Of course the ladies of both clubs were invited. The cars met at the Court House and left about 6:30. Upon arriving at the grove a six-piece band furnished the inspiration for singing. The supper was made famous by great pans of fried chicken, bushels of sandwiches, tubs of ice-cold pop, three kinds of ice cream and lots of other things to eat that are enjoyed at a picnic. Some races followed the refreshments and then games. The evening closed with singing led by the band. About 175 were present and each is enthusiastic in praise of the good time furnished by Kiwanis.
