broken off, etc. Mrs. Theo. Hill's the country. He was well informed, and has a wide acquaintance, being an old settler in the county. His friends will

A QUILTING SOCIAL.

Just thirty ladies and children availed themselves the invitation extended by Mrs. Dora Keiser, Wednesday of last week, to be her guests for that day, and also assist her in quilting, and tacking carpet rags. The day being very pleasant, the ladies assembled quite early, and worked and talked very diligently until 12 o'clock, when the hungry quilters responded to an invitation to go to the dining room, where was spread a bountiful repast.

After enjoying themselves until about five o'clock the guests departed and they all voted Mrs. Keiser one of the most excellent entertainers.

Among those present were Mrs. Alice Seid, Mrs. Will Seid, Mrs. Jno. Lambert, Mrs. Ed. Thomas, Mrs. Webber, Mrs. Cora White, Mrs. Young, Mrs.
Cholerick, Mrs. Edd Stairs, Mrs. Rounds, Minnie Awe, the Misses Royse, of Saline county, Lue Lambert, besides a number of others. A GUEST.

Fairyland," in Hoovers opera house, Saturday evening May 23. Much care

Misses Nora and Minnie Elliott and Mav Brooks, with Miss Crim as organist, feel confident of the success of the presentation. Admission will be 10 and 15 cents. Come every one!
Don't forget the date.

Ed Maxwell returned home Monday afternoon. Ed had been in a hospital at Omaha for several days, receiving treatment for the eye injured in the accident mentioned in last week's AD-VERTISER. A calf that was confined in a barn made a rush for an open door. Ed sprang for the door and shut it, and in so doing caused a strap with an iron ring on the end to swing around, and the ring struck Ed in the eye. Ed was taken to Akron and from there to Omaha. At the hospital at Omaha an operation was performed, but the sight could not be saved, and he is almost totally blind in that eye.
The eyeball is not destroyed, and it is thought it can be saved, so his face will not be disfigured.

G. A. R. REQUEST.

At the regular meeting of G. W. Culp post, held Wednesday, May 5th, it was ices. An invitation is extended to the churches, all civic orders in town, the public schools, and all interested to meet at that time and assist in making arrangements for an appropriate observance of the day. The adjourned tery association will also be held at
