JULIE CROCKETT PASSES AWAY AT HER HOME IN TULARE

Fred Jones, the son of the late Fred and Ottilia Jones, who died Friday, was the oldest of six children and the last to survive the Jones family.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius J. Jones, who have lived in Tulare for over 30 years, said Fred was a devoted husband and father, and a kind and generous neighbor.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Tulare County Cancer Society.

DESERTED

Chaucauau Week is enjoyed by many

This week the Chaucauau Week festival was in full swing, with a variety of events taking place throughout the city.

The main event of the week was the carnival, which featured rides, games, and food vendors. The carnival was open from 10am to 10pm daily, and attracted thousands of visitors.

The Chaucauau Week festival is held every year to celebrate the city's rich heritage and culture.

LOWEST MARKET PRICES

PAID FOR

G. A. CROMER, Cream and Produce

HARDING CREAM CO.

Phone 81

Across from Depot

COMMITTEE TO COMMITTE TO COMMIT

September 19

TOMAH HOMES LOCATED AT DATE OF NORTH PLATTE

A letter received by W. J. T. user...