ASK INCREASED PENSION

Bill is Expected to Become a Law Before Arrival of the Holidays.

London.—With the achievement by the Mustapha Kemal Pasha of a conference at Mudania, the whole Near East situation is considered temporarily easier. However, the fact that Turkish troops are still concentrating in the Ismid zone, notwithstanding that they have retired slightly in the Chank zone would indicate, according to remarks after the British cabinet's second meeting that "Kemal is still playing a game."

While the cabinet members appear to be much gratified at the happy conclusion for the moment of a difficulty which might have necessitated the use of force in the Chank zone, there are other bridges to cross. Up to the present there is no information from General Harrington, the British commander at Constantinople, that Kemal will attend the Mudania conference, although General Harrington's dispatches indicate that he might.

The Mudania meeting will be a purely military affair, to agree, according to the original allied note to Kemal Pasha, that the neutral zone shall be respected, and also to agree upon lines behind which the Greeks shall be respected, and also to agree upon lines behind which the Greeks are to withdraw in the race. There will be present military representatives of the three allied powers, as well as of Greece and Turkey.

All civil and Mexican war veterans having served ninety days or any who have developed disabilities would receive the increase from $50 to $72 a month under the bill, and their widows' pensions would be increased from $30 to $50 a month. Other beneficiaries under the bill include civil war army nurses, who would receive $50 a month. While pensioners of the Indian wars would receive $30 and their widows $20 a month.

LEGION MEN ON HERO LIST

David O'Leary and W. W. Colton of Pasadena Post Rescue Victims of Explosion.

There came a deafening roar, and out of the building gushed the strong odor of ammonia gases. David J. O'Leary, adjutant, and W. W. Colton, of the Pasadena, Cal., Post No. 13, American Legion, peered through the dark toward the post club-rooms.

"My God," O'Leary cried. "The boy scouts are holding a meeting up there. And the caretakers must be in there, too."

The men ran into the building, fought their way through the deadly ammonia fumes, one in search of the caretakers, the other upstairs to the clubrooms, where the Pasadena boy scouts were holding their meeting. But the boy scouts, acting with the steadiness of nerve and calm discipline that are the result of their training, already were marching out of the building—and carrying, four of them detailed for the work, a crippled boy scout who had been overcome. They had even remembered to pull a pillowcase over the stricken boy's head, and they carried him out to safety and revived him.

Colton and O'Leary, staggering, groping their way, searched for and found Mrs. Maude Fishburn and Mrs. A. Hare, the caretakers, who had been sleeping in their quarters in the building. They carried both women to safety. First aid treatment revived them. The two Legionnaires also were resuscitated.

The post's clubrooms are over an ice plant, and it was an ammonia tank in the plant which exploded. It was declared that if it had not been for the bravery of O'Leary and Colton the two women would have met death.

AUXILIARY WOMEN SET PACE

Under Leadership of Mrs. Rose Cravens, Missouri and Kansas Workers Conduct Benefit.

"Let's go," the rallying cry of the American Legion, went flying over Kansas recently when it was announced that the American Legion of Kansas and Missouri would take over the dedication of Kansas City's new $500,000 speedway, sharing in the receipts, Mrs. Rose E. Cravens, president of the Woman's auxiliary, sounded the cry to all the members of the auxiliary in her state, and began immediately organizing flying squadrons of ticket sellers in every city and town of Kansas.

"We're working for the disabled veterans, and their dependents, and the dependents of the dead heroes," Mrs. Cravens told the auxiliary workers, explaining that the two American Legion departments would realize $60,000 from the dedication.

The women responded with enthusiasm. Under Mrs. Cravens' leadership they conducted a campaign as strenuous as any held in war days. They gave of their time and energies to make the dedication a great success, and American Legion officials declared the women of Kansas and Missouri outshone the men in their activity.

HAD REAL CAUSE FOR GRIEF

Small Boy's Distress Had a Whole Lot More Than Mere Sympathy as a Basis.

A lad in Washington got a job that didn't at all please him—shoveling the snow from the sidewalk in front of his house. There was a good bit of ground to cover. After about two hours' toil he began to cry.

"What's the matter, son?" asked a sympathetic neighbor, as he came upon the scene.

"A tramp came along and stole the shovel from the boy next door," explained the lad between sobs.

"Well, son," continued the neighbor, "it's a fine thing to be sympathetic, but you mustn't worry so over other people's affairs."

"It ain't that," added the boy, "I am crying because he didn't steal my shovel, too."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Up to the Doctor. Mrs. Potts' husband had been quite ill, but finally there came a change. When the doctor called and had a look at his patient he announced:

"He is a convalescent."

Whereupon Mrs. Potts regarded the physician suspiciously; and her suspicion increased when he made no further comment but prepared to go.

"Well, youse a doctor, ain't yo'?" she demanded. "Ain't yo' got no medicine fo' dis heah convalescence?"—Exchange.
