SHORT STORIES OF PEOPLE AND THINGS

ITEMS OF INTEREST ABOUT RECENT HAPPENINGS IN THIS COMMUNITY

The January report of the City library shows that 172 applications were received for borrowers' cards during the month. The same report shows that 4,568 books were circulated during the month.

About fifty people attended the meeting at McPherson school last Saturday when Carl Jones, assistant in boy's club work in this state spoke on pig clubs. County Agent Kellogg also spoke in the interests of this work.

The detention room at the City Hall has been equipped with steel bunks. There are six of them and they are without bedding but most of them are occupied every night by wanderers who want to get in out of the cold.

August Sodacott of this city died Sunday night at the North Platte General hospital. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon, 2 o'clock at Maloney's morgue. Interment will be made in the North Platte cemetery.

The Sophomores entertained the Fremont basket ball team and the High school at a dancing party in the Franklin auditorium Saturday night after the game. Punch and wafers were served during the evening.

The Nebraska conference of Social Workers will meet at Hastings on February 19, 20 and 21. This is the gathering of earnest men and women who are trying to solve the problems connected with social welfare. Miss Anna Kramph of this city is president of the conference.

Troop seven, Boy Scouts, was defeated at Legion hall last evening by the Hershey High school team by a score of 22 to 29. Dale Stroup was referee and made a hit with the small crowd which attended. A return game will be played at Hershey in the near future.

Yesterday Miss Mary Ellen Brown visited Lincoln county rural schools in the interests of school children's hot lunches. Miss Brown is the girls' club leader in this state. Bignell, West Osgood, Box Elder and O'Fallons schools were visited. County Agent Kellogg accompanied her.

The official program of the Nebraska Retail Clothier's Association which is to meet in Omaha beginning next Monday gives "H" Hirschfeld of this city as a member of the reception committee. E. J. Vanderhoof is a member of the executive committee.

Mr. Holland of Lincoln, in charge of the County Agent extension work in this state called on Miss Murphy, city librarian this week in regard to the possibility of county libraries and the co-operation of libraries in community work throughout the state. Miss Murphy is president of the Nebraska Library association.

Eighty new post office boxes have been placed in position at the local post office and will be ready for use in the near future. There is a row of boxes at the bottom, each of which is larger than anything seen here before. There is a demand for a few such boxes and it is thought they will be quickly taken when ready.

The Rotary club held its regular meeting at the Presbyterian church dining room yesterday. Dr. Brock spoke on the business side of dentistry and gave some interesting and valuable information about the way in which a professional man has to look after the business end of his business if he is to make a success of it.

Saturday evening the North Platte quintet won the basket ball game from the Fremont five. At the end of the first half the game stood 5 to 12 in North Platte's favor. The final score totaled 20 to 14 in our favor. Fremont also played here Friday evening and won by a score of 20 to 19. The next game to be played here will be on February 17 with Gothenburg as the opposing cagesters.

The basket ball boys will leave tomorrow morning for Lincoln where they will play Lincoln Thursday night. The boys will also play Havelock and University Place, Friday and Saturday respectively. The North Platte cagesters are George Shaner, Donald Yost, Harley Bunnell, Edwin Rector and Roland Locke. The subs are Darrell Healey, Gordon Schwatger, Denver Wilson and Lawrence Hubbard.

Mrs. Elizabeth Todd Young passed away Sunday morning. The funeral services will be held from the Methodist church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, and the body will be taken to Wallace for interment.
