accurate adjustment of the motor to the fuel. If your fuel varies, your engine efficiency varies with it. If, on the other hand, you adopt Red Crown Gasoline as your standard—and stick to it—you can regulate and adjust your motor so that you never have difficulty in starting. You will also get maximum mileage per gallon.

Authorized Red Crown Dealers Everywhere

Wherever you go you can always get Red Crown Gasoline from reliable, competent and obliging dealers. The gasoline and motor oils they sell make motor operation more economical and more dependable. They are glad to render the little courtesies which make motoring pleasanter. Drive in where you see the Red Crown Sign.

Why you should use Red Crown Gasoline

Red Crown Gasoline is straight distilled. It meets every requirement of the United States Navy specifications for motor gasoline. It not only ignites instantly and develops maximum power, but it also
