Miss Nina Moore went to Cook, Nebr., Thursday, to visit friends.
Harry McCandless got a car load of coal Tuesday, from Unionville, Mo.

The rainfall Friday night and Saturday was three and one-fourth inches.
Joe Littrell is now buying grain for the Duff Grain Co. of Nebraska City.

Miss Tude Scovill is visiting her friend Miss Flossie Waterman this week.
Mrs. Wills, of Alliance, arrived in Nemaha Monday evening, on a visit to friends.

J. A. Wolfe, of Aspinwall precinct, went to Crab Orchard Tuesday, to visit his brother.
Minor Taylor gave the drug store a thorough cleaning and renovating the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wally McGechie, of Shubert, were doing some trading in Nemaha Thursday.
Mrs. H. W. Shubert, of Shubert, visited her mother, Mrs. A. D. Skeen, of Nemaha, Tuesday.

Our farmers now feel that the corn crop is assured, and many of them are selling their old corn.
Mrs. Rosina Wheeler returned to Nemaha Wednesday evening, after a visit with her son at Lincoln.

A number of our citizens drove over to Howe Wednesday, and attended the Woodmen of the World picnic.
Rev. C. H. Gilmore went to Union, Neb., Tuesday, to attend the district conference of the M. E. church.

M. T. Conner, of Auburn, was in town Thursday, loading a car with wheat he had bought in this neighborhood.
Walter Hadlock, I. N. Cooper, Geo. W. Neil, and D. T. Smiley went to Falls City Monday, to attend the reunion.

Seymour and Charley Howe drove up to Peru Tuesday, and engaged rooms for Charley and Eugene for the ensuing school year.
Mrs. Jennie Moore and Miss Nina, who have been visiting friends at Wymore for some time, returned home Wednesday afternoon.

We notice that Post No. No. 53 of Nemaha has two tents on the reunion grounds at Falls City. Frank Hunt, of St. Derois, is also one of the tenters.
N. B. Scrivoner has some samples of fine gold ore and also some gold dust that was recently sent to him by his son, who is a miner in Summit county, Colorado.

Rev. Peter VanFleet, of Nebraska City, came up from Shubert last Friday, stopped over night with Rev. C. H. Gilmore, and went to Tecumseh the next day.
Miss Lillie Worthing, of Omaha, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. K. McCandless, for a few days, went to Verdon Monday evening, to visit Mrs. J. W. Bourne.

MCKINLEY RATIFICATION
A McKinley ratification meeting will be held at Auburn Saturday night of this week. Congressman Strode and Judge Allen W. Field, of Lincoln, will be the speakers. Everybody is invited.

We omitted last week to print the name of Mrs. Rose Gilmore as chaplain of the Woman's Relief Corps.

O. P. Dovel, of Auburn, was in town Wednesday, collecting grain, grasses, etc., for the Nemaha county exhibit at the state fair.

Mrs. R. J. Duff and children went to Horton, Kansas, Wednesday, to visit a sister of Mrs. Duff's, who is very sick. They expect to be away three or four weeks.

Joe Flack says we made a mistake last week about the man that eat so much corn. He says it was Jim Titus that did the eating, and he ate thirty-six ears at one meal.

Neut Jarvis brought in a sample of sugar cane Wednesday that measures ten feet six inches in height. No telling how much higher it would have grown if it had not been cut.

Lots of corn and wheat is being shipped this week. On account of a special low freight rate the buyers are enabled to pay a little more than regular rates, which is causing it to move lively.

Last Friday THE ADVERTISER advertised that a rain was needed. That night it commenced to rain and rained steadily for about 18 hours, three and a quarter inches of water falling. It pays to advertise.

Wm. Moore wont even get mad now when a man tells him that free coinage of silver is not the thing. He is too busy thinking about the big boy that arrived last Friday morning to talk politics much.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Shubert, who went to California last fall, intending to remain at least a year, returned to Shubert Monday. They have had all California they want, and are better satisfied with Nebraska than ever.

John I. Dressler brought us in a sample of timothy Thursday of last week. It is fine. Mr. Dressler will thresh out considerable of it, as the seed pays better than the hay. He will exhibit some at the state and county fairs this fall.

G. N. Titus went to York Tuesday, to attend a meeting of the Nebraska State Horticultural Society. Nat is fast gaining a reputation as one of our best nurserymen, and is in demand at all the horticultural meetings, where his talks attract general attention.

Services will be held in the Episcopal church at Nemaha City on Wednesday evening, July 29th, at 8 p. m. The services will be conducted and sermon preached by the Rev. Irving Johnson of South Omaha. Subject of sermon will be "The Church, a Light House."

Mrs. W. H. Brookover has been in very poor health for several months. She has been stopping with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Farmer, for some time, and much of the time has been confined to her bed, but is now some better. Her physician says she is suffering from consumption. Her many friends here hope for her recovery.

Annual Meeting and Picnic of the Old Settlers' Association.

At a meeting of some of the old settlers Monday it was decided to hold the regular annual meeting and picnic on Saturday, August 22d, 1896, at the park in Nemaha. The following committees and officers were selected:

President of the day—Seymour Howe.
Marshal of the day—Abe Lawrence.
Committee on general arrangements—Rabe Elliott, S. Gilbert and Stephen Cooper.

Committee on finance—Chas. Zook, Albert Titus and Chas. Howe.
Committee on speakers—W. W. Sanders, Rev. C. H. Gilmore and Robt. I. Smith.

Committee on music—G. N. Sanders, Frank Argabright and W. T. Devorss.
Committee on log cabin—Robt. Frost, F. L. Woodward and I. N. Cooper.

Speakers are now being corresponded with, and their names will be given next week, probably.
It is expected that we will have the best old settlers meeting ever held in Nemaha County.

The committee on the log cabin for the old settlers' association requests all those who can furnish logs to deliver same at Nemaha on or before August 10th, if possible. The cabin will be 16x18, and all those who can, are desired to furnish a log at least 8 inches through at the small end, and 18 or 20 feet long. Those who cannot furnish a log that long can bring shorter ones as the short ones can be used at the doors and windows. For particulars further than this inquire of Robt. Frost, Frank Woodward or I. N. Cooper.

Last spring Attorney C. P. Edwards, of Auburn, bought twenty-five cherry trees of an Auburn dealer, and twenty-five of the Titus Nursery. Fifteen trees lived out of the number he bought from the Auburn dealer, and twenty-eight are living out of those he bought from the Titus Nursery. That is a good record—twenty-eight living trees out of twenty-five paid for. The explanation of this is that the Titus Nursery put in five extra trees, and only two out of the thirty died.

Ripans Tabules assist digestion.

G. W. Brookover, an account of whose death from a gun shot wound was given in last week's ADVERTISER, was a brother of W. H. Brookover, of this county, and a son of Mrs. G. B. Kinney. His brother had heard nothing of his death until he saw the account in THE ADVERTISER. Mr. Brookover visited his relatives here about four years ago.

On Wednesday Mrs. Robt. L. Keister drove over to Howe to attend the picnic. When she arrived there Will Muntz and Fred Dofner offered to tie her horse, and she started for the picnic grounds, but had gone only a short distance when she remembered that she had left her pocketbook in the buggy. She went back but the pocketbook was gone. She accused Muntz and Dofner of taking it, but both denied it. Afterwards they were arrested and searched, but the pocketbook was not found, but on being closely questioned they finally acknowledged stealing it and told where they had hid it. They were taken to Auburn and lodged in jail. The pocketbook contained nearly $38 when stolen. Only a small amount was missing.

The free entertainment by the young people of the Epworth League, which was to have been given last Saturday night, was postponed until Wednesday night on account of the rain. Wednesday night the house was filled with an appreciative audience. The entertainment was fine. Mr. and Mrs. George Washington entertained John Adams, Thomas Jefferson and Gen. Clinton and their wives at tea. Several songs were given by the ladies, and even the darkey waiter boys (Cyrus Minick and Willie Thurman) gave some songs. All were good. The last number of the program was a tableau representing the New Woman. Nellie Sanders, representing the new woman, was dressed in bloomers, and was ready to leave the house, with cane in hand, leaving her husband (Willie Sanders), rocking the cradle and curling his hair with a curling iron. The ice cream entertainment brought a little over $10.00.
