Local News.

Additional local on last page.

R. V. Muir was down from Brownville Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Hawxby is very sick with lung fever.

The deepest snow of the season fell Thursday morning.

R. D. Waterman is arranging to move to town the first of next month.

I. N. Cooper expects to move back to his Nemaha residence in a few days.

Herbert Weatherfield has moved on one of W. H. McIninch's farm, in London precinct.

Mrs. Nellie Palmer, of Havelock, Neb., visited J. W. Weeber and family from Friday until Tuesday.

Another cold put in an appearance Friday morning, causing the mercury to fall several degrees below zero.

District court convenes again next Monday. The case of Will Argabright will be tried, unless some change is made.

W. W. Sanders is agent for R. V.
Muir's town lots in Nemaha. If you want to lease or buy one apply at THE ADVERTISER office.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jay returned last Saturday from Grand Island, where they had been visiting Mrs. Jay's sister, Mrs. Wm. Murr.

Geo. B. Kinney, who moved to Iowa about a year ago, was in town a few days ago, and says he expects to move back here this spring.

Lester Peabody recently bought the forty acre farm east of Fred Hoover's, in Aspiwall precinct. Ernest Argabright has it rented for this year.

Mrs. Chas. M. Welton is visiting her brother, L. H. Barnes, for a few days while Charley gets things in running order at the farm east of Johnson.

We are glad to learn that William Hawxby is going to return to his farm northwest of town this spring. He greatly prefers farm life to living in Lincoln.

J. W. Webber, who has been very sick with the grip, does not improve as rapidly as his friends would like to see, but we hope he will soon be able to get out again.

Mrs. J. Marlatt, who had very poor health during her residence in Lincoln has greatly improved since her return to Auburn and is able to be out again.
—Granger.

Stephen Cooper has taken orders for baling about a thousand tons of hay and is rustling for more orders. He will move on the farm as soon as the roads improve a little.

J. M. Burns has contracted to build a 20x20 foot addition to John Quinn's farm house, near Howe, and will begu work as soon as the weather is suitable for outdoor work.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs.
Noah Colerick died Sunday, aged about three months. The funeral services were held Monday at the Methodist church. Rev. J. W. Taylor preached the sermon.

Rev. L. F. Britt, D. D., will be at Johnson from March 3d to 10th, assisting Rev. Calvert in a protracted meeting, and during that time will treat magnetically all sufferers who apply at the Commercial hotel. Dr. Britt has performed some marvelous cures in Nemaha county in the past, but found that it was taking up too much of his time to treat those who came to him.
For over a year Dr. Britt has been sick and unable to do any work, but is now able to get around again, and will devote much of his time to healing the sick.

The Maple Grove school district—Dist. 37—is troubled, but the trouble differs from that which afflicts most of our districts. After paying the expenses of this term of school they will have at least $600 on hand. What bothers the members of the school board is how to dispose of this money.
If they could only turn it over to the Nemaha district we could soon dispose of it.

Olive Camp No. 14, Woodmen of the World, will give a dance, oyster supper and entertainment Wednesday night, March 17th. The dance will be given in Hoover's opera house, the oyster supper in the lower west room of the opera house, and the entertainment in the Minick hall. Admission to dance, 50 cents; supper and entertainment, 25 cents. Everybody is invited.

Miss Emma Crim, assisted by the best singers of Nemaha and vicinity, will give the charming and romantic operetta, "Genevieve," at Hoover's opera house Saturday night, March 6th.
The music of this operetta is excellent and the singers have been carefully trained. We feel sure every one will be pleased. Miss Crim should have a crowded house. Admission, 15 cents; children, 10 cents; reserved seats, 20 cents. Tickets on sale at Taylor's drug store.

Charlie Armstrong, Etta Armstrong.
E. DELIA KEMPTHORNE,
Teacher.

Benjamin Savel died at his home near the London church Wednesday afternoon, February 17, from the effects of grip. The funeral took place from Bethel church this morning at 10 o'clock, and the remains were interred in the London cemetery. Grandpa Savel was one of the early settlers in Nemaha county, locating near Brownville about forty years ago. For a time he made his home in this city, but of late years has resided near London.
He was within nine days of 85 year-old at the time of his death.—Granger Kerker & Hoover are agents for the celebrated Haas' Hog Remedy, which has gained such a reputation as a remedy for hog cholera and kindred diseases. So confident are the manufacturers of the merits of this remedy that they offer for a small amount per head to insure hogs against the cholera provided the remedy is used according to directions. It is said that by the use of this medicine hogs thrive so well that the cost of the remedy is saved in feed or gained in weight. Go to Ker-ker & Hoover and get full particulars.

Tuesday afternoon we had the pleasure of visiting C. Shuck's "Nemaha Valley Berkshire Farm," four miles northwest of Nemaha. Mr. Shuck has been raising thoroughbred Berkshire hogs for a number of years, and keeps no other kind of hogs. He believes the Berkshire is the finest and best hog on earth, and can convince almost any one that such is the fact by showing them his stock. Mr. Shuck has sold nearly everything he has for sale, but will soon be ready for customers. He has about thirty hogs left, and the majority of them are as pretty as pictures. We were so forcibly impressed with the merits of the Berkshire and with the stock raised by Mr.
Shuck that we made a bargain for a sow before we left.

Mr. Shuck has a hog medicine that he prepares himself that is said to be a sure preventive of hog cholera, and will cure the sick hogs if they are not too far gone. Many of the neighbors are using this remedy, which is comparatively cheap.

Dr. J. L. Melvin,
Office at residence, south of Minick store building.

F. M. Christman, an old resident of Auburn, was found dead Wednesday morning in his room in the loft of the livery stable formerly owned by him.
He had been a hard drinker for years, and this undoubtedly caused his death.

Henry Wallace is generally recognized as the best posted man on agriculture, stock breeding and feeding and grass growing in the western country.
We will send his weekly agricultural paper, WALLACES' FARMER, and the ADVERTISER both for one year for $1.50. Drop card to Wallaces' Farmer, Des Moines, Iowa, and ask for a sample copy which will be furnished free.

We have made arrangements whereby we can send THE ADVERTISER and the Inter Ocean both one year for only $1.60 cash in advance.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding Quick time. All trains met. John McElhanev, proprietor.

We will send THE ADVERTISER, the New York Tribune, the Toledo Blade and the Chicago Inter Ocean, all four papers one year for only $2.10.

Alpans Tabules.

FOR SALE.—A span of good mules nine years, perfectly gentle. Apply at this office.

save you money.

We want one good man (having horse), as permanent superintendent for Nemaha County, on salary. Must send along with application, strong letters of recommendation as to honesty, energy, and ability. First class man only. State occupation. Address P.
O. Box 1632, Phil., Pa.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required.
