SHORT STORIES OF PEOPLE AND THINGS

ITEMS OF INTEREST ABOUT RECENT HAPPENINGS IN THIS COMMUNITY

A divorce was filed last week by Margaret Stoewer asking separation from William B. Stoewer on the grounds of cruelty. There are no children.

Judge J. L. Tewell arrived here yesterday and opened the fall term of District Court. The jury was ordered to appear at eleven o'clock today. The docket is crowded and many cases will not be disposed of this session.

Yesterday Judge Tewell granted a divorce to Mrs. Maude Furnish from George R. Furnish on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Ogallala and have on child, Doris who is given into the charge of her mother.

The fire department was called out early this morning to the 400 block on West 4th street. Some ashes had been dumped against a wooden building and the building caught on fire. Not much damage was done.

Miss Ethel Lasby, field secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Topeka branch, addressed the members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church yesterday afternoon. She is a charming lady and brought a wonderfully helpful message to the ladies. Light refreshments were served after the address.

The Rotary club met in the Timmerman Vineyard yesterday and heard reports of various activities of the club. E. L. Stephens suggested that Rotary assume the responsibility for a scout troop. Dr. Kerr and O. H. Thoelecke told of the trip to Des Moines of the Yeomen Home Committee and W. J. O'Connor spoke on business methods.

The Episcopal Guild will hold a sale and supper at the church on Saturday, Nov. 25. Serving will begin at 5:30. The menu will consist of escalloped chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, baked beans, cabbage salad, hot biscuits and jelly, apple pie, cheese and coffee. Price 50c. The sale will consist of fancy work, rag rags, aprons, candles, popcorn balls and parcel post packages.

Manager Hawley announces a picture for the Keith, for Thursday and Friday which is attracting unusual attention. It is Washington Irving's famous story, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" given under the screen title of "The Headless Horseman". The imitable Will Rogers takes the role of Ichabod Crane, the lanky Yankee school-master whose sentimental heart was not strong enough to stand up under the bewitching eyes of the fair Katrina Van Tassel, the belle of Sleepy Hollow.

During the past week the following marriage license have been issued by Judge Woodhurst—Myron A. Feaker, North Platte and Miss Dorothy M. Robinson, North Platte, married by J. D. Kelliher, J.
