Lillian Devere is a handsomely dressed, attractive titan haired beauty who derives her ancestry from a family who have for generations entertained the amusement seeking public of the entire theatrical profession has the sameworld. The name Devere in the significance as leaders in their line that obtain from prominent leaders in any other business or profession. She is one that will just walk into the hearts of the audience from the moment she appears before the foot lights.

White and Button—In the Follies of 1922 are a lively couple that is hard to classify owing to the fact they offer an act that is far from anything that has been seen here yet. But you can rest assured that the act starts and finishes with a laugh and has not one idle moment.

Dawn and Frances—Two attractive girls in character dancing, featuring classical waltz, Chinese dance, French Jazz and Gipsie dance. This is a select vaudeville act in every way and also a well dressed one.

Sykes and Sykes—In a laugh, a song, and a thrill. Both are expert cyclists and consisting of a sing a smart song while doing stunts on the cycle finishing with a high kicking, waltzing and burlesque dancing.
