MARRY THIS GIRL QUICK.

I saw in your paper that a 13-year-old boy made $1.25 the first hour he worked selling the Perfection Metal Tip lampwick. I ordered a sample and went to work and the first week I cleared $10, the second week I cleared $15. I expect to run up to $25 a week in the near future, as the Perfection Metal Tip lampwick makes such a beautiful white light and does away with smoky chimneys and bad odor and saves oil, it is easy to sell. If you wish to try it send 13 two-cent stamps to Miss A. M. Fritz, Station A, St.
Louis, Mo., and she will send you sample outfit. This is a good way to make money around home.
Miss TINA W.

The progressive ladies of Westfield, Ind., issued a "Woman's Edition" of the Westfield News, bearing date of April 3, 1896. The paper is filled with matter of interest to women, and we notice the following from a correspondent, which the editors printed, realizing that it treats upon a matter of vital importance to their sex: "The best remedy for croup, colds and bronchitis that I have been able to find is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For family use it has no equal. I gladly recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Taylor the druggist.

Local News.

Pleasant weather again.
The snow is about all gone.
The cold weather did not last long.
Corn 12½ and 13 cents in Nemaha Frank Woodward returned from St.
Joe last Saturday.

Our hunters are getting a good many rabbits these days.

Rev. J. W. Taylor preached at the M. E. church last Sunday night.

Trains from the west have been late most of the time for the last week.

We understand there will be a wedding of two popular young people next Sunday.

Mrs. Jeff Colerick joined her husband at Galena, Kansas, about three weeks ago.

The Missouri river is blocked above Brownville and below Aspinwall, but is open at Nemaha.

The Nemaha camp Woodmen of the World installed the officers for the ensuing year Tuesday night.

Jeff Drumm has pansies that bloomed out of doors up to New Years day.
What country can beat this.

Fred Seabury set a number of hitching posts Thursday. There was only two or three inches of ground frozen on top.

The members of the Christian church have not yet engaged a preacher to take the place of Rev. E. S. Chamberlain.

Miss May Brooks has been assisting in Gilbert's store during vacation and on Saturdays and evenings when trade is rushing.

The Duff Grain Co. of Nebraska City are putting in scales near the depot, and are preparing to buy grain here all the time.

W. H. Stockton ("Bud") has returned to Nemaha, with a whole herd of horses, which he is wintering on the bar northeast of town.

Elder McFarlane, of Peru, was to have delivered a lecture at the Christian church Tuesday night, but failed to put in an appearance.

Malcomb Johnson, representing the Bankers' Life Insurance company of Lincoln, has been interviewing our citizens for several days on insurance.

Rev. Mr. Skinner, of Table Rock, preached at the Christian church last Sunday, morning and evening, and has been visiting Nemaha friends this week.

Mrs. Theo. Hill will either enlarge the building she is now using or build a new one early in the spring, and put in a larger and more diversified stock of goods:

There was a sudden change in the weather last Saturday. It turned cold, began to snow, the wind blew, and for three days we had a storm that at times was almost a blizzard.

John G. Sanders went to Whiting, Kansas, Tuesday night, where he will assist his brother, Ed E. Sanders, in making the Sun one of the best local papers in the state of Kansas.

Chas. T. Minick has been elected superintendent of the Christian Sunday school. R. J. Duff was elected assistant superintendent, Miss Minnie Elliott secretary, and Miss Minnie May treasurer.

Hon. T. J. Majors was in town a few hours last Friday evening. He attended the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell, and then visited Nemaha friends while waiting for the eight o'clock freight.

GOLDEN WEDDING—1847-1897.

Fifty years ago the first day of January, at Bothwell, Scotland, Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell were joined together in the bonds of holy wedlock, and on Friday of last week—New Years day—they celebrated their golden wedding. For fifty years they have worked and planned and hoped together, have shared in joy and sorrow, have lightened each other's burdens and added to the joys, have had many hopes realized and seen many bright prospects shadowed, have left the old country and moved to new homes, but these trials and comforts have only served to bind them closer together. Although very young when they pledged that they would cleave one to the other until death parted them, in their old age they can look back over the long years, which yet seem but short, and each can say the choice made of a life companion was a wise one. Some of the little ones that came as the years went by have been called away, and will always be little children to these parents, while the others have grown to manhood and womanhood, and today return thanks for the blessing of so good a father and mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell wanted to invite all their friends, but this was impossible, as the list would have included almost every resident of Nemaha county, and a great host in adjoining counties and in other states, so invitations were issued to only a few of the most intimate friends. One hundred and sixteen guests were present, besides the children, grandchildren and one great-grandchild—little Gladys, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Swan.

After the guests had arrived Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell were called out on the front porch, and in the presence of the friends who had gathered in the yard and at the doors and windows, Rev. C. H. Gilmore, in a short but eloquent, heartfelt and very appropriate address, presented fine gold watches, suitably engraved, to Mr. and Mrs.
Maxwell, as a slight token of esteem from their friends. The presents were a total surprise to the recipients, and they were so overcome that they could hardly speak.

A number of other valuable presents were received, including a handsome bed room suite, a carpet, fine chair, etc.
A splendid dinner, good enough for the president or any other man, was then partaken of and seemed to be heartily enjoyed by all.

After some time spent in social conversation the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell many returns of the anniversary of their wedding, and hoping that they might all live to be invited to assist in celebrating the diamond wedding.

The following officers for the Epworth League for the ensuing year were elected Thursday night: President—Irvin Hadlock
First vice president—Miss Florence Minick.
Second vice president—Miss Mabel Brogan.
Third vice president—Mrs. Allie R.
Sanders.
Fourth vice president—Miss Maud Minick.
Secretary—Miss Eleanor Galbraith.
Treasurer—Miss Dora Morton.

Robt. I. Smith has had some note heads and envelopes printed recently J. H. Seid, proprietor of the "Nemaha Stock Farm," also has note heads and envelopes printed, and I. N. Cooper and George H. Sutton each have envelopes printed. Our farmers are finding out that it costs but little more to have their envelopes printed than the envelopes alone cost them when bought in small quantities.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman May left on Tuesday for Fredonia, Kansas, where they will spend several days visiting with Mrs. May's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Wm. Hall, who were formerly citizens of Nemaha county.

Miss Harris, "the milliner," South Auburn.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.

Those fortunate enough to own sleighs have been taking advantage of the snow this week. Owing to the rough roads and the small amount of snow that fell the sleighing has not been first class.

Mrs. Fanny Fairbank was in from Auburn Thursday. She talks of opening a stock of millinery and notions in Nemaha soon. She has a great many friends in Nemaha and vicinity, who would be greatly pleased to have her move back here.

We have received the first number of "The Veteran," published at Omaha in the interest of the old soldiers of this and adjoining states. It is edited by G. W. Fairbrother, sr., of Brownville, an old soldier and one of the most vigorous writers in the state. There is no reason why the Veteran should not become one of the leading organs of the old soldier published in the United States.

Ripans Tabules: one gives relief.

We owe an apology to the Southeastern Nebraska Editorial association, which met at Auburn Monday night and Tuesday of last week. We fully intended to attend, but forgot all about the meeting when the time came until it was too late.

The dormitory building at the Peru Normal school caught fire during the fierce wind storm Monday forenoon and burned to the ground with most of the contents. Some of the teachers and pupils who room at the dormitory lost considerable. It is probable the brick hotel building will be used as a dormitory until the latter can be rebuilt.

The fire caught in the northeast corner of the top floor, probably from the stove. The building was the old one that was first used for the school when it was first started. There was no insurance.

WOOD AND CORN.
We wish all our delinquent subscribers who can furnish us wood or corn would bring the same in at once, as we need it. Either old or new corn will be taken.
