CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for their many kindnesses and manifestations of loving thought, also for the beautiful flowers sent during the illness and at the passing of our husband and father.

Mrs. Mary Allen and children.

FARM LOANS.

I have the money on hand to close farm loans promptly.

T. C. PATTERSON,
B. & L. Building.

Mrs. B. B. Baker who spent fifteen months in Alaska last year spoke before the Travel and Study club last evening on her experiences while there. Rev. C. F. Koch spoke on "Our Indian Problem" and Mrs. O. H. Shriver sang an Indian song. Miss Florence McKay gave two piano solos. The out of town guests were Mrs. B. B. Baker and Mrs. Arthur Bullard. The club met at the home of Miss Grace Mooney and was served elegant refreshments by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hecker entertained at their home last Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Becker's father, J. H. Thompson, the occasion being his sixty-fourth birthday. Progressive high five was played during the evening after which a delicious lunch was served. Prizes were received by Mrs. W. J. Hendy and Bert Callender. A birthday cake was given to him and each guest received a piece before leaving. The guests presented him with a gold fountain pen and his grand children gave him a gold stick pin.

Mrs. York Hinman entertained the members of the D. A. R. at an informal reception Friday afternoon at her home, 302 West Third street. The affair was in honor of Mrs. C. F. Spencer, Mrs. Hester Bronson Copper, Mrs. B. B. Baker and Mrs. L. W. Toole, who were D. A. R. sisters visiting in the city. The afternoon was spent in renewing old acquaintanceships and visiting together. Mrs. Hinman asked the honor guests to say a few words and each responded in a very pleasing way. Delicious refreshments were served. The ladies appreciated the thoughtfulness and courtesy of Mrs. Hinman in giving them such an enjoyable afternoon.

The twentieth annual state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution of Nebraska was held at Lexington, March 14, 15, 16. This conference is of special interest to North Platte since it was called to order and presided over by Mrs. C. F. Spencer as state regent. Sioux Look-out Chapter had a delegation of five; Mrs. York Hinman, regent; Mrs. W. C. Reynolds, Mrs. M. K. Neville and Mrs. Wilson Tont, delegates; Miss Grace Mooney, visitor. There was no election this year, excepting a nominating committee for next year, of which Mrs. Hinman was elected a member. As there were some available funds, Mrs. Spencer proposed that a genealogical library be purchased for the use of all the chapters, this being possible by sending it to each in turn. The plan was adopted and a committee was appointed to handle the library. Mrs. Hinman is a member of this committee. Mrs. Spencer says the idea of a travelling library has been a cherished dream of hers and its cordial reception and quick adoption gives her great pleasure.

The hospitality of Bonneville Chapter and many other people of Lexington was really remarkable. The delegates were entertained in the homes and at a banquet without charge which is not the custom of this organization. All those attending the conference agree that it was most enjoyable. The invitation sent by the Deborah Avery Chapter and the Chamber of Commerce to the conference, to meet at Lincoln next year was accepted.

Miss Viola Carlson spent Sunday in Hershey visiting friends.

The funeral of Fred Werneke was held Saturday from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Adolph Scherz, living southwest of the city. Rev. Koch conducted the services and interment was in North Platte cemetery.

VAUDEVILLE at the Keith Theatre WEDNESDAY ONLY.

THE FLORENE DUO—A novelty acrobatic and dancing act. A man and woman providing a comedy oddity that is hard to beat.

BYRONA & AILEEN present an act that is altogether different from the ordinary. Novelty and laugh from the start to finish. Miss Aileen flashes several of the latest gown creations. They are wonderful harmony singers which puts them over to an easy hit.

FITCH COOPER—The Musical Rub, who is notably a good funster but who is clever in evoking musical sounds from all sorts of queer instruments. This act can be relied on to bring deep and spontaneous laughter.

JEAN & SHANE—In Melodys of Music, will take the honors with their rendition of classical and syncopated selections. On the whole this is a very novel and classy offering.

ALSO A GOOD FEATURE PICTURE WILL BE SHOWN
