Shoe Clearance!
Sale

There Can Be No Economy Without Quality.

That you can buy cheaper shoes than ours at smaller prices, we will quickly admit. But it would be just as foolish for you to buy such shoes as it would be for us to sell them.

Wouldn't we have a fine chance to sell you shoes again, when you needed them if the shoes you bought here, even at a sale price, proved an expensive bargain?

We reduce prices to clear broken lines, and discontinue numbers—but there will never be any reduction in quality.
