CHARLES H. RANDALL
WILL BE ELECTED GOVERNOR NEXT TUESDAY

He has been trusted in his home community for thirty-five years. That trust will grow as Randall has grown. He has never turned back nor has he failed in any undertaking, no matter how difficult. He has in mind but one determination—to serve the people. He is not an orator or a politician. He is thoroughly a man of the people. He knows the problems of all classes of people. He started at the bottom and through his own energy, thrift, industry and economy won success.
 Randall started life in Nebraska with a mule team, breaking prairie. As a farmer, he fought insect pests, dry weather, blizzards and the many other discouragements so familiar to farmers. But he never gave up. He began his business career in the same way—at the bottom. No person knows better the difficulties the farmer must meet than the man whose life experience is that of a farmer and small town banker. Many a farmer in the Randolph territory today admits that he owes his prosperity to Charles H. Randall's familiarity with farm problems.

RANDALL IS INDEPENDENT OF POLITICAL GROUPS AND BOSSES. THERE ARE NO STRINGS ON HIM. HE STANDS SQUARE-TOED ON EVERY ISSUE.

RANDALL SAYS:
 "Never was there greater need for rigid economy than at the present time. I shall demand it."
 "There can be no return to business conditions that are fundamentally sound until agriculture is restored to a prosperous basis by reinstating the purchasing power of the farmer."
 "Taxes shall be further reduced, but not to the extent of crippling governmental efficiency. Our state university must be adequately supported."
 "As a member of the board of pardons and paroles I shall favor non-interference with the sentences of the courts upon those who violate the laws."
 "I favor absolute enforcement of the prohibitory law."
 "I am in favor of a system of rural credits that will enable the farmer to hold his crops until the market is able to absorb them with profit to the producer."
 "I believe in the principle of the code law and favor such changes as are now found desirable after four years of experience."
 "Further economy can be practiced in the state's business and I pledge my word that I shall see that this is done wherever possible."
 "I hope that, whoever is governor, such business methods will be used in building the new capitol that it can never be said that one dollar of graft went into it."

RANDALL MAKES NO IMPOSSIBLE PROMISES. HIS ONLY PLEDGE IS TO GIVE TO THE PEOPLE OF NEBRASKA THE VERY BEST SERVICE OF WHICH HE IS CAPABLE. HIS WORD IS GOOD AND HIS ABILITY AND INTEGRITY HAVE BEEN PROVEN IN HIS OWN LIFE AS FARMER AND COUNTRY BANKER OVER AND OVER AGAIN.

As a member of the government loan agency created in Nebraska by the War Finance Corporation, Mr. Randall worked four months without pay helping to create better financial conditions. This committee approved $15,000,000 in loans, of which $12,000,000 was actually paid out in Nebraska. The immediate effect of this was that within seventy days corn increased from twenty to forty-five cents a bushel, other grains went up in proportion, the strain was taken off of the banks, many additional bank failures were averted and general business conditions were improved immeasurably. The increased prices for grain alone were sufficient to more than pay off the loans.

Vote for Charles H. Randall November 7.

 I am for Chas. W. Bryan without any apology and believe in the reduction of taxes as any public official should in these adverse times. I am not condemning any public officials, but merely competing for office in a business method. I promise service and a business like administration.
