for the Duff Grain Co.

AVOIRDUPOIS SUPPER.

The Christian Ladies' Aid Society will give an avoirdupois supper at the Minick hall Friday night of next week —Dec. 18th—for the purpose of raising money to buy presents for the Sunday school children on Christmas. The charge for supper will be one-fourth of a cent a pound that each person weighs. Everybody is invited.

Wm. Argabright, who was sent to the penitentiary for ten years in February, 1895, for killing Wm. Smelser, has been granted a new trial by the supreme court on account of the instructions of the judge to the jury in the first trial. He is now in the county jail at Auburn, having been brought back there Thursday of last week.

Considerable excitement was caused early Thursday morning by the burning out of the large chimney on Birl Hoover's residence. The chimney is thirty feet high and is a very large one having been built, probably, for an old style fire place, and was well filled with soot. The blaze went up seemingly for twenty-five feet, and the roar could be heard for a considerable distance. No damage was done.

G. W. Bratton, an old citizen of Brownville and a former county treasurer, had a stroke of paralysis a week or two ago. His mind has been so badly affected that it is probable he will have to be taken to the asylum.
So far as his bodily health is concerned he has about recovered from the effect of the stroke of paralysis, but his mind has given way. This great affliction is a terrible one to the wife and family, who have the sympathy of every one.

LATER.—Mr. Bratton was taken to the asylum at Lincoln Monday.

J. B. Berger received a small box from Galveston, Texas, a few days ago, containing ten fine oranges. They were gathered by his daughter, Mrs. T.
A. Lorange, from the upstairs window of their residence, off of a large tree in the yard that was full of the golden fruit. Some of the oranges were on the twig where they grew, and a few of the orange leaves were yet on the twig. We had the pleasure of eating some of these Texas oranges, and they were fine.

S. Gilbert has the room enclosed that he is having built on the south of the store. He has metal roofing and metal siding, and will also have metal ceiling, so it will be fire proof. It will be used by Miss Maud Minick for a postoffice as soon as completed, as Mr. Gilbert will pull out the old building where the postoffice now is, and will build a fire proof room for the bank.
If the weather continues good this will be done this winter, but if it should turn too cold or stormy it will be done early in the spring.

The highest class in the primary department of our schools are evidently well pleased with their teacher. A short time ago it was proposed to promote this class into Prof. Crichton's room, but the class by a unanimous vote requested that they be allowed to remain in the primary room for the remainder of the year. This is quite a compliment to the teacher, Miss May Brooks, who is now teaching in this department for the fifth consecutive year, having taught many of the pupils in this class from the time they first entered school.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding.
Quick time. All trains met. John McElhanev, proprietor.

Ripans Tablets: for sour stomach.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.
Office at residence, south of Minick store building.

Henry Williams' trade has increased so wonderfully of late that he has been forced to call in help to attend to it, and has secured for this winter, at least, the services of his brother, Morggan, in addition to those of Miss Elliott.—Shubert Citizen.

Chas. Shaw and Frank Johnson, of Auburn, are building a barn for D. D.
Davis, of Aspinwall precinct, 40 feet square, 16 feet high. The first of this week they went hunting and came back in about three hours loaded down with 26 rabbits and 21 quails. Pretty good hunting.

Died, December 3d, 1896, infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bacon, aged 4 months.

"Ere sin could harm, or sorrow fade, Death came with friendly care;
The opening bud to heaven conveyed And bade it blossom there.

This lovely bud, so young, so fair, Called hence by early doom, Just came to show how sweet a flower In paradise would bloom."

A FRIEND.

The Christmas offer of Mr. Pickles, the South Auburn photographer, of an extra picture handsomely framed in an 8x10 inch gilt frame with each dozen cabinet photos made from now till the first of January is most liberal and appropriate. Just think of 12 cabinet photos of the quality he makes and one extra one handsomely framed all for $2.50. Remember that a like amount expended in any other way would not give as much satisfaction to your friends.

Alex. Maxwell, of South Auburn, is going into the dairy business quite extensively. While in Auburn recently we visited his place and found him full of business. He has ten cows and will soon add more, as his trade is rapidly increasing. His barn is fitted up in good shape for his cows, he has a covered milk wagon with which he makes morning and evening rounds, and furnishes his customers with milk.
He expects shortly to make additions and improvements that will add considerably not only to the convenience of his work but also to his income.

$2.50 secures one dozen full form cabinet photos and one extra one framed in nice 8x10 frame from now till first of January. Have your sitting at once if you want your pictures for Christmas. J. W. PICKLES, South Auburn.

December 5th, 1881, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the residence of the bride's parents, in Brownville, W. W. Sanders and Miss Allie R Berger were united in marriage. Last Saturday was the fifteenth anniversary of that event, and the two Sunday school classes taught by Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, composed of young ladies and gentlemen, were invited to spend the evening at the editorial residence. About thirty of the young people were present, and a very enjoyable evening was passed.
Greatly to the surprise of Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, they were presented with a number of handsome presents.
Mr. Sanders' class gave a set of fine goblets, Mrs. Sanders' class gave a handsome glass fruit dish, six members of the ladies' aid society—Mesdames Watson, Taylor, Woodward, Yackly, Maxwell and Keeling—gave a glass tea set, Mrs. Cora Crother gave an opal glass tea set, May Kerker gave a glass preserve dish, Rosie Seabury gave a glass vinegrette, Nellie Sanders gave a glass cake plate, Mrs. J. M.
Sanders gave two picture frames and Mrs. J. B. Berger gave a glass pitcher.

We attended the first annual quarterly conference of the Brownville and Nemaha circuit of the M. E. church on Monday. The conference was held at Bethel church, in London precinct.
Presiding Elder Peter VanFleet was present. It was voted to increase Rev.
C. H. Gilmore's salary to $750 for this year, and he is also provided with a good brick parsonage at Brownville.
In company with our better half we went home with Mr. and Mrs. John Bath for dinner, and feasted on roast beef, chicken, genuine English plum pudding, and a whole lot of good things fit for a president or a bishop to eat.
Mr. Bath has one of the finest farms in the county, as well as one of the largest, having over 600 acres in one body.
He is a breeder of fine thoroughbred short horn cattle, and also feeds cattle and hogs quite extensively.

If you want those Christmas photos in time you will be wise to have your sitting now or you may be disappointed in getting them finished.

Respectfully,

J. W. PICKLES,
South Auburn, Neb.

WOOD AND CORN.

We wish all our delinquent subscribers who can furnish us wood or corn would bring the same in at once, as we need it. Either old or new corn will be taken.
