EDITORIAL

The communication signed "A North Platte Citizen" cannot be printed until we know who wrote it and who is responsible. We cannot see why people keep sending us communications reflecting on the honor or integrity of some officer or other person and then fall to even let us know who stands back of such charges.

The Tribune is the Lincoln county paper. It is the only paper having a general circulation all over the county and it carries news from one part to the other. We are distributing over one thousand copies of each issue in Lincoln county outside of North Platte. We aim to give the news of all parts of the county and no community is too small or far distant to be of interest wherever the Tribune is read.

Our announcement of the sale of the filling station at the corner of Sixth and Locust was an error. Mr. Robinson came to our office and gave us the facts and ordered some cards printed. He later on sent word to us that the deal was off but we did not get this word and so published the announcement. Saturday we received word that Mr. Robinson has not fought the filling station and that it is still being operated by the S. & R. people.

Yesterday at Rotary club we were told to get acquainted with our neighbor, we might like him. What a world of meaning there is in that sentence. What a discovery it would be for some of us if we really discovered a good fellow in the man we had lived by for years and had been shy of him. Avoid the man who preaches hatred. It is the doctrine of destruction. People respond to hate with hate and love with love. It is just as well to keep your hands on your pocketbook until you know your man but get acquainted with him even if you find him to be a rascal.

Someone is getting ambitious on the 9 o'clock whistle again. For quite a while it has been behaving itself fairly well considering that it is determined to blow. But lately it has been forgetting itself and Thursday night it went a little farther than usual and made a mighty poor impression on the more than one hundred guests of the insurance men's convention. They were trying to hear an after dinner speech but they did not make it for the whistle sounded a little louder than usual and held on a little longer than usual and our one hundred guests got an impression of the nuisance which impression was good or bad in so far as they were enjoying the after dinner speech or not. The nuisance should be abated just as any other nuisance should be abated.

Francis K. Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Flynn of this city is vice president and engineering director of the Luce Cane Harvester corporation with headquarters in Newport News, Va. He is associated with George D. Luce of New Orleans, who has invented a sugar cane harvester which bids fair to revolutionize the sugar industry. For 3,000 years the cane sugar crop of the world has been harvested by hand. This machine solves the labor problem and quickly harvests vast fields of cane. The Tribune is in receipt of a picture from a press clipping bureau in the east and the accompanying letter says that Francis is one of the figures in the picture. We used to know him pretty well and think we would recognize him now anywhere but we could not recognize him in the picture. However, he was probably there and he was in good company. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Flynn on the success of their son and assure them that we always knew Francis would make good.

There are some men and women of vision in Lincoln county and things are going to be better here in a few years than they have been. This applies particularly to the country. There are men and women here who have stepped out of the seclusion of their homes and volunteered for service and their leadership is being accepted by their neighbors who are anxious to uphold their hands. These people see that the salvation of the rural communities as places to build homes and raise children, lies in community effort and they are boosting. There are still some sore spots. There are some land owners who live in town and who dabble and putter about the neighborhood affairs of their former home communities and try to run things. There are some back biters who try to pull down anyone who attempts to do anything. There are the laughers who make fun and there are the scowlers who make trouble and there are all kinds of people that we have in town and they work just as hard. Often the leaders get tired of the strife and give up and the neighborhood sinks back into an each-man-for-himself attitude. The country is needing rural leaders but it needs rural supporters who will boost these leaders and in doing that pull themselves up. We know of the good work being done in Bignell, Nichols, Jack Morrow Flats, Platte Valley and other communities and we know of other

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF LINCOLN COUNTY, NEBRASKA

In the Matter of the Estate of Frederick Werneke, Deceased.
NOTICE OF HEARING.

To All Persons Interested in Said Estate:

Notice is hereby given, that Frieda Scherz, on April 3, filed in this Court an instrument purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Frederick Werneke, deceased, and which will related to both real and personal property, and also her petition praying that the said instrument be admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary, be issued to her, upon the estate of the said Frederick Werneke, deceased, and that said petition will be heard before the County Court in the Court House, in the City of North Platte, County of Lincoln and State of Nebraska, on the 24th day of April 1922, at two o'clock P. M., at which time any one may appear and contest the probate of said Will, and show cause, if any there be, why said instrument should not be admitted to probate as the last Will and Testament of said Frederick Werneke, deceased, and why letters testamentary should not be issued to said petitioner.
Dated at North Platte, Nebraska, April 3, 1922.

Sensible Shoes Are Fashionable

Shoes with sensible walking heels and comfortable toes are the vogue for out-door and daytime wear. Rapidly, the high French heel and the uncomfortable pointed toes are being limited by fashion to formal dress affairs.

The greater comfort and peace of mind enjoyed by the wearing of sensible shoes has been the cause of fashion's new attitude toward correctly shaped shoes. The leading influence in this style trend has been, and is the well known Cantilever Shoe. It has a flexible arch and a close fitting instep which make walking a joy and which take the fatigue out of both walking and standing.

You will enjoy the new shoe fashion when you wear Cantilever Shoes, and the freedom permitted by the Cantilever flexible arch will act like a tonic on your feet. It is a real happy feeling that you experience when you wear Cantilever Shoes. Come to our store and see them, and try them on. It's a treat to the feet—and to the nerves. We are the sole agents for Cantilever Shoes in this city.
