VOLUME XLI

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1897.

NUMBER 40

Local News.

Village election next Tuesday.

Mrs. Fairbank for fine millinery.

We had a hard rain Tuesday night.

Early garden stuff is being planted.

The Nemaha school will not have a spring vacation.

Emanuel Zegafuse is "enjoying" a felen on his right thumb.

Lewis Thompson is moving on his farm northeast of town.

We are informed that a stock of general merchandise will soon be put in at Bracken.

Mrs. M. H. Crother, of London precinct, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Melvin.

NEW KIMBALL ORGAN for sale, on easy payments. Inquire at this office for particulars.

Mrs. W. W. Sanders went to Brownville Tuesday, to assist in taking care of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Rossell.

No man is entitled to vote at the village election next Tuesday unless he has resided in the village three months.

Hon. J. H. Broady, of Lincoln, has been in Nemaha and vicinity several days this week, looking after his land interests.

Mrs. Theo. Hill went to St. Joseph Monday to buy her spring stock of millinery and notions. She returned home Wednesday night.

John Maxwell went to Harlan county, Iowa, the first of the week, to visit his brother, who has been in very poor health for some time.

The Missouri river had been falling for several days, but on Thursday the waters began to rise again. A big rise is reported on the way.

Rev. Chas. H. Gilmore arrived home Thursday of last week, after a two or three weeks' visit with his parents at his old home near Cherokee, Iowa.

John Tracey, Oscar L. Minick and Chas. T. Minick came in from Bracken Wednesday evening and rode the gear through Dunraven Castle of the Royal Highlanders.

STRAYED.—From my stock field about March 15th a two-year-old bay horse colt; white spot in forehead and some white on hind feet.

J. L. HAITH.

W. R. C. SUPPER.

The Woman's Relief Corps will give a general supper at the Minick hall on Saturday night, April 3rd. Price of supper 15 cents. Everybody is invited. Supper will be ready at 6 o'clock.

In the proceedings of the meeting of the assessors, published last week, we failed to give price at which wheat will be assessed. The price agreed on was 10 cents per bushel. Barley is to be assessed at 5 cents, instead of 10, as was published.

The Episcopal church at Brownville was recently torn down, and one of the interesting relics found in the corner stone was a copy of THE NEBRASKA ADVERTISER of Nov. 24th, 1867—over twenty-nine years old. R. V. Muir, of Brownville, was one of the proprietors. Brownville was at that time a live town.

J. B. Hoover is adding new styles and varieties of canes to his large and handsome assortment. He has the finest collection of canes of native woods in the state, and has several varieties not on the list at the state university. He has canes made from sixty-seven different varieties of native wood, all grown in Nemaha county, we believe, and all but three or four grew within a mile of Nemaha.

OBITUARY NOTICE.

Died, at his home in Nemaha county, two miles west of Nemaha, Cyrus C. Seeley, on Saturday, March 27, 1897, of diabetes and heart disease.

Mr. Seeley was born at Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 29th, 1852, and was at his death aged 44 years, 4 months and 27 days. He was the only son of Cyrus C. and Mrs. A. M. Seeley, and was the last male in descent of that branch of the family.

Deceased leaves an aged mother, an only daughter, and two sisters, Mrs. Cora M. Smith, of Chicago, and Mrs. B. Bell Andrews, of Stella, Nebr., to mourn his loss.

Mr. Seeley was married to Miss Carrie Boyd, youngest daughter of Judge H. T. Boyd, of Carrollton, Ill., Dec. 18th, 1873. This union was a happy one for five years when his wife died in childbirth, leaving two daughters, one an infant which soon followed the mother.

Mr. Seeley was extensively engaged in the manufacture of carriages at Carrollton, Ill., up to the year 1884, when his health became so impaired that he entirely abandoned his occupation, moving to this state, where he engaged in farming on a small scale with a view to regaining his health.

He was a quiet, unassuming man, an exemplary citizen, a fond parent and a devoted son.

Twenty-four years ago he united with the M. E. church and remained an exemplary and honorable member of that body of Christian people. He was also an Odd Fellow, and a man beloved and respected by all who were familiar with his daily life.

The remains were brought to the home of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Andrews, of Stella, where a brief service was held by Rev. Barch and sympathizing neighbors and friends of Dr. and Mrs. Andrews, when the remains were taken by his daughter, Miss Mamie Seeley, to Carrollton, Ill., to be laid by the side of his beloved wife, to whom he was ever faithful to the last.

A FRIEND.

J. W. Armstrong, the South Auburn hardware and furniture man, was running a free lunch counter Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, furnishing hot biscuit, butter and coffee to all who would partake. We had the pleasure of eating there Wednesday and can testify to the excellence of the biscuit, which were baked in the store on a Majestic range in just three minutes. The lunch was one feature of an advertisement of the Majestic all steel range.

DON'T WASH your wood work and doors, but have them neatly grained and varnished. Just as cheap as to paint them. First class work done by J. S. HADLOCK.

Nemaha has a Bakery, Candy Factory, Lunch Counter, etc., where you can get a hot lunch, a square meal, fresh bread, cakes, pies, etc. I am prepared to make hot candy for parties on short notice.

R. L. NORFLEET.

PASTURE.

I can furnish pasturage for about fifty head of young cattle this summer at following prices: Calves and yearlings 50 cents a month per head; two-year-olds and grown cattle 75 cts. No horses wanted. Pasture three miles outh of Nemaha.

E. S. McCANDLESS, Auburn.

SCHOOL ITEMS.

High School

ANNIE FROST, }
LESLIE WOODWARD, } Editors.

Our other reporters having had their spell, we will try ours for the next month.

Miss Cora Gillispie entered the seventh grade last week.

The seventh grade is being initiated into the mysteries of algebra this week.

Our girls have organized a gymnasium society. Meetings are held in the hall at intermissions.

Our school closes in eight weeks. As a result examinations will henceforth be frequent occurrences.

The geometry class are launching out upon the sea of triedrals. May their voyage be successful.

Our sixth grade who have been puzzling their brains on the difficult subject of taxes are now prepared to make out tax lists.

Ink bottles, penwipers and blotting pads are the implements that now ornament our desks. The bookkeeping class are balancing their books for March.

Say, Mr. Janitor, as nature has wisely bestowed upon us a great amount of rain and as a matter of course mud will follow, a larger amount of your energy must be imbibed by the broom.

The ninth and seventh year grades who have been withstanding the trials of examination in Philosophy and arithmetic recieved their once fair papers disfigured with various marks Monday evening, and sadly repeated "It might have been."

Primary

DAVID BURNS, }
NORA AYNES, } Editors.

Quite a number of pupils have been staying out of school on account of bad weather.

The fourth arithmetic class took up multiplication of fractions Monday.

The second language class was given for their work Friday the word "reputations" and were told to make as many words as possible from the letters in that word. Nora Aynes got six hundred and eighty-one.

Blanche Williams visited school Wednesday.

Although it has been very muddy the children managed to find a place for their favorite amusement, jumping rope.

In a spelling match a few days ago, Miss Brooks gave out the word snout. A tiny fellow spelled s-n-o-t when a bright little chap sang out "Next thing to it."

NOTICE OF VILLAGE ELECTION

Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, April 6th, 1897, an election will be held in the village of Nemaha, Nebraska, for the purpose of electing five (5) village trustees. Said election to be held at the usual voting place. The polls will be opened at 9 o'clock a. m. and remain open until 7 o'clock p. m.

S. GILBERT, Chairman.

J. E. CROTHER, Village Clerk.

WOOD AND CORN.

We wish all our delinquent subscribers who can furnish us wood or corn would bring the same in at once, as we need it.

We will send THE ADVERTISER, the New York Tribune, the Toledo Blade and the Chicago Inter Ocean, all four papers one year for only $2.10.

Ripans Tabules cure bad breath.

A MAP OF THE UNITED STATES.

The new map issued by the Burlington Route is three feet four inches wide by four feet long; is printed in six colors; is mounted on rollers; shows every state, county, important town and railroad in the Union, and forms a very desirable and useful adjunct to any household or business establishment.

Purchased in lots of 5,000 the maps cost the Burlington Route nearly 20 cents apiece, but on receipt of 15 cents in stamps or coin the undersigned will be pleased to send you one.

Write immediately, as the supply is limited.

J. Francis, G. P. A., Burlington Route, Omaha, Nbe.

We pay 15 cents a bushel for corn taken on subscription.
