David said—"Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him and He shall bring it to pass." Psalm 37:5.

Cardinal Mercier said—"Better be dead than dishonored is the rule for a man; Better be annihilated than dishonored is the rule for a country."

We asked one of the best informed men of this part of the state who he thought would be elected United States Senator and he said that it is pretty close. Hitchcock has the advantage of his years of service and the disadvantage of belonging to the minority party. Howell belongs to the majority party but has had no office experience. There is a movement on in favor of Hitchcock since he has come out so strongly in his rebuke of the wets and has taken such a strong stand against wines and beer.

The Letter

Lexington, Oct. 23, 1922

The Tribune.

North Platte, Nebr.

Dear Sir:

The enclosed item was clipped from a recent issue of your paper. As it reflects on the honesty and sincerity and management of our schools I wish you would kindly publish a correction. In the Kearney game no one was held out of the game for any reason because of infringement of any rules. All were eligible as stated in the lists furnished by school authorities.

We are just as anxious to hold strictly to eligibility rules as any competitor would have us do. We investigated thoroughly all the points of eligibility before beginning the season and have held strictly to the rules of the State High School Athletic Association. We have heard just as serious charges against both North Platte and Kearney but have not seen fit to parade them before the public thru the local press. Such reports undoubtedly have their origin in the fertile imagination of a disappointed fan or player.

Yours Truly,
C. E. Collett, Supt.

NOTE: The item referred to stated that there was a report to the effect that Kearney had disqualified two of three Lexington players on account of eligibility. The report still stands neither proven true nor untrue until the receipt of Mr. Collett's letter. We are glad to print his statement as we have found him to be an honorable man in all his dealings with us and we have known him for a number of years. Further investigation is being made of the report referred to and we will take pleasure in giving publicity to our findings.
