MAUDE SOLLENBERG QUINN

She was born at Franklin Grove, Lee County, Ill., December 3, 1887, and died at North Platte, January 30, 1922. The family moved to Fairbury, Neb., in 1892 and it was here that she went to school and studied music. She was married to Wallace Quinn on December 19, 1906 and they came directly to North Platte where they have since made their home. Mrs. Quinn was the mother of two boys, Russell and Charles, whose untimely death at the age of 3 years and 3 months respectively, shocked the community. About three years ago Mrs. Quinn joined the Methodist church in this city and her Christian life was beautiful and full of service. She was of gentle speech and ways with refined habits and these won her a large number of friends who are sad and who miss her.

Mr. Quinn survives her as does her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sollenberg, a sister, Mrs. Ida Bedell and two brothers, all of whom live at Fairbury. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. E. Hess at the Methodist church, Tuesday afternoon and her remains were taken to Fairbury where interment was made beside her two children.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many kindnesses shown to our beloved wife and daughter and also to us during the long illness and death. And for the many floral offerings that were sent us and your sympathy, we are grateful.

Wallace Quinn,
Mr. and Mrs. E. Sollenberg.

Thomas Hanna of Stapleton is transacting business in the city today. Clinton & Son, the Eye Glass Men. Service and Satisfaction.
