EDWARD REBHAUSEN

He was born at Omaha, Nebr., April 12, 1868 and died at North Platte, Nebr., Oct. 30, 1921. When ten years of age he moved to West Point, Nebr., where he lived on a farm until the spring of 1887 when the family moved to North Platte. After coming here he worked for Wm. Grady a while and then went into the service of the Union Pacific where he remained until 1892. He then went into the grocery business but four years later he returned to the railroad where he remained until 1905 when he went into business with his brother, Henry. Recently he has been partly crippled as the result of a fall and his old friends have not seen as much of him as formerly. He served for several years on the local police force being chief part of the time.

January 11, 1893 he married Miss Sarah Duffey and to this union five children were born. They are Mrs. Edward Titchner, Gordon, Vincent, Edward and Madeline.

The funeral was held from St. Patrick's church and interment was in the South Side Cemetery.

Mr. Rebhausen was well known among the down town people of this city. He was a kind-hearted man and always ready to help anyone in trouble as far as he was able. The Tribune editor knew Edw. Rebhausen very well and will miss him as will hundreds of others who have known him so well.

CHARLES H. CROSBY IS LAID TO REST AT FORT WITH MILITARY HONORS

The funeral of the late Chas. H. Crosby was held on Tuesday afternoon from the Catholic church. Requiem mass was said at 7:30 in the morning. The pallbearers were Tim O'Keefe and Luther Tucker, dressed in the Spanish-American War uniforms and Alvin Rauch and Albin Sandall wearing the uniforms of the navy and Louis Kelly and Paul Nolan wearing the uniforms of the army. The Spanish War Veterans and American Legion members were in charge of the funeral with Rev. Patrick McDaid officiating. Interment was made at Ft. McPherson.

Mellotone for Restful Rooms

No matter how comfortable the chairs, a room can be only as restful as its walls.

Restful walls are walls that are never noticed. They don't intrude. You may have restful walls by painting them with Lowe Brothers Mellotone.

It's a flat velvety wall paint that comes in a variety of dull, rich colorings; each soft as the rainbow tints. We have a new booklet you'll find interesting.

VAUDEVILLE
KEITH THEATRE, FRIDAY

Wright and Vivian are the originators of acrobatic juggling, doing tumbling and juggling at the same time. The lady is a true artist with the Oriental "Devilsticks." The performance is of a lively nature and full of pep.

Friendly and Cunningham consist of two men who are today acknowledged by both press and public to be one of the best comedy acts on the America stage. Mr. Cunningham is one of the Hebrew comedians who can really put the comedy side of that type over to an audience that is really funny.

Samson and Paulette present a novelty act introducing two steel guitars played entirely different than the rest. Miss Paulette, a late feature of musical shows, doing several styles of dancing, and her conception of the late Georgie Primrose is considered artistically correct, while her partner, "Doc" Samson, late of the Gus Hill Minstrels, the well known baritone, has been features in minstrelsy. This act is talented and above the average.

Doc Jones and the Lively Sisters. This trio is composed of two pretty girls and a clever comedian, who are said to make the most of the opportunities provided for clean comedy in this mixture of bright travesty, funny ideas, clever talking and harmony singing.

Also four reels of pictures.

Ann Reader as Luana and Herbert Charles as Paul, in a scene from "The Bird of Paradise" coming to the Keith Theatre Thursday, November 17.
