Candidate for CONGRESSMAN in the 6th District of Nebraska, as a Republican of the Progressive type.

HIS CREED

If elected to Congress he pledges that he will work strenuously

To make our Government more truly of, for and by the people.

To reduce taxes.

To secure proper reduction in freight and passenger rates, by forcing the railroads to accept fair and reasonable profits upon true values only.

To prevent public service corporations from taking from the people exorbitant profits and large earnings on millions of watered stock.

To obtain for the farmer, stock raiser and laborer, fair prices for their products and to prevent the loss of such large amounts between the producer and the consumer.

To develop arid and semi-arid lands of Western Nebraska by government irrigation projects.

To secure a soldier bonus, not by a tax upon the already overtaxed people, but out of the foreign debt, the interest on which will largely pay the same, and also by levying upon the millions collected by war profiteers, if any way can be found to get hold of the same. To raise the bonus by taxation would require the soldier to pay taxes to pay his own bonus.

To secure and amendment to the Constitution of the United States, preventing its Supreme Court from de-clearing a law unconstitutional, except upon a vote of two thirds of its members. At the present time by a 5 to 4 vote this court overturned a law passed by almost 400 congressmen, 90 senators and the President of the United States. By such a method this Court has killed the Child Labor Law and the law preventing gambling on stock exchanges.

To stop the increase of power at Washington and restore to the States much of the power that has been taken from them in recent years.

FAIR PLAY

We, as Americans, take pride in the idea that we believe and practice giving the other fellow a square deal. We are fairly true to this ideal except after we have elected a man to office. Think it over and note the fact that you have helped elect many good men to office, but only a few that you did not go back on after having elected them. We allow our wrath such unlimited way in these criticisms that many of our best men refuse to enter politics. In fact, the man who offers to serve the people in these days should have the hide of a rhinoceros, and the feelings of a stuffed toad. Otherwise he will be hurt.

By allowing ourselves this fun of pernicious criticism we discourage the courageous man who is honestly doing his duty, we make a crook of the morally weak but courageous man, and cover the deeds of the crooked man by our smoke barrage of hearsay exaggerations, and lies based on ignorance of conditions and of circumstances.

In coming to the polls next Tuesday, let us be true to our American ideal of fair play. If we know a candidate is incompetent, because of moral, intellectual, or mental defects, discard him and persuade others to do the same. If we know nothing of him, it would be fair to say nothing about him. If we know him well and of our own knowledge, know of no questionable inefficient or crooked acts, would it not be exercising good sense on our part to conclude that he is the same man, as before he registered at the primaries? If our close friends of their own knowledge know nothing unfavorable concerning him, we have additional assurance that he is still worthy of our trust. Then, if those who are boosting an opposing candidate, or have a petty personal grievance, or who have criticism based on the whisperings of the wind on a cloudy night come to us with suspicions, heresays and unconfirmed reports, is it wise to give their chatter much serious consideration?

We would dislike to spread evil reports, more especially if untrue, of any one, and most surely if we had trusted that one as an acquaintance or friend. There never have been more difficult times for the office holder. The men who handle our finance hear the constant cry of "Less Taxes". The men who enforce the law are meeting conditions when the lawbreakers use brains as well as bullets. The history of Jessy James, and narratives of Kentucky moonshiners are duplicated in every newspaper that publishes news. The fact that a man has worked for us faithfully and efficiently for one year or for ten years is not the reason that we should fire him. As long as he is the best man we can hire for the job we shall retain him if we can. With us this applies to public as well as private business. Likewise, in private or in public business, if a man is not making good, it is exercising good judgement to replace him by a better man.

But in all this as American citizens living in the best county in the best state of the greatest nation that has yet existed, let us give the other fellow a square deal, and see that the spirit of fair play rather than the habit of fault finding and knocking rule our actions Tuesday, in local, state, and national issues.

Lincoln county has had a sheriff for the past ten years in the person of A. J. Salisbury. During that time there has been 53 autos stolen in Lincoln county. Of that number Sheriff Salisbury has recovered 46. Some record. He has arrested 30 persons charged with the manufacture of "hootch. Among those persons arrested were some very prominent people of Lincoln county, which shows that Mr. Salisbury is no respecter of person when it comes to doing his official duty. The Telegraph considers Mr. Salisbury one of the best sheriffs in the state of Nebraska. He is a tireless worker and a man who uses good judgement in handling the affairs of his office.

While you have a good servant why change him?—North Platte Telegraph.
