MARRY THIS GIRL QUICK.

I saw in your paper that a 13-year-old boy made $1.25 the first hour he worked selling the Perfection Metal Tip lampwick. I ordered a sample and went to work and the first week I cleared $10, the second week I cleared $15. I expect to run up to $25 a week in the near future, as the Perfection Metal Tip lampwick makes such a beautiful white light and does away with smoky chimneys and bad odor and saves oil, it is easy to sell. If you wish to try it send 13 two-cent stamps to Miss A. M. Fritz, Station A, St.
Louis, Mo., and she will send you sample outfit. This is a good way to make money around home.
MISS TINA W.

The progressive ladies of Westfield, Ind., issued a "Woman's Edition" of the Westfield News, bearing date of April 3, 1896. The paper is filled with matter of interest to women, and we notice the following from a correspondent, which the editors printed, resulting that it treats upon a matter of vital importance to their sex: "The best remedy for croup, colds and bronchitis that I have been able to find is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For family use it has no equal. I gladly recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Taylor the druggist.

MARRIED.

Mr. Frank Argabright, of Nemaha, and Miss Mary Chamberlain, of Brownville, were married Sunday, Jan 10th, 1897, at the bride's home, by Prof.
J. A. Beatty, principal of the Peru Normal School.

At 2 o'clock p. m. the wedding march was played by Miss Minnie May and the young couple marched to the parlor, standing under an arch which was decorated with evergreens, orange blossoms and leaves.

After the ceremony and congratulations the newly married couple and guests proceeded to the dining room, where the tables were loaded with good things.

The bride was dressed in sea green brocade satin, with crown of orange blossoms, which were sent to her from California.

The groom was dressed in the customary black.

The wedding was very quiet, only the relatives and a few very intimate friends being present.

Many valuable presents were received.

On Monday a dinner was given the young couple at the residence of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Argabright.

THE ADVERTISER unites with the

and will begin business as soon as she can make the necessary arrangements.

Two men were caught breaking into the Gilbert bank last Monday morning, getting through a window, but very little excitement was created, as it was soon discovered that the "robbers" were Earle Gilbert and Jim Burns. A spring had broke in the lock and it could not be unlocked, so Earle had to get in through the window.

brated the fifteenth anniversary of

We are informed on good authority that apple orchards in Nemaha county for several years have paid $16 per acre, from the time the orchard was set out, and then for the first eight or ten years the owner could get at least a half crop on an average from the land. There is nothing pays better than a good orchard, in this country.

N. R. Anderson's Cash Store has been moved into the Titus & Williams store building. This gives them room to display the stock of goods as it should be, and it presents a good appearance. Mr. Anderson has enlarged his stock, and will put in new goods as rapidly as possible. He carries a fresh stock of seasonable goods.

Mrs. Laura Harris, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Peabody died at her residence in Beatrice last Saturday, January 9th, 1897, from typhoid fever, aged 27 years, 1 month and 2 days. Mrs. Harris had nursed her little boy through a long seige of typhoid fever, and was taken with the fever before the little one was out of danger, and on account of her great prostration could not withstand the ravages of the disease. She leaves a husband and two little boys, three and one years old, to mourn the loss of wife and mother. The oldest boy is not able to sit up yet from the fever.

The body of the deceased was brought to Nemaha for burial Monday, and was followed to the Nemaha cemetery by a large number of friends. Services were held at the cemetery by Rev. E.
S. Chamberlain, of the Christian church, to which Mrs. Harris belonged.

The bereaved ones have our sympathy in their great affliction.
