EDITORIAL

Paul J. Burke has accepted a place as linotype operator in this office. Mr. Burke's parents live at Maxwell and he makes frequent trips there to visit. It is probable that he will be at home here in North Platte before long as he seems to like it here and we like him. His folks are planning on moving to North Platte in the spring. "Pat" has quite an extended experience in newspaper work and knows what is what in printing.

Frank Boyer has severed his connection with this office for the time being. He has been with the Tribune off and on for the past 27 years, he and Ira Bare never having agreed as to which set the first stick of type for the first issue of the paper. Frank is a hearty, good fellow and has been faithful to his post since we have been on the job. He has not decided yet just what he will do but he expects to be out of the city a part of the time.

The mythical foot ball eleven have been worked out by the city dailies and in the first state high school eleven North Platte has two players, Healey is placed at left end, Locke at right half. In the second team, Yost is given the right end place. On the honor roll Shaner is mentioned as quarterback, Overman for end and Bunnell for backfield. These men were picked for these honors by the vote of 92 state high school coaches and the honor is the more to be considered when it is learned that Lincoln, Beatrice and North Platte are the only schools to have two representatives on the first team. The all-star aggregation mentioned was selected by Ralph Wagner of the Bee.

Everywhere prohibition officers, policemen, sheriffs and constables are giving the leniency of the courts as the reason they cannot enforce the Volstead act. Offenders are brought into court and the judge because of weakness, dismiss the offenders with reprimand or give the lightest punishment possible. The culprit is soon free and gives the ha-ha to the arresting officer. It is certain that neither the prohibitory law nor any other good law can be enforced if the judges do not stand solid for justice. Leniency has its place but not where guilt is established beyond doubt. Having this in mind it is refreshing to read the statement of Federal Judge T. C. Munger who addressed a prisoner as follows: "People are getting so they are not afraid of fines so I must send them to jail to teach them the proper respect for the laws of this country."

The Scout work goes merrily on. Six troops are at work and the interest is growing. Scouting is finding its place. Untrained leaders, unsuitable meeting places, misunderstandings about the purposes of scouting and lack of co-operation have retarded the work before this. Now we have a trained leader here in North Platte in the person of Scout Executive Stephens, the board of education and the official boards of the different churches have adopted scouting as their own activities and allow the scouts to have good places to meet. Through education we have come to know that every normal boy of 12 wants to get into scouting. A strong dozen of men are on the local council and these through frequent meetings are coming to understand the work and so they co-operate in carrying it out. We are for the scouts.

We are in receipt of copies of the Santa Ana (Cal.) Daily News which contain accounts of a production of "The Mikado" by the Orange County Choral Union. On the front page is a two-column picture of Irma Huffman May with the following inscription underneath: "Mrs. Arthur May, who has wide professional experience, a part of the time in a New York company playing 'The Mikado' and who is to take the part of Yum Yum in 'The Mikado' here tomorrow and Wednesday nights." Another copy gives a review of the opera and says "Ray Miles as Nanki Poo, the dashing hero of the story made a decided hit with his tenor voice which he used most effectively in winning the heart and hand of Yum-Yum (Mrs. Arthur May) who can only be likened to a fairy-like creature with a marvelous soprano voice." This is our own Irma Huffman whose success we are glad to read of with the recollection of the former successes she won while with us here. Congratulations and success, Irma.
