NEW SERIAL "SISTERS" TO START IN THE TRIBUNE NEXT WEEK.

Katherine Norris, the distinguished California authoress, has written a number of enchanting tales, but it is doubtful if she ever before has sounded the depths of humane nature so completely and introduced characters so interesting as in her late novel entitled, "Sisters". It has to do principally with two girls of the same family, each attractive in her way, but so different in their natures as to suggest no relationship. One is plainer and sner than the other, but more lovable; indeed, she is one of the most fascinating characters in recent fiction. We would like to tell you more about this charming story, but you will have the pleasure of reading it for yourself, as we have selected it for serial reproduction in The Tribune. If you are not a subscriber, it will pay you to become one just to get this story. The story starts in an early issue of the Tribune.

ADOLPH WENDT

The subject of this sketch was born in Germany March 25, 1837 and died at North Platte, Nebr., August 6, 1921 at the age of 87 years, 4 months and 6 days. His death came suddenly, he being on the streets two days before.

Mr. Wendt was married Dec. 27, 1861 to Miss Dorothea Shultz and in August 1885 the family came to the United States and settled at North Platte where Mr. Wendt followed the carpenter trade. Mrs. Wendt died in 1887 and since then Mr. Wendt has lived with his daughters. Five of his seven daughters are still living. They are Mrs. Fred Wendeboren, Mrs. Lizzie Spies, Mrs. D. M. Hogsett and Mrs. H. S. Johnson of this city and Mrs. G. P. Weingard of Omaha.

The funeral was conducted from the home of his daughter Mrs. Johnson, 1210 W. Fourth St. at 2 p.m. Tuesday and interment was in the cemetery south of Hershey.

Mr. Wendt was one of the sturdy type which came to this country in the early eighties and which has done so much to make this country what it now is. He enjoyed attending divine services where his mother tongue was spoken until deafness made this attendance useless. He will be missed by his children and a circle of old time friends who knew him in his prime.

WHY DO BIG BUSINESS MEN BUY THEIR LIFE INSURANCE IN THE TRAVELERS?

They buy insurance like everything else. They investigate and compare the cost and the form of the policies. Where this is done, the business is always placed in the Travelers. There is a reason. Investigate for yourself. C. F. Temple, The Travelers Man, Phone 62.

WELLKNOW JOURNALIST GIVES HEARTY COMMENDATION TO CHAUTAUQUA

The following clipping from The Midwest of Gering, Nebr., appeared under date of July 15, 1921. It is not what the Standard Chautauqua did last year or some other year but what it is doing this year. This is the program which will be here August 21-25.

"The best Chautauqua program ever presented in Gering is the unanimous verdict of the Chautauqua patrons. Tastes differ of course and there will be a great difference of opinion as to the merits of the respective numbers on the program. But this editor holds to the opinion that the lecture by Fred G. Bale was the great outstanding feature of a program that was really all features. And next to that was the splendid lecture by Dr. Burns. Both dealt with tremendous problems in American life, and both were handled in a masterly manner. The things these great platform orators discussed are vital to the future of this republic, and it is high time that the American people are awake to their tremendous importance. Either of these lectures was well worth the entire cost of the whole program. The lectures by Dr. Gordon and Ex-Governor Hoch were masterpieces, and well worth the while of those who heard them. The writer doubts if four more inspiring addresses were ever delivered in one week in a single community. If Gering and the surrounding territory had nothing more during chautauqua week than these four addresses, and especially those of Judge Bale and Dr. Burns, the investment would have been worth while. The musical number on the program were all far above the average. The whole session may be set down as a decided success, and there is no doubt that Gering will offer an equally good session next year."—The Midwest, Gering, Nebr., July 15th, 1921.

John F. Monroe left this morning for New York to visit his son.

"JOY NIGHT"

CLARENCE BURGERFER, IMPERSONATOR, FIRST NIGHT OF CHAUTAUQUA

Burgerfer, "The Prince of Entertainers" has been recognized for years as one of the most popular entertainers and character impersonators on the lyceum and chautauqua platform. He has the natural gift of humor and good cheer, together with an unusual personality. His original wit, imitable style and wonderful power of mimicry easily place him in a class by himself.

He does his make-up before the audience, entertaining them the while with his witticisms. His work is mostly of a humorous character, yet at times his pathos touches the chord of human sympathy, and while the audience is convulsed with laughter, they go away with a warm spot in their hearts. Let's make "Joy Night" the first night of chautauqua, a big night.

At North Platte, August 21 to 26.
