Solomon said—"In all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths." Proverbs 3:6.

Roosevelt said—"Nothing can make good citizenship in those who have not courage, hardihood, decency, sanity, the spirit of truth telling and truth seeking."

Friends of E. W. Mann who lived in North Platte and was prominent in railroad circles here for a number of years, will be pleased to learn of his continued good health and reasonable prosperity in Denver. The editor remembers his civic activities in North Platte and recalls how he always stood for the better things. His family is spending the summer at a cottage in the mountains where Mr. Mann joins them every few days. He is at present connected with a Denver Detective Agency.

You can always get a crowd out to anything unusual, provided it is advertised enough. Fifteen thousand people paid admissions to one of Denver's parks the other day to see the flappers. One who was there said all they saw was a group of the most frivolous of our girlhood, a silly, giggling bunch of girls of all ages trying to attract attention to themselves. It was not what they could do that counted, it was not what they had achieved. They were not showing themselves for the prizes which were offered, because of their winsomeness and maidenly qualities but because they had cut off their hair and shortened their dresses. They represented the class of young folks who are putting pleasure before substance. Some of them will get over it, some will go under. At their age they do not need to resort to immorality, for cigaret, "nipping" and hilarity furnish thrills enough. We have always had flappers but they have never before been recognized. If there is any harm to society in the increase in this class it will be blamed largely on the mothers of the girls who have themselves set the example of pleasure seeking and frivolity or failed to exercise a restraining influence. The flapper may be a passing product of our day but she is certainly receiving more attention than she deserves. The winsome, modest girls are still the backbone of our hopes for the future and we still admire and love them best.
