Local News.

Election is over and all is peace.

The Missouri river is on the boom.
Garden making is all the go now.

No saloons nor dives in Nemaha this year.

We have had several fine rains during the past week.

John Flack and J. C. Miller drove over to Brock Wednesday.

Os. Scovill has been visiting friends in Kansas for a week or two.

Rabe Elliott shipped a car of cattle to Kansas City Monday evening.

Colonel Joe Harper was in town Thursday, talking politics a little.

For the finest line of shirt waist, go to A. H. Gilmore & Sons', Auburn.

Deputy Sheriff Hill and Capt. Crandall were down from Auburn Thursday.

Considerable fall wheat in this vicinity will be plowed up and planted to corn.

W. W. James, of Peru, drove through town Thursday, on his way to his farm near Shubert.

A. H. Gilmore & Sons, at Auburn, carry a large line of latest style dress goods at lowest prices. See them.

As it rained last Sunday, we will have rain for seven Sundays—at least it is so said by those who believe in signs.

Taylor Gillespie has moved on the bar northeast of town, where Bud Stockton, the horse trader, has been living.

Mrs. F. A. Welton returned to Auburn Thursday, after several days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Marshall Pryor.

Swift McCandless was one of the victorious candidates for councilman at Auburn, being elected from the third ward.

Sam Anderson is right on the "dicker." He traded for a load of furniture at Johnson a few days ago, bringing it to Nemaha.

Tom Crummel thinks the people of Auburn don't appreciate a good man, as he was defeated for mayor of Auburn Tuesday.

The section men are putting in heavy for steel rails on this section, and are also taking out the poor ties and putting in good ones.

Sherm Titus says he is disgusted with Nemaha since the election and is going to leave as soon as he can get money enough to get away.

FOUND—In Brownville, a pocket book containing a small sum of money. Owner can have same by applying to John W. Ritchey, at McIninch's store.

Wm. H. Hoover came down from Lincoln Tuesday, but says he did not come here to take part in an election, as he has enough of that to attend to at home.

Mrs. David Frazier came down from Lincoln the last of last week, and visited friends for a few days. Dave has moved to Kansas, where he is interested in a mine. We hope he will make a big fortune.

Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sanders, Mrs. M. A. Woodward and Mrs. Fannie Yackley drove to Brownville Wednesday, to attend a meeting of the official board of the Brownville circuit of the M. E. church.

It's all the same, a slight cold, congested lungs or severe cough. One Minute Cough Cure banishes them. M. H. Taylor.

The revival meetings at the Christian church closed Sunday evening. As a result about twenty three additions to the church have been had.

Prof. Wm. L. Davenport delivered a lecture at Shubert last Saturday night, on "Our Country and Its People." The lecture is said to have been good by those who heard it.

The Titus Nursery is working a large force of men this week, filling orders for spring delivery. A large force is also engaged in transplanting, budding and grafting nursery stock.

Mr. Brown, from Missouri, is visiting his old comrade, Walt Hadlock. Walt offers to prove all the big stories he has told about his war record by Mr. Brown, and the latter vouches for Walt's good standing.

Auburn elected a mixed ticket last Tuesday, the mayor and clerk being temperance and the three councilmen being license. There are now five license councilmen to one anti-license, so we suppose Auburn will have saloons again this year.

Mark White is another "has been," as he left the country one day last week. He took a load of hogs to Auburn, sold the hogs and also the horses and wagon, bought a ticket to Kansas City, and skipped out. He left a wife and baby.

Will Hacker is again able to be out. Christmas night he was taken down with the typhoid fever, and for three long months he has wrestled with the fever, inflammatory rheumatism and the grip. It is to be hoped that his recovery will now be rapid and permanent.

One of Sherm Titus' boys was riding a horse Thursday when it ran away with him and threw him off. The boy fell against Mrs. Crim's house and was knocked senseless. He was carried in Dr. Keeling's office and soon recovered consciousness under the doctor's care.

The M. E. Sunday school held an Easter entertainment last Sunday at 11 o'clock. Although very little rehearsing had been done, the entertainment, consisting of songs, reading, recitations and responsive reading, was splendid. All the children were given colored Easter eggs by their teachers.

The fellow, who bought two pool tables to be used in a dive, on the strength of Nemaha electing a wet ticket this year, would like to trade the same for a pony. He doesn't care how old the pony is, whether he can see or not, or how badly blemished he may be, just so he is broke to ride and is strong enough to carry him out of town.

John Dressler paid $5 recently to have a horse broke to drive single. Last Sunday he hitched the horse to a cart and started out for a drive. In passing a neighbor's house a dog ran out and barked at the horse, and it ran away across the field. The cart got to jumping so that John got off and let the horse go. It ran a mile or so and was caught, and no damage was done with the exception of a broken spoke.

Kerker & Hoover are going into the seed business on quite an extensive scale. They buy their seed by the pound of Menglesdorf Bros., of Atchison, Kansas, and as they are western fresh grown seed, they give the best satisfaction of any seed ever handled by this firm. Kerker & Hoover put the seed up in 5 cent packages, and the packages contain enough seed for as large a garden as an average editor would care to take care of. They also have a supply of pure Early Rose potatoes that they are selling at 50 cents per bushel.

Busy people have no time, and sensible people have no inclination to use a slow remedy. One Minute Cough Cure acts promptly and gives permanent results. M. H. Taylor.

VILLAGE ELECTION.

The election in Nemaha resulted in a victory for the caucus ticket that was nominated and pledged to oppose saloons and dives, and to run the affairs of the village economically. The vote was slightly in excess of that of last year, there being sixtysix votes polled this year to fiftyeight last year. The following is the vote cast, the first five being on the Citizens' or caucus ticket, and the last five being the ticket nominated by petition:

I. N. Cooper	44
John E. Crother	47
Stephen Gilbert	45
Jerry Marlett	48
D. T. Smiley	42
S. K. Anderson	20
J. T. Chambers	17
Kenup Colerick	17
A. L. Jarvis	19
Harvey A. Thompson	21

Last Sunday night a temperance entertainment was given at the Methodist church by the Junior League. The entertainment was one of the best ever given by the little folks in Nemaha, and that is saying considerable, as the little ones always acquit themselves with credit. The program consisted of recitations, dialogues, solos, duets and choruses by members of the Junior League, all of them under fifteen years of age, a duet by Misses Lillie Wheeler and Veva Clark, recitations by Misses Mabel Brogan, Katie Frost and May Brooks, and remarks by Rev. C. H. Gilmore. The interest of our people in the doings of the little folks and in temperance was shown by the crowd attending, as the church was crowded, a great many having to stand during the performance.

ATTENTION COMRADES.

It is the intention of the committee to make it one of the most enjoyable evenings that we have ever had. A good program is being prepared—consisting of speaking by good speakers and recitations by the schools, also the song entitled "The Monroe Doctrine," to the tune of "Marching through Georgia." Speaking will begin at 7:30 p. m., after which supper will be served. Supper, 25 cents; children under 12 years, 15 cents. Everybody come and we will treat you well.
