EDITORIAL.

Paul said—"Ye are the temple of the living God."—2 Corinthians 6:16.

Blackstone said—"Those offenses should be most severely punished which are most difficult to guard against."

One of the old cat's paw of the political party which is out and wants to get into power is the cry, "Turn the whole gang out." It is as old as the hills and has worked and will work as long as voters do not use their brains to think with. It has been used this fall in connection with our present county officials. It is used on the supposition that there is a gang in the court house. Our business takes us to the court house enough so that we can get a pretty fair idea of the conditions there and we do not hesitate to say that the officials there do not have the first semblance of a gang. They came from different parts of the country, they had not met until they came to take their offices in the same building, they have the same jealousies and rivalries which are found in any group and in some cases they are almost hostile if not quite so. Each has his own particular work to do and he does not step on the field of the others. How could they form a gang? No, it is an apt phrase which was said of some boss ridden community where there was a gang and the phrase has been passed along. What Lincoln county should do is to select the best men and not turn them down because they are now in office. A man may hold an office so long that he loses his usefulness, but that does not apply as a rule and then only when he has aroused a great deal of antagonism, and so cannot secure the co-operation of the people. Let's use our heads and not some old worn out phrase.
