EDITORIAL

David said—"The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: He shall preserve thy soul!"—Psalms 121:7.

Webster said—"Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable."

The editor had the pleasure of taking luncheon with the Hi-Y boys last Wednesday noon. The menu had been prepared by a group of ladies who are interested in the success of the movement and it was fine. There were about eighty at the tables and they did justice to the food which was served. Dale Stroup was chairman and called on Messrs. Neville, Roettger, Koch, Patterson, and others for short talks. The ideals of this group are high and worthy of the best support. The Hi-Y is one of the organizations of which the citizens should be proud.

One of the new departures of the management was the employment of bands from outside of North Platte. On Wednesday the Sutherland band rendered a number of good programs. It is composed of boys and girls, young people and older ones. It is under the direction of C. F. Rhine, who for a time was a cornet soloist with the Chamber of Commerce band of this city. The Sutherland band gave universal satisfaction and made good in every way. On Thursday the Hershey band twenty or more men in natty new uniforms gave two street concerts and filled the grandstand with sweet music during the afternoon and evening. Fred Rasmussen is the leader and the music rendered by the band was a tribute to his ability as a director as well as the ability of the individual members. Lincoln county is more fortunate than many counties in having so many good bands and it is becoming in the management of the county fair that it recognizes the ability of these bands.

When in Doubt--

On a financial matter you consult your banker or broker, if it is a legal question or contract, your attorney. In either instance you select men whose experience is broad, judgement sound and in whom you repose every confidence.

In consideration of your insurance affairs why not use similar judgment? I have made a careful study of the lines of insurance which I carry. I have had fifteen years experience, and feel quite confident to advise you on any insurance matter. I am just as glad to advise you with reference to policy you already have, as I am with reference to new insurance.
