Something to Think About By F. A. WALKER of will, you find in your grief that

Pride scores as dictator.

and a sting in your conscience.

Yet you keep going crookedly ragged practice of unbending your neck or curving your lips with a

It no longer matters so much how

In the background of every picture depicting human unhappiness tongue or a spurt of passionate anger

If you will study the blur intently, you will find that it is the evil thing that destroys peace and strews

If you have a true friend, give him or her the best of which pure friendship is capable of giving; or.

if you have quarreled, break the

(©. 1922, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

SHUCKS! THIS ANT NOTHIN!

COULD HT DO HOTHER ELSE!

LONGSIDE OF PACKIN A

JIMM! WHATE DRAWIN

GOSH . IF I PACHED

HOULD N'T CARE IP . I

WALLOP LIKE YOURH

SCHOOL DAYS

AUX- WELL O COURSE

MY WALLOP'S ALL RIGHT BUT

DRAWR LIKE THAT WIRT FIL

MUTE AN MA: MWITCH INLD

FOR CHRISTMAS!

IF YOU LEARN HE NOW

TIM FOIL AM SEND IT

truce and beaven will bless you!

battlefields with rivulets of blood.

between two persons, communities or your behavior appears to the glaryou cannot do it.

RAGGED PRACTICE

FRIENDSHIP, the most sacred of all moral bonds, is never appreciated at its full worth until by some unlooked for snap of its golden moorings it takes fright and flies away.

In the excitement of the moment, the loss may not be keenly felt, but as the years ride by in their swift life and continue year after year the charlots, lines mark the face and strands of silver streak the hair, there comes to the loser an inex- friendly smile. pressible sense of loneliness which sharply reminds him or her of the glorious sun that has set behind the purple hills.

A friendship which multiplied joys flout it in public places, dropping and divided sorrows is gone forever. daily a little lower from the high cated. As you repeat this word "gone" in ideals so sacred to you in the peacethe night when you are alone, and ful, hallowed days of friendship. again in the morning and at interwals through the day, it comes upon you with a new and terrible meaning. How gladly you would erase it, but in spite of your oft boasted strength

IDDIES SIX Will M. Maupin

DON'T WORRY!

WHEN the sun is blazing hot, Don't worry!

Bumper crop, as sure's you're born-Get up smiling every morn. Don't worry!

When the iceman brings his bill, Don't worry!

Keep your tongue and temper still. Don't worry!

For they've got you in a hole-If not ice, then it's for coal-Don't worry!

Things look bad the country through? Don't worry! Can't help things by looking blue.

Don't worry ! Smile and just keep on your way,

So let nothing you dismay-Don't worry!

Don't worry! Hins a silver lining bright. Don't worry!

Just refuse to fret and stew; To your own good sense prove true-Don't worry!

Don't worry! It will make the harvest fat.

Toll today-tomorrow rest; Brace your nerves to stand each test For whatever is, is best-

YOUR

4 Characteristics and Tendencies - the Capabilities or Weaknesses That Make for Success or Failure as Shown in Your Palm

LOSS OF MONEY

A S WE may read by various signs in the hand that the fortunate subject has acquired, or is to acquire, through inheritance or wealth Like a beggar you sup on its dry through his or her own exertions, so crusts, and go to bed night after we may read also, in the hand, the night with an ache in your heart loss of wealth, after it has been possessed and enjoyed.

Inspect carefully the finger of Satabout the byways and highways of urn, the middle or ring finger, near the top, for a star. If it appears plainly near the edge of the finger. it indicates loss of position and money. See also the Mount of Samoney. See also the mount of Sating eyes of the world, so you per- urn, which lies at the base of the base or beginning of the mount, a sist stubbornly to air your pride and zigzag line, the same loss is indi-

Naturally, it must be understood that these signs, as so many others in the hand, are not always perfectly clear and well-marked, and great care you will find an ugly blur of color must be exercised in reading them, in quite at variance with the rules of conjunction with the other marks and harmony, caused by a slip of the signs in the hand. (Copyright by the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The Scream of the Pipes. It is claimed for the bagpipes, by some admirers that it is among the oldest of musical instruments. Whether or not the oldest, it is certainly the loudest of all instruments. The duke of Sutherland owns a bagpipe which figured at Prestonpans, and must, therefore, be nearly 200 years old, yet it can still be heard at a distance of

SAY! YOU LITTLE

SHRUMP - 10 HATE TO GIT YOU CORNERED AM

RIGHT MAD-

GREASON WAR

NEWS OF STATE How to Read Your TERSELY TOLD

Recent Happenings in Nebraska Given in Brief Items For Busy Readers.

The peach crop in Gage county is said to be the largest in years.

Superior is making elaborate preparations for its annual fall pageant. Preparations are under way to open a drive to raise $1,135,000 for Hastings college.

Cattle feeding in Cheyenne county is on the increase, due to a widening of corn acreage. Charles E. Cobbey of Omaha has been elected president of Cotner university, near Lincoln. Ord is experiencing a pronounced building boom, a number of business and dwelling houses being in course of erection. A number of persons were injured when a tornado tore a wide path through the farm community near Bloomington.

Preparations already are being made for the Pawnee county fair which will be held in the late summer. It will last five days.

An attack of Indigestion, caused by eating green apples, caused the death of Vernie Holcombe, 8, son of Edward Holcombe of Fremont. The attractive prices paid on the Omaha sheep market is causing sheepmen from all parts of the country to bill their stock to that place. The doors of the Nebraska State have been closed by the state department of trade and commerce. Fifteen counties in the state have returned abstracts to State Tax Commissioner Osborne showing complete returns of property for taxation.

Miss Millie Mason of Friend has started for Denmark to visit her aged injury. father, who returned to that country from this city several years ago,

At a special election held at Adams to vote $12,000 bonds for extending the waterworks system there, the proposition lost by a vote of 115 to 96. Driving a horse without shoes has for several years. been held by an Omaha judge to be cruelty to animals, and Joe Novek, a peddler, was fined $10 for the of-

Sharp declines of wheat, amounting days, have attracted wide attention to the Iowa side for safety. from farmers now in the midst of the harvest.

A dugout containing a large still souri river ten miles south of Nebraska City.

ter part of July to deliver three ad- state. Besides pig, calf and poultry dresses in the interest of organized clubs, there are numerou- others, such Soil which burns with a bright flame | counts clubs and similar organizations.

when a match is applied to it was much excited.

Neb., has been filed in district court the store when the fire started. at Omaha by Attorney General Clarence A. Davis.

excellent condition.

perch and crappies were planted in the oldest Mason in the state, the big lake north of Louisville this spring and fishermen are enjoying unusual luck there.

Nebraska farmers m rketed dairy products worth $30,000,000 the last strip several miles wide, the hail year, according to a bulletin by Secretary Leo Stuhr of the state depart- ing Aurora to the north in its direct ment of agriculture.

Mrs. George Lutz, 53, who was drugged and robbed of $800 in her is complete. home at Louisville by an unknown assailant, died from her injuries a serve, comprising 2,500 acres of land few days later. In the scuffle with south of Omaha along the Missouri the man she was choked and a quantity of poison was forced down her of seven months at the Commercial culture and G. G. Koster, state game State bank of Florence took place warden. Dr. Harold Gifford, chairman when a lone bandit entered the bank of the grounds committee of the Fonand forced Rudolph Johnson, cashier, tenelle Forest association, owner of into the vault, and escaped with be- the tract, recently made application tween $1,500 and $1.800 from the to the state for protection of the money drawers,

Will Suiter of DeWitt was badly burned about the arms when he at- night and Muddy creek at Stella is tempted to carry out several sacks of out of its banks. This means a fersugar from the rear of the Farmers' tile valley twenty-five miles long will Union store at that place, which had be flooded, the second time this sea-caught fire. F. W. Romber, breeder and stock- more than six and a quarter inches. man of Uehling, boosted the top on the fat cattle market for the year to date ed, and his brother, William, 16, and at South Omaha to $10.25, when he his father, Silas Knapp, 55, are in a marketed 18 head of prime horned his father, Silas Knapp, 55, died Hereford steers of his own raising and within a few hours later in a feeding at that figure. They averaged Fremont hospital following an acci-1,321 pounds, and are the first steers dent when a Northwestern train last year.

With 7,185 children between the ages of five and twenty-one years for rural schools in Platte county listed, the school census of Platte after three years of inability to fill county for 1922 shows the largest in- all the places. School officials think crease recorded in any year. Boys that higher salaries paid since the outnumber girls by 237.

been incurred by Nebraska counties, fession. municipalities and school districts in ages issued $14,000,000 of these bonds, sease in the future,

The Nebraska Automobile association is organizing a branch in Pawnee county.

After an absence of two years, typhold fever has again made its appearance in Richardson county, two cases being reported to Falls City physicians within 24 hours.

Extensive preparations are being made by the Gage County Holstein Breeders for the State Dairymen's Annual Picnic and frolic, which will be held at Beatrice, August 9th.

McLeod Post No. 47, American Legion, of Schuyler, will stage its third annual Labor day celebration September 4, the principal features of which will be boxing and baseball.

Triplets were born to Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Persak, eight miles west of Ord. The triplets include two girls and one boy and weighed about two pounds each. One of the girls died. The Pawnee county fair will open on Monday, October 2, and will last five days. Entertainment of all kinds, including the regular racing schedule will be provided for all five days. Ray Bell was awarded the grand championship in broncho riding at the Scottsbluff Legion rodeo, which concluded a three-day program with 10,000 in attendance during the period. A special meeting of the York city council was held for the purpose of voting on the passage of a paving ordinance, which carried and means the paving of 24,000 feet of frontage. Bloomfield business men "closed up shop" last Monday and put in the day helping out the unfortunates whose homes were demolished by the tornado that swept that section the Saturday night before. Donald Kunz, 11, adopted son of C. W. Kunz of Wood River, was instantly killed, when the car in which he and his father were riding to the farm bank at Milligan, Fillmore county, got out of control and turned over on

> Tom Rose, 35, a farmer, was killed and his barn and poultry house wrecked by a tornado that struck near Sargent. Rose's body was found fifty feet from the wreckage of the barn. Other members of his family escaped

Nebraska is to have an unusually plentiful supply of fruit according to R. F. Howard, professor of horticulture at the University college of agriculture. Conditions so far have been more favorable for fruit growing than

The Missouri river within the past few weeks has washed away all but seven acres of the 200-acre farm of John Dean on the east side of the river across from Peru. His family to 7 cents a bushel in the last few and household goods have been taken

Lightning struck a large stock barn on the farm of Harry O'Neill near Stapleton and burned it to the ground. and two fifty-gallon barrels of mash During the same storm a four-horse was found on an island in the Mis- team, owned by Frank Finkle, was killed and Finkle's children, who were in the wagon, were stunned.

W. Coverdale, secretary of the Thayer county claims the honor of American Farm Bureau Federation, having more persons enrolled in club will come to Nebraska during the lat- work than any other county in the as corn clubs, health clubs, farm ac-

After digging through the ruins of discovered by William Grutch while the Charles H. Taylor fire at the plowing on his farm near O'Netil, and Winnebago Indian agency near Decaresidents of the neighborhood are tur, the body of the five-year-old son of George Smith, an Indian, was found, A petition asking that a receiver be This little Indian boy and Taylor's appointed for the Bank of Waterloo, son were playing in the basement of

J. D. Edwards of Stromsburg has been presented with the Jordan medal The first new wheat of the season of the Masonic order, by grand officers delivered at Dannebrog, was from a of the Masonic lodge of Nebraska. twenty-five bushel field and tested 90 Mr. Edwards is ninety-two years of pounds. Barley, cats and rye are in age and has been a Mason for sixtyseven years, having joined at Fair-Eleven thousand bullheads, ring field, Ia., in April 1855. He is now

Hamilton county last week suffered its greatest loss for many years from hail. Coming down from the northern part of the county, destroying a tapered off towards York county, passpath, destroying all the crops. It is said the damage to many cornfields

Animal life in Fontenclle forest reriver on the road to Bellevue will soon be under state protection, according to announcement by Leo Stuhr, The second holdup within a period secretary of the department of agribirds and animals in the reserve.

Four inches of rain fell Sunday son. The total rainfall for July is Glen Knapp, 10, was instantly killto bring the price since November 10 crashed into a coupe carrying the three victims.

There is now a surplus of teachers war have caused many high school A bonded debt of $24,557,000 has graduates to enter the teaching pro-

The bureau of animal industry and the last nineteen months, or at the the county farm bureau have comrate of $1,292,060 a month, according pleted their Thurston county campaign to Charles E. Lawrence, bond clerk for the eradication of horse scables, In the office of State Auditor George It is believed that this county which W. Marsh, where the law requires has been badly affected with scabies bonds be registered. Citie. and vill- will practically be free from the di-

WOMAN GANGSTER SENT TO PRISON

Underworld Character of Kansas · City, Mo., Shared in Killing of Men.

WAS WELL EDUCATED

Mattie Howard Broken Hearted When Lover Is Shot to Death While Robbing Bank-Laughs as She Is Led Away to Cell.

Kansas City, Mo.-Prison doors closed recently on Mattie Howard, the most remarkable woman of the underworld in the history of Kansas City. Directly or indirectly she had been responsible for the death of a dozen men, and was herself implicated directly in at least one killing, for it was for this crime that she was im-

She appears to be a type morre commonly met in the "movies" than in real life. It was in 1916 that she burst upon the underworld of Kansas City. It is said that she had respectable parents and was well educated, especial care being given to the de velopment of her voice which apparently was something out of the ordinary. She was strikingly handsome, # brilliant blonde, with state-blue eyes which won for her the title, "girl with the agate eyes."

Loved a Gangster.

Mattle Howard presently took up with Albert Pagle, a rising young gangster who was just attracting the attention of the police. Though she took up with many men in the course of her career, there is no doubt that the infatuation for Pagle was the guiding impulse of her life. For a year the lovers lived together and then Pagle was arrested and sentenced to five years for highway robbery.

Mattie was left broken-hearted but began planning ways to raise money to secure his release. She formed al-Hances first with one crook and then with another, and all were killed or arrested while helping her raise money by holdups or other means,

Lover Shot After Holdup.

With all this bloodshed Mattie was still without the money that would procure Pagle's release, but good behavior had cut down his sentence and he was released one day and restored to her. Three weeks later, he, too, was dead. He was shot and died from wounds after he had killed the cashier of a bank he was trying to rob. Mattle was his companion on this fatal enterprise, and its tragic ending broke her

She organized the finest funeral the underworld had ever seen. The room was banked with flowers, she chose the pallbearers from among the more illustrious thugs of the city, selected the Biblical text for the funeral sermon, and herself sang the appropriate hymns. A few days later she was arrested, tried for the killing of a dlamond broker years before, and sentenced to 12 years in the penitentiary. She laughed and sang as she was led away. Pagle was dead, so the prison held no terror for her.

Sang the Appropriate Hymns.

DOG BITE KILLS BOY AGED 5

Pasteur Treatment Fails to Prevent Hydrophobia in Case of St. Louis Tot.

St. Louis, Mo,-Le Roy Earl Kohlhauff, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Kohlhauff, died after having been bitten on the face by a neighbor's log afflicted with hydrophobia. The dog, which is said to have bitten several other children, died a week ago under observation. The child received Pasteur treatment.

Raincoat Stops Suicide by Drowning. Rochester, N. Y .- A heavy raincoat and a silk waist saved the life of Mrs. Mary Alexander, fifty years old, of Rochester, when she attempted to drown herself by leaping into Lake Ontario. The garments puffed out like balloons and kept the woman affoat, rescuers said.

When the breezes bloweth not, Don't worry! Think how it affects the corn;

Pay his huge outrageous toil,

Things will work out right some day, Every dark cloud in your sight-on't let trouble trouble you;

Hot, of course, but what of that?

Don't worry!

Don't worry! (Copyright by Will M. Maupin.)

> Uncommon Sense . . .

TEN YEARS

TO THE boy of eight, ten years is can progress after fifty, go farther had no existence. Ten years more less he is going strong on his fiftleth end he will be a man in stature- birthday. a size that seems to him far beyond attainment.

wears, while not a lifetime, is a long stretch nhead.

At the end of the coming ten years he will be well on his way to wherever he is going, success or fallure. If he could understand just how much those ten years mean, just what can be done with them, just what they will yield if rightly cultiwated, there would be far less trouble and distress in the world. To the man of forty, ten years are ten years which must not be wasted. The next ten years are his best, as far as productfulty is concerned. If he has not made the last ten years count, he still has a chance with the mext ten.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB I was denoing last night with my new pumps I hope that the girl never knows As I smiled in her face with a languorous grace How madly I curled up my toes.

After that, unless he is a phenomenon, the chance will be gone. He an eternity. Ten years ago he than he has ever gone, but rarely un-

JOHN

BLAKE

Look at your remaining years as an asset. Examine the next ten of To the boy of twenty-one, ten them for opportunity, and see if you can allot to each enough work to carry you at a better pace into the > next decade. Ten years wisely employed at any time after twenty ought to make a man either a success or a fallure. They may not be enough to bring > a fortune, but they ought to bring habits and methods which later will insure independence Compare the next ten years with the last, and determine that these > stretches of time, now empty and un-Improved, shall be filled with achievement that is worth while. You can put into them almost any thing you choose-work, effort, thought, or idling, and time wasting. Almost any man can be made or broken in ten years. You have at least that time before you if you are the age of the average newspaper

Make up your mind that even if the last ten years counted for nothing the next ten will count for much. Make that purpose, and stick to it. And these coming ten years will be the best you have ever known.

(Copyright by John Blake.)

World's Water Power. The total available horsepower in the world derivable from falling water is reckoned at 439,000,000. Africa leads with 190,000,000, Asia has 71,-000,000. Europe is credited with 45,-000,000, South America with 54,000, 000 and North America with 62,000,-

Mother's Cook Book

"Worry and optimism cannot travel the same road, to say nothing of going in the same company, A real good worrier is not generally sought after, either in business or social life." FOR THE FAMILY MEAL

TO MAKE hot lunch sandwiches, L chop remnants of ham fine; season and moisten with cream or melted butter and put on buttered slices of bread. Press the slices firmly together and trim them in oblongs or squares. Beat one egg, add from a cupful to a pint of milk, according to the number of sandwiches; add a little pepper and salt and dip each sandwich in the mixture, turning once or twice until well saturated. Brown delicately on both sides in a hot frying pan with a little butter. Serve at once on a hot platter, garnished with parsley or nasturtium leaves and blossoms, Sandwiches filled with jelly may be fried the same way, dusted with powdered sugar and served as dessert.

Apple Salad.

Slice tender apples thinly, leaving the skin remain if bright red. Mix with half as much finely-cut celery, chopped onlon or cabbage. Add enough thick cooked salad dressing to hold the mixture together. Peanut butter may be used in place of the dressing if desired; season with salt, pepper and thin with a little vinegar and water. Serve on lettuce or in apple cups.

Hamburger Steak.

Grind round steak through the meat grinder adding a pinch of cloves, with the usual seasoning of salt and pepper and one-half of a small hot pepper rubbed to a paste (using the canned chili, though the pimentoes will do), adding tabasco sauce. Pat the meat into a flat cake and brell under a hot gas flame or over clear coals. Turn until both sides are seared, then cook more slowly until done to the center. Serve covered with melted butter and sprigs of parsley. Nellie Maxwell