

CHATS WITH YOUR GAS MAN

Banish from modern life its greatest conveniences and you have again what people like to call "the good old times."

Who wants the good old times back? Who wants to wash the globes and trim the wicks of oil lamps? Who wants to go back to the coal and wood stove or fill the old washtub with hot water from the kettle and take a bath in it? Surely not these who enjoy the manifold advantages of modern gas service.

The workingman's comforts of today were the millionaire's luxuries of yesterday. The modest home of the average American is infinitely more comfortable than the mansion of the old days. Measured in ancient standards, we are all kings today.

A well-known writer says that those who are inclined to bay the moon too loudly, should consider the hardships they missed by not being born 200, 100, or even 50 years ago.

There were about thirty-five guests present and they were entertained by a mock wedding followed by refreshments. The guests reported a fine time.

McDOWELL—ANTONIDES

A very pretty wedding took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Antonides when their son Joline was married to Miss Faye McDowell of Harrington, Nebraska. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Hess of the Methodist church. Only the immediate family was present. Mr. Antonides graduated from the local high school with the class of 1917. Since that time he has attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln from which he will graduate in the spring. Mrs. Antonides is a student at the University at Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Antonides will attend the University this fall after which they will make their home in this city.

Miss Billie Williams will leave Monday for St. Paul, Nebr., where she will spend a week visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clinton, Mrs. C. L. Baskins and her father Wm. Jenkins attended the Round-Up at Sutherland Wednesday.
