GREAT EXCITEMENT.
WAS CREATED, BUT WITH GOOD RESULTS.

Last Monday afternoon Geo. Ringling and Will Sully were driving toward Shubert, and overtook another couple going the same way, and challenged them for a race to Shubert. As it afterward turned out, they had all read the advertisement in THE ADVERTISER that a first class photograph gallery had been opened in Shubert by J. A. LeRoy, and all who desired first class work in the photographic line should give him a call, as only first class work is made and satisfaction is guaranteed, and they were going to have their pictures taken. The gallery is well equipped with fine backgrounds and accessories. Open all week, and on Sunday afternoon for the accommodation of those who cannot come during the week. Copies made from old photographs, etc., and also fine large tin types are made if you are in a hurry. NO CHEAP JOHN WORK IS MADE, BUT FIRST CLASS WORK ONLY. Samples at the postoffice.

THE CELEBRATED SCHOOL LAW SUIT DECIDED.

The celebrated school suit, has at last been decided by the supreme court, and the decision is in favor of the school board, and reverses Judge Broady's decision, which was in favor of Taylor. We clip the following from the Lincoln Journal of the 14th:

"Bourne vs. The State, error from Nemaha county, reversed and action dismissed.

"The board of trustees of a high school has power to adopt and enforce appropriate and reasonable rules and regulations for the government and management of the schools under their control.

2. A rule which makes it the duty of a teacher to keep a record of the standing of each pupil in the studies pursued by him, of his attendance and deportment, to send each month by the pupil a written report of the same to his parent or guardian, and which requires said parent or guardian to sign and return the same to the teacher, is a reasonable one.

About two weeks ago V. P. Peabody's right knee began to trouble him, and in a short time the leg became badly swollen. He came in town and saw Dr. Keeling about it, who said he had been bitten, probably by a snake. For several days Mr. Peabody could not bear his weight on the leg, and symptoms of blood poisoning developed, but he is now much better.
