

SOUTH LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS

The weather has been almost ideal for husking the worthless crop of corn. Those who have tried each say that corn at the present price is much cheaper fuel than coal.

John McConnell, for many years a resident of South Lincoln county, who moved to Holbrook about three years ago, died December 14. Mr. McConnell lived for many years near Somerset and was one of our foremost breeders of Hereford cattle, taking many prizes at the Denver shows.

A few days ago Mrs. Farrar, wife of Rev. Farrar of Wellfleet was taken to a hospital in Omaha where she passed away December 15. The body will be taken to Adams, Neb., for burial. Mrs. Farrar was a cheerful, happy lady and will be greatly missed by her many friends in this vicinity.

Street grading still continues in Wellfleet.

The Wellfleet Community club gave a dance and oyster supper Friday evening, December 9. A nice crowd enjoyed the evening and the proceeds went to defray the expenses of street grading.

Several have finished husking corn and are now figuring out what their income tax will be for 1921.

Ed. Latimer and family and S. J. Filbert and family were called to Maywood on account of Grandma Latimer's serious illness.

Mr. Cordell of Dickens has purchased the Hall farm west of Wellfleet and will equip it for raising hogs.

The teacher and pupils of Bell Prairie school gave a program and box supper Saturday evening. A nice crowd was present to enjoy the program but these crummy times caused the boxes to go at less than cost as everything else is going down on the farm.

BEST WISHES for YULE TIDE

Some say it is old-fashioned sending greetings Christmas Day; But some of us cling fondly to the good old-fashioned way. Accept old-fashioned wishes for the sake of Auld Lang Syne. A happy, happy Yule time, good luck to thee and thine.

MOVIE CHILD OBJECTS TO SANTA CLAUS PUBLICITY

The most precocious children in the world work in the movies. Two of these are Peaches Jackson and Doreen Turner, six and four years of age respectively, appearing this Christmas in Mary Pickford's newest cinema offering at the Keith theater. During the making of this feature, Little Mary talked to the children a great deal about Santa Claus. Marvelous stories about old St. Nick were told to both kiddies, and whenever Santa's picture was shown on a billboard on the way to or from locations it was always called to the attention of Peaches or Doreen. Finally Doreen said to Miss Pickford, "This man Santa Claus gets entirely too much publicity; he gets more than I do."

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lawhead spent Wednesday and yesterday in Kearney with friends.

Aubrey Kenworthy returned to his home in Omaha Wednesday after visiting friends in the city. Mr. Kenworthy was a lieutenant in Company E and spent several days in the city looking up old acquaintances.

Tim Hanifan is suffering a badly bruised hip which he sustained Tuesday when he was thrown from his dray, caused by his horses running away. The accident occurred on North Locust street where his horses were frightened.

A FINE PROGRAM AT THE THEATERS FOR CHRISTMAS

Manager Hawley wishes to announce his Christmas program at the theaters will consist of some of the best pictures on the market.

At the Sun, "The Heart of Maryland," featuring Catherine Calvert is considered by the critics to be the best Civil war picture ever produced. In addition to this will be shown Buster Keaton in "The Playhouse," without doubt the best comedy of his career.

At the Keith Mary Pickford in "Through the Back Door." In this we find Mary back again to the kind of a picture every one loves her in. Mary says herself she has out done herself in this picture. Matinee at both houses.
