J. H. Seid shipped a car of fat cattle to Kansas City, the first of the week, going through with them. Nine head averaged 1452 pounds each. Henry returned home Wednesday night.

If you want a well dug we do not believe you can do better than to engage A. L. Jarvis to do the work. We speak from experience, as we had a well dug this spring by Andy, and it gives satisfaction in every respect.

The editor had new potatoes last Tuesday that were raised on our own garden this year. The potatoes were as large as hens eggs, and the seed was planted in the light of the moon, too—on the 8th of April.

The memorial services held at the opera house Sunday afternoon were very interesting. The singing was good and Rev. C. H. Gilmore preached an excellent sermon. The hall was well filled with an appreciative audience.

C. C. McCabe and Earl Cranston, the new bishops of the M. E. church, were both born in the same town in Ohio, and this town also has the honor of being the birthplace of Rev. C. H. Gilmore, pastor of the M. E. church at Nemaha.

Mrs. Drury has had the whooping cough for some time, and fears are entertained that it will develop into consumption. Her mother, who lives near Beatrice, we believe, arrived in Nemaha Wednesday evening, to assist in caring for her.

John I. Dressler, who has been very sick for a long time with fever, is able to be out again, and was in town Thursday for the first time since his sickness. He is quite feeble yet, but is gaining strength gradually and hopes to be all right soon.

We have received a copy of "General Orders No. 2," from John A. Andrew Post No. 15, Department of Massachusetts, Boston, giving instructions for the observance of Memorial and Decoration days. Our old friend, Geo B. Moore, formerly editor of the Granger, is commander of this post.

The cantata, "A Dream of Fairyland," given by the Junior Endeavor children of the Christian church, last Saturday night, at the opera house, was one of the finest performances ever given in Nemaha. The audience was delighted with the singing, speaking and acting. The little folks all did well.

50 per cent discount on all trimmed hats for the next 20 days at Miss Harris' Millinery Store, South Auburn, Neb.

T. B. Skeen, of Auburn, was badly hurt last Friday. He was standing up in a wagon when the horses started suddenly, throwing him against the break iron, breaking one rib and badly bruising his side. He suffered severely for several days, but is resting easier, and on Wednesday was able to be up for a short time.

The school board held another meeting Monday night, and after balloting several times for principal of our schools elected Prof. John C. Shull to that position. Prof. Shull has been principal of the Brownville schools for the past two years. He has had several years as a teacher and we believe will be a success as principal of the Nemaha schools.

Green Burgess informs us that he has received word that his pension claim, which has been hanging fire for almost eight years, has been allowed. He will get $30 per month, but for about four years he has been drawing $12, under the new law, which will be deducted from this amount. He will receive something over $2,000 back pension. We are glad to hear the good news, as Mr. Burgess certainly needs the pension.

We have made arrangements whereby we can send THE ADVERTISER and the Inter Ocean both one year for only $1.60 cash in advance.

The Granger intimates that it is useless for us to try to make people believe we have more than one cow. But if John will come down sometime and help us milk (as the editor of this family has to do that part of the work) we will convince him that we have three cows. That is one reason we feel so independent, as we can generally rustle the corn meal by some means, and corn bread and milk or mush and milk makes a pretty good meal. We can have a change now, as greens are to be had for the picking. Come down and see us, John, and be converted.

Prof. J. H. Veeder has been engaged as principal of the high school at Odell, Nebraska, and Mrs. Veeder is engaged as teacher of one of the intermediate departments. This school has four or five departments. We can assure the people of Odell that in Prof. Veeder they have secured one of the best teachers in the state. He had charge of the Nemaha schools for four years, and without disparagement to our other good teachers we can say we had the best school during these four years we have ever had. Mrs. Veeder has also taught here, and is an excellent teacher. The school patrons of Odell are to be congratulated on their choice.

Cyclones were never before so numerous, so destructive, or so widely diffused. On the same day these terrible destructive storms visit a number of different localities, from Maine to Texas. No man can tell what place will be the next to be visited. Last Sunday night Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, and Illinois were visited, Chicago suburbs being the scene of one storm. Wednesday night St. Louis was struck by the terrible cyclone, which also visited other parts of Missouri, Indiana and Illinois. It is estimated 1000 at least are killed, and the damage to property will run into the millions.

I have for sale, for cash only, about 200 bushels of fine German millet seed at 50 cents per bushel. J. H. SEID.

NEWS SERVICE IN 1860

At the St. Louis convention this year, there will be 200 telegraph operators in the great auditorium itself, to send the news of the proceedings to the country. It is expected that not less than 20,000,000 words will be sent out from St. Louis concerning convention proceedings. Of course, nearly or quite all of this vast mass of matter will be composed of the news reports of the great press associations, and the dispatches of the special correspondents of the great daily newspapers of the country.

Compare the above with the news transportation facilities of the National Republican convention of 1860, which nominated Abraham Lincoln for the Presidency, and which was held in the historic Chicago wigwam. One lone telegraph operator sent out every word of the report of that convention; all the news printed by all the dailies then in the country was then handled by that one man. No more striking comparison can be made to show the enormous growth of the daily press, and the vast strides made in methods of handling and transmitting news. What will the next 35 years show in the line of progress in this field.—Toledo Blade.

The Chicago "Inter Ocean" figures up this way:

The official figures give McKinley 414 instructed delegates, 14 under resolutions of indorsement, and 129 pledged; total, 557. Of these forty-five seats are contested. Reed has 14 instructed delegates and 68 pledged; Morton 62 instructed and pledged; Allison, 31; Quay, 28 instructed, 2 under indorsement, and 16 pledged; Bradley, 16 instructed. There are 114 un-instructed or unpledged delegates.
