Local News.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving day.

Miss Harris, "the milliner," South Auburn.

District court convenes again next Monday.

Deputy Sheriff Hill was in town Wednesday night.

Dr. A. S. Holladay has taken up his winter residence in Brownville.

Edith Gilmore came down from Brownville last Saturday and visited her Nemaha friends until Sunday evening.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore drove through town Tuesday on his way to Shubert to assist Rev. B. E. Jacobs in a revival at that place.

The first quarterly meeting of the M. E. church for the Brownville and Nemaha circuit will be held at Bethel church Sunday, Dec. 6th.

Miss May Brooks is enjoying a visit from her mother, who arrived in Nemaha Wednesday. Mrs. Brooks resides in Oklahoma, we believe.

Rev. Peter Van Fleet, of Nebraska City, presiding elder of the Nebraska City district of the M. E. church, gave us a pleasant call Friday forenoon.

Miss Maleena J. Smith, daughter of Lorenzo D. Smith, went to Crab Orchard Tuesday and was there united in marriage to James Wolfe of that place.

meeting, and had arranged everything for the night, and now sat before a bright blazing fire in her own little parlor. Her thoughts had gone out

Harry McCandless is having a telephone line run from the depot to McCandless Siding. It will save him many trips to Nemaha and be a great accommodation.

Mrs. Sarah Arnold, of Sterling, Colorado, arrived in Nemaha Tuesday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frost, and her many friends in Nemaha and vicinity.

Jerry Marlatt has rented a house at Auburn and moved his household goods out there Wednesday. He probably found after selling here that there was no place like Nemaha county.

H. A. Kyle started for Oneil Tuesday morning. Doc formerly lived at Oneil and will probably make arrangements to move back there while he is away. He will probably be gone several weeks.

We are informed that the tramp orator who spoke here during the campaign will give a lecture in Nemaha soon. He is a good talker and will interest you. The date will be announced later.

Mrs. J. W. Webber says her new grandson has been named Wallace Bryan White, and they are just as proud of him as if Bryan had been elected president. She says he ought to be a good man, as he is named after two good men.

The trouble between Littrell and Dede Burgess was settled Thursday morning by Dede withdrawing the suit he had begun for the possession of the horse he had traded for, and paying all costs, taking back the horse he traded. Peace once more reigns within our borders.

Mrs. J. H. Littrell called at THE ADVERTISER office Saturday and complained that we had made a greivous mistake in saying that Ed Littrell had traded horses with Dede Burgess, as it was Art that had done the trading. She said Eddie had enough to bear anyway, and she did not want anything laid to him that he had not done.

Removal of the Advertiser

THE ADVERTISER office has been moved into the building recently purchased from S. H. Avey, just north of the hardware store. Call in and see us in our new location, pay a year's subscription in advance, and thus assist us in paying for the building.

THANKSGIVING SUPPER.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will give a supper in the lower room of the opera house on Thanksgiving night—next Thursday. Supper will be ready at 5 o'clock. Everybody is invited. Price of supper, 20 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stiers, of Aspinwall precinct, were made happy Thursday of last week by the birth of twin boys, but one of the little ones only lived a short time. It was buried in the Nemaha cemetery Saturday.

Chas. F. Neal, the handsome young attorney of Auburn, was in town Monday. Charley informs us that the Nemaha county fair will come out about even this year with the appropriation made by the county commissioners.

Belle Galbraith was ten years old last Saturday, and gave her playmates a party to fitly commemorate that important event. The little folks heartily enjoyed the evening, and hope the little hostess will have many returns of the day.

J. G. Sanders, who has been stopping at Ward, Colorado, for the past eight months, returned to Nemaha last Saturday. John was in the midst of the mining region and wandered away after the false god of free silver, but we hope by proper association will be brought to see the error of his ways soon.

The semi-annual convention of the Nemaha county W. C. T. U. was held in Brownville in the Christian church, Thursday, Nov. 12. A number from Peru, Auburn, Nemaha and Brownville assembled at the church at 10 a. m., and the meeting opened with devotional exercises, led by Sister Gates, of Peru, after which a business meeting was held. Reports of the work and plans for the future were discussed and meeting adjourned till 2 p. m.

In the afternoon Bro. Jacobs led devotional meeting, followed by mothers' meeting, conducted by Sister Miller. Papers were read and the subject, "How Mothers Should Have Their Eyes Open to the Best Interests of Their Children," was discussed. Many good thoughts were advanced and we pray many good impressions were made on the minds of mothers and fathers. An effort was made to organize a W. C. T. U. at Brownville but failed.

In the evening Prof. Hoscik gave a short talk on "The Good Work of the W. C. T. U.," and among other things said they were not afraid to agitate. Prof. Clark lectured on "The Spirit of the Times," which was greatly enjoyed. Bro. Gates then spoke of the good work the W. C. T. U. was doing in prisons and other dark places. God bless the W. C. T. U. and may its influence reach every heart in every land.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.

Office at residence, south of Minick store building.

With this number of the "Standard" Designer begins a new volume of this practical and thorough up-to-date journal of fashion for women, misses and children. Good beginnings are sometimes supposed to make bad endings, but if past achievements may be regarded as indicative the end of the present volume will be quite as good, if indeed not better, than the commencement. Nothing seems to have been left untouched in this issue that is of interest to womankind. From the boudoir to the kitchen each separate department is fully and charmingly illustrated and discussed. There is a Thanksgiving flavor given to the number by two short stories on the subject, and numerous recipes for seasonable culinary dainties. Women all over the United States, no matter on which side their sympathies are enlisted, cannot fail to be interested in the short biography of "The Wife of Our Future President." Bicycling, fancy work, millinery and floriculture are written about in a bright and entertaining manner, and it is only necessary to say that the fashions are up to their usual standard to have it understood that they are stylish, refined and effective as it is possible for the designers' skill and the artists' pencils to make them.

C. Shuck, proprietor of the Nemaha Valley Berkshire farm, won the following premiums on his hogs at the Auburn and Salem fairs:

At Auburn he got first premium on boar, sweepstakes over everything on boar, and sweepstakes over everything on sow and pigs.

At Salem Mr. Shuck got first premium on boar, sweepstakes over everything on sow and pigs, first premium on yearling sow, second premium on sow, first premium on boar, first premium on pig seven months old, second premium on pig five months old, and second premium on boar pig.

As Mr. Shuck had but few hogs on exhibition the showing is a remarkably good one.

Though the Twice-a-Week Republic of St. Louis excelled all other western weekly papers in publishing the news of the campaign, it now announces that it has extended its news service, and hereafter will give its readers the best paper in the country. This means much, because the next twelve months will be crowded with news of big events. With all the improvements to its service the yearly subscription will be the same—one dollar a year, by mail, twice a week.

FINE THOROUGHbred PIGS.

RELIEVED OF TERRIBLE PAINS

R. E. Morse, traveling salesman, Galveston, Texas, says: Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me of Rheumatism of three months standing after use of two bottles. J. S. Doan, Danville, Ills., says I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment for years and would not be without it. J. R. Groch, Rio, Ills., says Ballard's Snow Liniment cured terrible pains in back of head and neck when nothing else would. Every bottle guaranteed. Price 50 cents. Sold by Taylor the druggist.

Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera. Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages, this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proves it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by Taylor the druggist.

YOUR HAIR CAN BE SAVED
from falling out or turning gray. This is a positive fact, and we guarantee Beggs' Hair Renewer to do it. It cleanses the scalp, leaving the hair glossy and luxuriant. Sold by Taylor
