Hay makers are now busy.
Additional local on last page.
Rabe Elliott paid Lincoln a visit last week.

Mr. Jennings, of Falls City, was in town Tuesday.

Dr. James Kay visited the county seat Wednesday.

Tuesday and Wednesday were extremely hot days.

Father Prall has our thanks for a sack of fine apples.

Miss Nora Elliott returned from Lincoln Saturday night.

Swift McCandless, of Auburn, was in town Wednesday night.

H. T. Sanders, of Brownville, gave us a social call Wednesday.

Dr. J. W. Bourne, of Verdon, visited Nemaha friends Monday and Tuesday.

Harvey Thompson has had a good sidewalk laid in front of his barber shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lemon, of Baraca, are rejoicing over the birth of a fine boy.

D. A. Morton moved his shop into the Titus & Williams store room a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Veeder returned home from Wymore Friday evening of last week.

Remember the meeting to-morrow afternoon, to arrange for the old settlers' picnic.

Miss Lue Laubert and Mrs. Delia Kempthorne visited friends in Brownville, Thursday.

Miss Lydia Skeen, of Auburn, visited her sister, Mrs. Fannie Fairbank, and other friends the first of the week.

Mrs. Frank Hawxbv, who has been visiting Mrs. Annie Field, at Shen-adoah, Iowa, returned home Thursday.

Mrs. J. W. Taylor came down from Lincoln last Saturday night, on a visit to her many friends in Nemaha and vicinity.

Mrs. Jas. Wolfe, of Hillsdale, and Mrs. Jno. Kempthorne attended Sunday school and preaching at the Champion, last Sunday afternoon.

The school board reorganized Tuesday night by electing Robert Frost moderator and re-electing F. L. Woodward director and Peter Kerker treasurer.

Jim Titus says Joe Flack eat twenty-two ears of corn at one meal at the Titus residence a few days ago. But Jim says corn is cheap, so he is making no kick.

Miss Florence Minick attempted to kill a mouse Thursday, but came off second best, as she hit her elbow against a chair and bruised it badly. The mouse escaped.

Dr. H. H. Smith, who located at Brownville a few months ago, has decided to locate at some other point, as he find it almost impossible to make any collections.

Will Thompson had one finger caught in the cogs of a corn sheller a few days ago, and it was badly lacerated. Dr.
Melvin dressed the wound, and is in hopes he can save the finger, though it is badly crushed.

While Ned Crother was performing on a trapeze last Friday the rope broke and Ned fell to the ground, lighting on his head and shoulders, breaking the collar bone. Dr. Melvin patched him up, and Ned thinks he is now having his full share of suffering.

Rev. Peter Van Fleet, presiding elder of the Nebraska City district of the M. E. church, was the guest of Rev. C.
H. Gilmore Thursday. He went to Shubert in the afternoon.

The Bryan men celebrated the nomination of their hero for president last Friday night by the firing of dynamite, sky rockets, etc. The only thing that marred their joy was the fact that the McKinley boys would persist in yelling louder for McKinley than they possibly could for Bryan.

The sad news comes of the death of the wife of Fred Huntington, a former resident of Bedford precinct, but who moved to California a few months ago on account of his wife's health. The sad event occurred Monday. The deceased leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Wm. Colerick, who was called to Fairbury, Ill., last week by the attempted suicide of her son Charley, returned home Tuesday. Charley came with her, having recovered sufficiently to be brought home. He says he got tired of living, and therefore tried to kill himself.

Gene Combs was in town several days this week, in the interest of the Kansas City commission firm for which he is traveling. Gene says he attended the Bryan ratification meeting at Auburn Monday night, and says it was the thinnest ratification meeting he ever attended. The demo-pops so Gene says, had to hire a lot of small boys to join the procession in order to make a decent show.

B. G. Whittemore, of Auburn, was taken before Judge Stull, of the district court, on Tuesday, charged with rape, an account of which was given in last week's paper. Whittemore plead gui-ty to the charge last week, when taken before Judge Lambert, but on Tuesday changed the plea to not guilty, claiming he did not know the meaning of the word rape. Judge Stull bound him over to the next term of district court on $7,000 bond, which it not likely the prisoner will be able to give.

A jolly crowd of young people were in Nemaha an hour or two Tuesday evening. They came down from Peru and Brownville on the freight, bound for McCandless siding on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCandless, and as the train had to lie here while the engine went to Auburn after stock, the people came up town during that time.
The crowd consisted of Dr. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Fordyce, and Miss James, from Peru, W. H. Royce and Miss Frances Royce, of Brownville, and Misses Mary Seabrooke, May Galvin and Lillie Worthing, of Omaha.

Mr. G. W. Brookover met with a fatal accident the 23d day of June, 1896.
He was camped on Trail Creek, about 14 miles from Granite City, Oregon.
He was on his knees in the tent pulling a shot gun out from under the bed when it was accidentally discharged and the contents struck him in the right side just below the shoulder blade and came out close to the backbone, causing an ugly wound. On the 4th day of July at 3.25 he died. The body was taken to Baker City and buried by the I. O. O. F. lodge. Any of his relatives living in Nemaha county please write to H. F. HOFFMAN, Walla Walla, Wash.

A good many years ago an old settlers' association for Nemaha county was organized in Brownville, but died down in a short time. A few years ago the society was reorganized at Nemaha, and T. J. Majors elected president and David Campbell, we believe, secretary. The next year the picnic was held at Peru and the next year at Auburn. Then the association almost died down. Four or five years ago it was revived again at Nemaha, and since that time meetings have been held each year. Now the Auburn people, or a few of them, propose to gobble up the whole thing and have the picnics held at Auburn in the future, and they do this without consulting with the old settlers. But Nemaha intends to go ahead and have the annual picnic just the same.

Golden Days, published at Philadelphia by James Elverson, is one of the best weekly papers for the young people that we know of. It is interesting and at the same time pure in tone.
All members of the family like to read it. You cannot miss it in subscribing for Golden Days.

WHY WILL YOU COUGH?

M. H. Taylor, your druggist asks you why? You can be so easily cured.
Three doses of Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup will relieve you at once. We guarantee every bottle, and no monkey

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At the meeting of the Junior League of the M. E. church of this place held on Sunday, June 28th, Mrs. Nellie Slater, who after acting in the capacity of superintendent for the past two years, was compelled to resign that position, by reason of her removal to another state, and at the meeting of the same organization held last Sunday, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, During the time that Mrs. Nellie Slater has been superintendent of this League it has made unprecedented advancement both in membership and spiritual welfare, and

WHEREAS, These results have been accomplished only after a great amount of hard labor, on the part of the superintendent who has always been found working faithfully for the advancement of the Lord's cause in our midst, therefore, be it Resolved, That this league extend to our late superintendent its sincere thanks as a small token of respect for her zeal and untiring efforts and thoroughness in advancing the interests of our beloved league, and although deploring her departure from our midst, we, individually and collectively, wish her much joy and happiness in her new home. And be it further Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes of the league, and that a copy be furnished THE NE-BRASKA ADVERTISER for publication.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

If it required an annual outlay of $100.00 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it; that they could not afford to risk their lives, and those of their family for such an amount. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of this remedy will cure any ordinary case. It never fails. Can you afford to take the risk for so small an amount? For sale by Taylor the druggist.

We have made arrangements whereby we can send THE ADVERTISER and the Inter Ocean both one year for only $1.60 cash in advance.

W. W. Sanders, Notary Public. Pensions papers of all kinds made out accurately. Legal documents drawn up.
All business given prompt and careful attention.
