Local News.

What has become of our famous sladder suits.

Nearly all the farmers are through husking corn.

John Martigan of Auburn, was in town Thursday.

F. L. Woodward visited Lincoln Monday and Tuesday.

Several jack rabbits have been killed in this vicinity recently.

An inch or two of snow fell Wednesday, but it did not last long.

Dick Burgess is now assisting Dick Merton in the blacksmith shop.

Miss Anna Pierson visited with friends at Shubert Sunday and Monday.

H. A. Kyle has bought a fine new road wagon, and is now putting on lots of style.

J. W. Taylor stayed in the drug store several days this week, while Minor was at Omaha.

Mrs. J. W. Taylor returned to Lincoln Thursday, after a visit of ten days with Nemaha friends.

Will Swan is moving on Lew Fisher's farm north of town, recently vacated by G. B. Kinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawxby went to Missouri Wednesday to visit friends and relatives for a few days.

Attention is called to the page ads of The Racket store and of A. A. McClinch & Son, on inside pages.

Henry Waterman and Joe Donnell went to Nebraska City Tuesday afternoon, returning Wednesday night.

Little Leo Baldwin has been very sick with typho-pneumonia fever for several days, but is getting some better.

The sidewalk leading to the depot, to which reference was made last week, is being repaired. It was in very bad shape.

R. C. Snyder, a former citizen of this precinct, but who is now living at Eaton, Ohio, sends us $1 to apply on his subscription.

Green Burgess returned to Nemaha Thursday evening, after a visit of several days with old friends and comrades in Missouri.

And now John Maddox is rejoicing over the arrival of a great big handsome 10 1/2 pound boy at his home. He made his appearance Monday.

Mr and Mrs. J. H. Veeder, Mrs. Jennie Moore and John Moore went to Shubert Saturday, visiting H. A. Wheelton and family until Monday.

The cold weather does not stop croquet playing. The snow was swept off the ground early Thursday morning and playing goes on from early to late.

Mrs. Will, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Gilmore, ever since the latter moved to Nemaha, started for her home at Cherokee, Ia., Tuesday.

Johnny Myers, for many years a B. & M. conductor on this line, and well known to a great many of our people, died a few days ago at his home in Nebraska City.

The parties who are wintering a large number of horses on the bar northeast of town have lost several head. It is thought their deaths were due to eating willow twigs and bark.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed E. Sanders and two little daughters and Mrs. F. L. Pearson and son, of Whiting, Kansas, arrived in Nemaha Friday evening of last week, and visited with Mrs. J. M. and W. W. Sanders until Monday.

M. H. Faylor went to Omaha Monday, to buy his stock of holiday goods. Verne went with him, to see that he behaved himself. They returned Thursday evening.

The Missouri river has been full of floating ice for several days and is now closed over. If cold weather would continue it would be but a few days until it could be crossed on the ice.

J. E. Thomas, of Auburn, having decided to close out his stock of fine goods, and accept a position with an eastern house, will have an ad. in next week's issue, telling of the bargains he has to offer. Look for it.

Sherm Titus is rendering out grease from dead hogs and other animals. A few nights ago some one stole a barrel of grease containing about 53 gallons. Sherm offers a reward of $5 for discovery of the thief.

Messrs. Stowell & Kent issued the first number of the Auburn Post under the new management last week. They have changed the form to a six-column quarto, have put on a new dress, and make an entirely different looking paper of it, and one that is a great improvement over the old style.

The village trustees have contracted with the Messrs. Dowler to put in a public well, windmill and 140 barrel tank. Work has been commenced on the well, which is located in the middle of the cross streets at the Titus & Williams corner. This is something that has been needed for a long time.

A family reunion was held at the residence of W. W. Sanders last Sunday. There were present Mrs. J. M. Sanders and her five sons—W. W., Geo. N., Ed. E., John G., and Carl E. There were also present Mrs. W. W. Sanders and Willie and Nellie, Mrs. G. N. Sanders and Eddie, Johnnie, Grace, Harry and Merle, Mrs. Ed. E. Sanders and Clytie and Jennette, and Mrs. F. L. Pearson and Frankie—twenty persons in all.

F. L. WOODWARD,

Director School District No. 36.

Good advice: Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by M. H. Taylor.

CATTLE DEHORNED.

Robert Frost is prepared to dehorn cattle. Persons having cattle they want dehorned should see him.

We need money and need it bad.

One Minute Cough Cure is a popular remedy for croup. Safe for children and adults. Taylor, the druggist.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Titus & Williams carry a good grade of goods, and their prices are reasonable. No shoddy goods kept to make a cut on.

A nice line of dress goods—handsome patterns—low prices—just received by Titus & Williams.

Coughing irritates the delicate organs and aggravates the disease. Instead of waiting, try One Minute Cough Cure. It helps at once, making expectoration easy, reduces the soreness and inflammation. Every one likes it. Taylor, the druggist.

J. E. Thomas, of Auburn, writes us he has decided to close out his stock of dry goods, notions, etc., having accepted a position with an eastern house. This is a bona fide sale and prices will be put down low in order to sell quickly. Mr. Thomas has a good, clean, well selected stock of seasonable goods, and people trading with him can depend on getting bargains. Look out for a big ad next week, giving inducements.

We understand that Mr. W. W. James will remove with his family to Peru in the spring, where his children are attending the Normal, and that Mr. W. C. Jenkins who is now living on Frank King's farm, will take possession of Mr. James' home place and farm it the coming season. Mr. James makes this move in order that his children may get a good education, and at the same time have the restraining influences of home.—Shubert Citizen.

E. S. Chamberlain, a resident of Bethany Heights, was in Lincoln today in search of Prof. Herbert Bartlett. The latter is the one who made such a glowing and sensational report concerning the Milford gold fields. Mr. Chamberlain believes that gold exists in paying quantities in the vicinity of Peru. He says that a farmer named May, while staking a well four miles south of Peru, found some metallic rocks, or nuggets, in which he thought he detected traces of gold. Some of this was sent to Omaha by a friend to be tested. On the return of the messenger the latter refused to produce the assayer's certificate. Then the friend took some of the ore to Kansas City.

Following some peculiar negotiations, which excited the suspicions of Farmer May, the Kansas City assayer reported that he had found neither gold nor silver in the ore. Soon after this a proposition came from Kansas City for the purchase of the land. May declined to sell, but he is now anxious to secure the opinion of an expert mining geologist. Hence his inquiry for Prof. Bartlett.—Omaha Bee.

W. W. Sanders, Notary Public. Pen-sious papers of all kinds made out accurately. Legal documents drawn up. All business given prompt and careful attention.

Wife—Here's an account of a man who shot himself rather than suffer the pangs of indigestion. Husband—The foo! Why didn't he take De Witt's Little Early Risers? I used to suffer as bad as he did before I commenced taking these little pills. Taylor, the druggist.

MARRIED.—At the home of the groom's parents, four miles west of Nemaha, at twelve o'clock Thanksgiving Day, Mr. Frank Hawxby, of Nemaha, and Miss Eva Sunderland, of Langdon, Mo., Jas. F. Day, uncle of the groom, officiating. The bride was tastefully attired in creamy heurietta, trimmed with ribbon and lace. The groom, dressed in the conventional black, looked as solemn as the occasion demanded.

Immediately after the ceremony dinner was served, about sixty relatives and friends partaking.

The groom has grown up among us and has warm friends wherever known in fact is one of our most popular young farmers. The sweet little bride is every way worthy of all good fortune. At two o'clock the bride and groom were taken to the train bound for Lincoln, where they will spend a few days visiting relatives and friends.

A shower of old shoes and overshoes were thrown after the buggy, but luckily no one was seriously hurt.

Their many friends join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life.

Many nice presents were received by the young couple, both useful and ornamental, but we will not take up further space to give the list.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. This medicine is a specific for all complaints of this character, and if instructions (which are simple) are carried out, a cure will result. We have tested this in numerous cases, and always with like results. It never fails, Taylor, the druggist.

No excuse for sleepless nights when you can procure One Minute Cough Cure. This will relieve all annoyances, cure the most severe cough and give you rest and health. Can you afford to do without it? Taylor the druggist.

OUR KIDS

insure that we buy their shoes at Titus & Williams, because they stand the racket better than any other shoes.
