THE COST OF SCHOOLS

Statistics issued by Phil Bross, state secretary of finance, shows that in forty-five Nebraska towns having a population of 2,000 or more, there are twenty-five where the cost of conducting the schools is more per pupil than in North Platte and twenty where the cost is less. This cost per capita of all children of school age in North Platte is, according to Bross' report, $4.45, while in Sidney it is $10.04, in Bayard $113.07, in Omaha $74.70, and in Lincoln $72.03. Lexington leads in the lowest cost which is placed at $27.68 and O'Neill next at $29.84.

The Senior High Parent-Teachers' Association met Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. The program was opened by the Boys' Glee club which sang a double number. Those present showed their enjoyment of the boys singing by calling them back for another selection. The audience was then asked to go to the Normal Training room. This room had been beautifully decorated with artificial apple blossoms and there was a display of the various kinds of hand work which the Junior members of the Normal Training class had been working on for the past four weeks. This work consists of all kinds of paper folding and cutting, weaving of paper, raffia and yarn, clay molding, water color work, toys made of many different materials, and many other kinds of work. Miss Florence Antonides, teacher of the class explained the work and said that she was very proud of the work of this class. An alcove of the room had been fitted up by the Senior members of the class as a model one-teacher school. This was explained by the different students as to lighting, decoration, equipment, etc. Miss Mary Dye gave an interesting talk on "Our Seniors," and Miss Loretta Murphy, city librarian, gave a very pleasing and instructive talk on "The Value of the Library to the Students." Mrs. I. L. Stebbins, chairman of the program committee, thanked the teachers for their splendid cooperation and willingness to help with the program. At the close of the program the Normal Training girls served punch and cookies. This courtesy was much enjoyed by the visitors.

OFFICE OF MUTUAL BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

To the Shareholders of Said Association:

At a meeting of the state taxing authorities held in Lincoln April 26, it was decided, that in arriving at the valuation to be placed on shares of stock in domestic Building & Loan Associations for the purpose of taxation, the same rule of arriving at the taxable valuation of such shares, with the same deductions, as is applied to the shares of stock of all other domestic corporations.

The law provides: "The value of the shares of stock of corporations organized under the laws of this state shall be determined for the purpose of this section by deducting from the actual value of the paid up capital stock surplus and undivided profits, the actual value of the property of the corporation both tangible and intangible listed and taxed in this state, and the actual value of the property of the corporation outside of the state."

Following up this ruling and applying the same to the taxable value of the shares of this Association, it has been decided that only three per cent of the actual value of said shares shall be returned for taxation; that is, for each one hundred dollars of actual value of such share three dollars shall be returned as intangible and only one-fourth of that amount shall be assessed against the shareholder.

Shareholders can ascertain the actual value of their shares by applying to the secretary.

T. C. PATTERSON, President.
