Local News.

Cold weather this week.

Steve Cooper is on the sick list.

The ice men are busy this week.

Jerry Colerick is sick with the grip.

Mrs. George Yackly is another grip patient.

Andy Jarvis is filling his ice house with good ice.

Be careful of your fires this cold windy weather.

Kerker & Hoover have six or eight teams hauling ice.

Mrs. Sam Anderson has been on the sick list this week.

Who said there would be no cold weather this winter?

Kemp Colerick has been "courting" at Auburn part of the week.

Robert Frost is attending district court in the capacity of a juror.

The cold wave struck us hard Sunday, and is staying right with us.

Alva Leedy has been assisting Steve Cooper in the livery stable this week.

Mrs. T. B. Skeen, of Auburn, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fannie Fairbank.

John Dorram has been confined to the house the most of this week, with the grip.

Mrs. J. H. Littrell, who has been visiting in Missouri, returned home Thursday night.

The ice that is being put up by our ice men is ten inches thick and of splendid quality.

Wm. Aynes came in from western Kansas Friday of last week, to see how a good country looked.

Tom Clark, who has been at Hebron, in the B. & M. office, for several weeks, returned home Friday of last week.

There will be no services at the Methodist church Saturday night. Services will be held Sunday night and the remainder of next week.

S. Gilbert has moved into the new bank building. The building is not yet finished inside but is near enough completion so it can be used.

The Missouri river got on a boom Wednesday and the water raised about six feet in a few hours. The raise was caused by a gorge near Aspinwall.

The editor rode the goat through the forests of woodcraft Tuesday night, and is now a member of Olive camp No. 14, Woodmen of the World.

Mrs. E. A. Minick, Mrs. Walter Hadlock, Mrs. Dr. Keeling, Miss Veva Clark, Miss Flo Minick and a number of others have been sick this week with the grip.

A great many people are mourning over the loss of vegetables that have been frozen during the cold spell. To their sorrow they found that their caves and cellars were not frost proof.

The school house at Hillsdale burned Thursday forenoon. The fire caught from the chimney, while school was in session. The books were saved but we understand everything else was burned.

Rev. Pickler, of Missouri, has been visiting in Nemaha for a week, and is so well pleased with the town and the people that he talks of moving here. He is an old friend of Mart May, and an uncle of Minor Taylor.

W. W. Sanders, Notary Public. Pen- sion papers of all kinds made out accurately. Legal documents drawn up. All business given prompt and careful attention.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.

Office at residence, south of Minick store building.

District court adjourned Wednesday until next Monday, after hearing one case. The will case of Lefler Stull is set for trial at that time. We understand that Judge Ramsey of the Otoe and Cass county district will hear this case.

While skating Tuesday Jay Duff fell backward, striking on the back of his head. He said nothing to his parents about it, but during the night Jay had spasms, and on being questioned told about the fall he had received. He has been quite sick from the effects of the shock, but is getting better.

J. H. Littrell, who is charged with breaking the peace, and who has been under bonds to keep the peace for several months, appeared at district court Tuesday and asked through his counsel, Geo. W. Cornell, that he be continued under the same bond, as he did not care to go to trial. His request was granted.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore commenced a series of meetings at the Methodist church Sunday night. Owing to the cold weather and rough roads the attendance has not been very large, but those attending have been treated to some splendid sermons. Prayer meetings are held at 3 o'clock every afternoon.

The Christian church at Brownville burned Thursday morning. It is not known how the fire originated, as we understand no services had been held in the church recently. The church was to have been sold at sheriff's sale next Monday to satisfy a mortgage held by Mrs. Cobb for money loaned the church a great many years ago.

County Surveyor Hacker this week surveyed the sand bar northeast of town, where the Gillespies and Flocks have been farming this year. Enoch Haneline, B. F. Lesley and Judge J. H. Broady, of Lincoln, who own the land adjoining this sand bar claim this land also, while W. H. Stockton claims that he bought it of Sherman Titus and others. There will probably be a lawsuit over the question of ownership.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Sauley, who live on the old Pierson farm, three and one-half miles east of Auburn, celebrated the 12th anniversary of their wedding Thursday of last week. About fifty guests were present. Revs. John Gallagher, of Auburn, and C. H. Gilmore, of Brownville, were among those present. A bountiful dinner was served. A number of useful and beautiful presents were received.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Webber returned Tuesday from Emporia, Kansas, where they went last week to attend the funeral of their nephew, Charley Allen, a son of N. N. Allen, formerly of Nemaha. The young man was at work in a mine at Victor, Colorado, when a heavy piece of timber fell on him and injured him so badly that he lived only about two hours after the accident occurred. He was sensible until his death.

The county commissioners have recently had the county clerk get a new warrant book to be used exclusively for those who have accounts against the county and who owe taxes. When such persons present their accounts the commissioners have the warrant drawn in favor of the treasurer and it is applied on taxes. The commissioners do not believe in paying out the money of those who do pay their taxes to those who do not.

WOOD AND CORN.

We wish all our delinquent subscribers who can furnish us wood or corn would bring the same in at once, as we need it. Either old or new corn will be taken.

Mies Harris, "the milliner," South Auburn.

Robert Sampson and Miss Kate Frost surprised their friends by going to Nebraska City Friday afternoon of last week and getting married that evening. County Judge Eaton performed the marriage ceremony. THE ADVERTISER extends best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Sampson for a long, happy and prosperous married life.

The happy couple returned to Nemaha Saturday. Mrs. Sampson went back to Peru Sunday, where she is working, while Bob remains in Nemaha.

Olive camp No. 14, Woodmen of the World, had a supper at the Minick hall last Saturday night. Although it was storming badly a good number of the Woodmen and friends were present and all had an enjoyable time. The only thing that marred the enjoyment of the occasion was the fear of some of the members that Sam Anderson, Joe Haith and Lew Mather would make themselves sick by trying to eat up all the grub, but after their table had been replenished for the third time and they were told that hardly a beginning had been made in the bountiful supply of eatables, they gave up in despair, and after that all was harmony.

Peru has another rare treat in store. Dr. C. M. Shepherd, of Lincoln, is to give his renowned lecture, "The Story of War and Weapon," in the Normal chapel Wednesday evening, Feb. 3rd, 1897, under the auspices of the W. R. C. He will exhibit his peerless collection of implements of battle used by the different nationalities, during the lecture. In order that all may have the privilege of attending this interesting lecture the admission will only be 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

Hon. Thos. J. Majors has been urged as a suitable person for the position of secretary of agriculture in President McKinley's cabinet, and was strongly endorsed for that position by Senator Thurston. If Nebraska should be fortunate enough to get a cabinet position (which is not at all probable, considering the way the vote stood last fall), Mr. Majors would receive the appointment, and would make an able official. He was one of the original McKinley men in this state, fought the Manderson "favorite son" boom that was originated to keep Nebraska out of the McKinley column, and did effective work in the western part of the state during the campaign.
