EDITORIAL

Paul said—Behold now is the accepted time; behold now is the day of salvation. 2 Corinthians 6:2.

Lincoln said—"Learn the laws and obey them."

It is very fitting that North Platte give some attention to fire prevention, having had a severe lesson in the dangers that constantly surround us. But the celebration of fire prevention week is not being put on because of the late fire. It is a national celebration and is placed during the second week of October by the national officers. The cause is worthy of the united support of all citizens and it is believed that it will do much good toward righting conditions which tend to increase fire hazard.

An interesting story came to our notice this week when Wm. E. Shuman was looking up a record on a piece of land just east of the city limits. It is lot 51, Platteview subdivision, a piece of ground the size of a city block but which has never been taken into the city limits yet. On Jan. 26, 1909 it was sold by Mr. Shuman for a trustee in bankruptcy to Dr. Twinem for $350. January 9, 1911 Dr. Twinem sold it to Otto Thoelecke for $800. March 24 of the same year Mr. Thoelecke sold it to Fred Hein for $850. August 12, 1919 Mr. Hein sold it to Mrs. Ellen Walker and Mrs. Catherine Simon for $1000. Yesterday they sold it to Martin Wyman for $2,000. There are no improvements on the property except it is under cultivation. From $350 to $2,000 in thirteen years. What makes this increase in value? There is but one answer and that is population.

The directors of the Lincoln county fair gave complimentary tickets to the newspaper men. This was a courtesy to the press which was appreciated. The Tribune gave columns to telling about the fair and has given columns to the fair since it was over. We did not get pay for this and did not expect it. The only thing which the fair had which it could give was complimentary admission and it responded in fine shape. The editor bought ten dollars worth of tickets and did not need the comps but that was not the question. It has become quite the thing among some of the home organizations to say that not one free ticket will be given out even to the press. The newspapers would be justified in saying not one free word should be said about such an organization but they don't and probably that is why the discourtesy continues. In speaking of the county fair it is not our intention to slight other organizations which have been very courteous but they do not desire us to mention them by name and some would resent such publicity. Complimentary admission is a time honored courtesy due the newspapers and one which the newspapers should probably insist on.

LOCAL COMMITTEE IS PREPARING BRIEF SHOWING UP ADVANTAGES

In preparing the brief supporting North Platte's advantages as a site for the proposed Yeomen's Childrens Home, the nine phases will be prepared by the following:

Health statistics, I. L. Bare, comparisons to be made with twelve states and thirty-six cities complete with graphs; deductions by Dr. Kerr and Dr. Selby.

Climate—Temperature, sunshine, storms, A. W. Shilling; comparisons with twelve states and thirty-six cities; illustrated by graphs; deductions by Mr. Shilling and advisors.

Fertility and productiveness of soil; W. P. Snyder and Warren Doolittle, supported by authenticated data from individual farmers.

Natural beauty and accessibility, commerce and industry, I. L. Bare, accompanied by photographs and maps of railroad lines and highways; railroad and auto traffic.

Building material, availability and price, construction cost, value of Platte river sand in construction work; L. B. Dick, and other lumber dealers and contractors in advisory capacity.

Economic advantages, E. F. Seiberger, with deductions from statistics related thereto, as presented by other treated phases.

Site locations, maps, pictures and details; deductions from soil fertility statistics, O. H. Thoelecke and S. M. Souder.

Spirit of the community, quality of citizenship, attitude toward child welfare and other humanitarian projects, Wilson Tout.

Opportunities for boys and girls when training in the home has been completed, Miss Annie Kramph. The treatment of these subjects will be submitted to the general committee of eight for approval, and when approved will form the brief which will be presented to the board of directors of the Brotherhood of American Yeoman in person by a local committee which will meet the directors in Des Moines in November.

The following clipping from the Bee of yesterday will be of interest to local people. Dr. and Mrs. Crook were residents of North Platte until a few years ago when they moved to Omaha.

Charging that he refuses to live with her as her husband and that he has failed properly to provide for her, Mrs. Hedwig C. Crook asks a divorce from Dr. Walter Crook, dentist, with offices in the Neville building. Dr. Crook denies the charges.

The Crooks were married in 1907, divorced in 1918, and were remarried in 1921, according to Mrs. Crook's petition. She asks custody of their children, Eloise, 11, and Phyllis, 8, and $160 a month alimony. She also asks the return of $520, which she says she loaned to her husband.

MUSICAL COMEDY ALL ABOARD HAS NUMEROUS SONG HITS

"All Aboard" was given at the Keith last night to a fair audience but one which expressed its approval of the various numbers with prolonged applause and encores. The play was a credit to the directress, Miss Dixie Doyle, who has spent the past three weeks in drilling the choruses and solo members of the cast. Donald Russell and John Ritter were two college boys who were both in love with the same girl, a part taken by Miss Marguerite Campbell. In a foot ball game one of the boys loses four front teeth and later on loses his false teeth. In his desperation he steals every set of false teeth on board the ship and the girl, her mother, taken by Mrs. Tiley and his sister, Miss Mary Elsworth are involved in one humorous situation after another. Ralph Shawgo in a colored part and Perry Buchanan as captain of the ship were the sailors Harry Pizer and Jay Smith and Miss Marie Schwaiger who took the part of the Swedish stewardess. The chorus groups consisted of tourists, cabin boys, yachting girls, sailormen, sweet-hearts, sailor girls, bumble bees, fishing girls, overalls, sea nymphs, water witches and antidotes. The play will be given again this evening and a crowded house is expected.

Electrify!

A Clean House for 5c

Five cent's worth of electric current in a vacuum cleaner removes every trace of dirt and litter from rugs throughout the house and saves you the back breaking labor of old-fashioned cleaning methods.

You couldn't hire a woman to sweep very long or very thoroughly for 5c. A man wouldn't lift the rugs and put them on the line for that amount of money. But an electric cleaner and 5c worth of current will clean the rugs, also draperies, curtains, overstuffed furniture and pillows.

See how cheap electricity is! And think how tirelessly it works for you. Use more electrical appliances—keep your youth and strength.
