W'ATYMEAN FREAK HITTER, ASKS BABE

BABE RUTH

With all eyes watching his home run record to see if he was going to pass last year's mark of 34, Babe Ruth, king of swatters, sneaked one over in another direction by establishing a new big league record for the year when he passed his twenty-fifth game the other day, having hit safely at least once in every contest. In twenty-six days he hit safely 43 times in 89 times at bat for a percentage of 480, scoring 35 runs.

Come!
