

IN GRANT'S HONOR.

Fifty-Five Thousand Men Will March at New York.

THE MASSIVE MAUSOLEUM IS READY

The White Squadron and Foreign War Vessels Anchored Near by—Gen. Longstreet Publishes a Graceful Tribute to the Dead Warrior.

NEW YORK, April 27.—All day long soldiers of the regular army and national guard have marched through the handsomely-decorated streets of New York from the railroad stations and ferry landings to their quarters. Every train has brought notable people to the city, among the arrivals being President McKinley, Vice President Hobart, the cabinet officers, members of the diplomatic corps, senators, representatives and governors of states. Weeks ago it was estimated that 1,000,000 persons would come to New York to witness the parade and ceremonies of dedication of the tomb, and that number may be exceeded. Early yesterday the crowded street cars and hotels gave proof that a multitude of people had come, although the suburbs had not yet begun to send their hundreds of thousands. More people will behold to-day's pageant than will see the queen's show in London next month, for the line of march here stretches for several miles, and much of the route is alongside of the parks and vacant lots, upon which have been built great stands with cushioned seats, canvas roofs and restaurants, for the spectators are expected to occupy their places for several hours, from the time President McKinley's carriage passes in the morning until the last of the 55,000 men goes by in the afternoon.

In making up the parade, the grand marshal, Gen. Grenville M. Dodge, has excluded many civic bodies which asked for places and has given room to the regular militia of the several states and the Grand Army and kindred organizations. The white squadron lies in the North river, opposite the tomb, and the foreign war vessels are anchored below. The exercises of the day will be carried out precisely as arranged weeks ago.

The massive mausoleum in Riverside park was completed only a few days ago, and has been handsomely decorated with flowers and bunting. The grounds between the tomb and the river are not yet arranged as contemplated. Yesterday huge stands covered the lawns and all the available grounds about the tomb, and the scene was not impressive, but to-day every foot of ground where a human body could find room was occupied.

Gen. Longstreet especially requested the Associated Press to publish a statement all written by his own, now somewhat feeble, hand. He said to the correspondent that it was fitting on such an occasion that he should speak, for he was with Grant at West Point, served in the same regiment with him before the war, and even introduced him to the woman who became his wife. The statement, as Gen. Longstreet wrote it, is as follows:

It was my good fortune to know, as few others could, that Grant's heart went out in sympathy for the brave men and women of the south during the distressing times of reconstruction, and to old comrades who followed the stars and bars of the south to the gloom and glory of Appomattox. I want to say Gen. Grant's heart went out to us in all our woes. He appreciated the principle that all governments derive their powers from the confidence and respect of the people, and his great mind and patriotic heart were bent toward the re-establishment of cordial feelings between the sections of the land. If every old confederate soldier or widow of a confederate to whom he gave helping hands could leave a tear about his tomb it would be baptized in love's best offering.

To the brave men of the other side of the great strife, my people send messages to crown this august occasion. We turn from the setting star of the confederacy to accept the glorious flag of the union, to put it about our hearthstones, and love it as we love our noble women; we stand guard about and hold it forever; its glories are ours with undivided hearts, undivided people, undivided arms to protect its triumph. We are with you to-day and all days, brothers and friends. Your union; our union. On this inspiring occasion we love to tell you that for all the grandeur and majesty of Grant's character, for all the splendor of his generosity to our brave men and broken people his name shall be embalmed in the hearts of our children and of our children's children with devotion as warm as our southern sun.

ALMOST INCREDIBLE.

Horrible Stories of Suffering and Privation of Human Beings in Cuba.

HAVANA, April 27.—An appeal has been sent to Clara Barton to come to the rescue of starving pacificos, whose condition is daily growing more heart-rending. Children are dying in the streets of Matanzas and babies have been found dead in the arms of exhausted mothers. Whole villages of living skeletons in bark huts are praying for death to release them from their suffering. Cattle are being seized by Weyler for the use of the troops.

BARNES GETS IT.

President McKinley Settles the Oklahoma Governmentship—Other Appointments.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate yesterday:

William R. Day, of Ohio, assistant secretary of state.

Bellamy Storer, Ohio, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Belgium.

Cassius M. Barnes, for governor of Oklahoma.

THE REFORM CLUB DINNER.

Ex-President Cleveland and ex-Secretary Carlisle Respond to Toasts.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Five hundred guests sat down to the annual dinner of the Reform club at the Waldorf Saturday night and cheered to the echo sentiments from the lips of sound money and tariff reform democrats. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed and long-continued applause greeted the appearance of ex-President Cleveland, the first speaker of the evening, who responded to the toast "Present Problems" in a lengthy speech. He said among other things:

On every side we are confronted with popular depression and complaint. These are largely due to causes of natural and certain recurrence, as the inevitable accompaniment of all human endeavor, and perhaps they are as largely due to the work of agitators and demagogues who have busily sowed the seeds of discontent in order that in the harvest they may reap personal advantage.

Let true democrats meet the passion and bitterness of their former associates who have assumed the leadership of anti-democratic wanderings with firm expostulations, reminding them that democratic convictions and democratic conscience cannot be forced to follow false lights, however held aloft; and let us at the same time entertain them in the name of honorable political comradeship and in the memory of glorious victories won by a united democracy, to turn from the way that leads to party defeat and destruction.

Ex-Secretary John G. Carlisle responded to the toast "Sound Currency," saying:

In my opinion the official agitation now going on in favor of an international monetary conference is not merely useless, but harmful in the highest degree to all great interests dependent upon a permanent and proper adjustment of our currency system. No partisan considerations, no vain hopes of holding together incongruous political elements or diminishing the demands of silver monometallists, can at a time like this justify or even excuse persistence in a movement which the whole world knows is a mere pretense, but which is nevertheless a distinct and dangerous concession to the theory of free coinage and fiatism, and is, for that reason if for no other, injurious to the cause of sound money and to all the material interests of the country.

FLOODS IN THE WEST.

Many Buildings Washed Away, Railroad Traffic Impeded and Stock Drowned.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 26.—Special dispatches tend to show that the territory including portions of Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa experienced the heaviest rainstorms in their history between midnight and morning Sunday. In northern Kansas more rain fell within six hours than often falls in six months. Many small buildings were washed away and there was actual fear that entire towns would be swept off into the swelling streams. The rise of the water in parts of Nebraska was so rapid that people sleeping in the first stories of their homes narrowly escaped drowning in their beds. They were compelled to take refuge in the upper stories and on the roofs, and in many instances, rescuers, with boats, took half-dressed people from trees, into which they had climbed in their forced retreat.

A telegram from Topeka, Kan., says: The Kaw river at this point is higher than it has been for the past eight years, and it is still rising at the rate of two inches an hour. Reports from central Kansas indicate that the rise will continue for 24 hours or perhaps longer. Driftwood is coming down the river in great quantities. Much of it has lodged against the street railway bridge on Kansas avenue, and fears are entertained for the safety of the structure.

At Ottumwa, Ia., the river broke over the levees and flooded the bottoms, carrying several houses down stream. In some places the water is above the first story of the houses. One Burlington main track is impassable and hundreds of men are at work attempting to prevent damage to the other line.

As a result of the heavy storm and consequent rise of the Blue river at Beatrice, Neb., 200 houses were flooded and 1,100 people were driven from their homes. All of them were provided with food, clothing and lodging.

WORK OF FIENDS FRUSTRATED.

The Hunt Brothers Try to Drown a Man but Are Balked in Their Purpose.

PERRY, Ok., April 26.—John and Samuel Hunt, two brothers in Washita county, attempted to drown Charlie Goodall, who was working for them, by binding him securely to a horse, then tying a rock to the horse's neck and pushing them both over the bluff into a deep hole of water in the Washita river. They had bound the man to the horse and were fixing the rock when he slipped the bridle off the horse and made a dash for liberty. The men fired several shots at the fleeing man and gave chase on horseback, but he succeeded in getting to a farm house near by and gave the alarm. The community in which the parties live is very much wrought up over the matter, and if the parties are caught they will probably be lynched.

USED A "STRAW" MAN.

Fraternal Insurance Order Worked Up Over an Alleged Swindle.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 26.—For some time past there has been trouble in the Fraternal Aid association, a benefit insurance order that has a membership of between 10,000 and 11,000 in Missouri and Kansas, over an alleged attempt of one of its officers to compel the payment of a death benefit of $3,000 upon a "straw" man. A local paper five or six weeks ago contained an account of the trouble that had resulted in the order from the presentation of the claim. Since then the trouble has increased, and the United States authorities in Kansas have been asked to thoroughly investigate the charges and bring the guilty parties to justice.

NEWS FROM GREECE

A Revolutionary Feeling Is Being Displayed at Athens.

ANGERED AT THE PALACE PARTY.

Arrangements Being Made to Enable the Royal Family to Leave the Country Hastily in Case of Necessity—Correspondents' Views.

LONDON, April 27.—The most serious feature in the Græco-Turkish emergency is the revolutionary feeling displayed at Athens. Ex-Minister Ralli, leader of the principal opposition group in the legislative assembly, threatened that, unless the military staff was changed, he would issue a proclamation to the people. His statements acted like oil upon fire, and the popular excitement has flared up. Crowds assembled in the streets to discuss them and wanted to march to the palace to read them to King George. Fortunately heavy showers drove the people indoors. M. Delyannis, keenly alive to the necessity of immediate action, had an audience with the king, and after the interview announced that the staff of the crown prince would be recalled, and that ex-Minister Ralli, with three of his nominees, Gen. Smolenski, Gen. Mavromiachel and Col. Dimopoulo, would be appointed to replace them.

The Daily Telegraph's Athens correspondent said to-day: All of M. Ralli's conditions have been accepted. The king gives carte blanche to his ministers. As the public begins to learn the truth, anger against the palace party increases, and a feeling of hostility against M. Delyannis is steadily growing. Late last night crowds paraded menacingly in the vicinity of the palace. It is reported on good authority that arrangements are being made to enable the royal family to leave the country hastily in case of necessity. People had generally credited the rumors that the crown prince would be recalled and that the government was willing to consider peace overtures. It is impossible to say what will happen when it is known that the war is to be continued and the crown prince retained in command. M. Ralli believes the abandonment of Tynavo and Larissa to have been not only unnecessary, but most illy advised, as it endangered the safety of Gen. Smolenski's column, which, however, fortunately succeeded in making its way to Pharsala.

The dispatches of the special correspondents published to-day consist for the most part of additional details of the Greek's discomfiture. The Turkish plans are not yet revealed. There is no doubt now that Crown Prince Constantine ordered the bridges to be destroyed before the Greeks abandoned Larissa, but damage could not be done beyond what could be easily repaired by the Turks. It seems equally certain that the Greeks only escaped a crushing defeat with returning daylight by precipitate flight. The news from Epirus is conflicting. It seems certain that the Turks have reoccupied Pentepigadia, and it is not improbable that the Greeks have retreated to Arta, showing that the Turks allowed them to advance to Pentepigadia solely in order to destroy the column.

AN AGREEMENT.

BERLIN, April 27.—The Tageblatt announces that a definite agreement has been reached between Russia and Austria concerning Turkey. The terms of the agreement, it is said, are that the sultan shall renounce Crete; that the czar shall be given a coaling station at Suday bay, in that island, and that in return Russia shall guarantee the integrity of Turkey.

SHORTAGE IS ENORMOUS.

Startling Developments in Connection with the Defalcation of a Cashier.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 27.—Harry A. Cassin, the cashier of the Georgia Savings, Loan & Banking Co., who yesterday confessed to being a defaulter to the extent of $45,000, and whose friends had agreed to pay up his shortage to keep him out of jail, is behind the bars of Fulton prison. At a meeting of the board of directors of the institution which was robbed, a brief examination of the books was made and resulted in the astonishing discovery that the bank, which was supposed to be one of the most prosperous in the state, had hardly a cent's worth of assets. Instead of the shortage being $45,000, it will be several times that sum, and instead of young Cassin being the bearer of the entire guilt, it is now believed that at least one other prominent official will share a cell with him.

EX-CONFEDERATE DECORATION.

Memorial Day Is Fittingly Observed Throughout the South.

VICKSBURG, Miss., April 27.—Confederate Memorial day was generally observed in Mississippi and Alabama yesterday. In this city there was a procession to the cemetery, participated in by the veterans of both armies. There was a general suspension of business and about 4,000 people attended the ceremonies at the confederate monument. Hon. Patrick Henry was orator of the day. At Meridian business was suspended and there was a big parade, after which the graves of the dead were strewn with flowers.

GOLD GOING ABROAD.

Nearly One Million Dollars Ordered at the New York Sub-Treasury for Export.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The secretary of the treasury has received a telegram from Assistant Treasurer Jordan at New York stating that $977,000 in gold bullion has been ordered for export. This is the first withdrawal of any considerable amount since July 23, 1896, when $2,000,000 was withdrawn, the last of a series of heavy shipments extending through a number of months. The treasury officials do not anticipate any general gold export movement. More than $55,000,000 in gold is available to supply export demands before the reserve must be called into requisition. It is not considered probable that even this amount will be sent abroad before the balance of trade shall turn next autumn.

NOT FOR WOMEN.

Proposition to Admit Them to Methodist General Conference Defeated.

CLEVELAND, O., April 26.—F. A. Arter, a leading Methodist, received word from headquarters that there is no longer any doubt of the decision of the church on the question of admitting women delegates. The matter was submitted to the district conferences, and from returns already received it is announced that the women are overwhelmingly defeated. Colored and German congregations voted almost solidly against the women. The proposition to grant equal lay and ministerial representation is also defeated.

NO LABOR OR SPORT.

Connecticut House Passes a Bill That Would Stop Sunday Traveling.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 26.—A bill passed the house Saturday by a large majority vote prohibiting all Sunday labor or sport. The bill's original provision was that no labor or sport be allowed to take place in the state between sunrise and sunset, except such as was necessary. There was some trouble in fixing the penalty, which was placed at $50 fine. The bill, if its provisions are strictly construed, would stop the electric cars and stages and would make it unlawful to ride out in carriages or on bicycles or to go boating, fishing or swimming.

THEY DIED TOGETHER.

Illinois Uncle and Niece Who Loved Unhappily Die by Poison.

QUINCY, Ill., April 26.—Wakeman Haynes and Lizzie Hudson, uncle and niece, aged 33 and 16 respectively, who eloped from Loraine village last Sunday, were found dead in a pasture two miles from here this morning. They had taken strychnine and died together. They had been going together until the community began to talk and then they apparently determined to end their lives. They were of well-known families.

Gen. Miles to Visit the Seat of War.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Gen. Miles has been notified of the president's approval of his projected visit to the seat of war in Europe. He will leave Washington early in May, probably taking passage on the St. Paul from New York. At Paris, the general will board the Oriental express and go through without stop to Constantinople. His future movement will depend entirely upon the progress of the war but it is his intention to keep as near as possible to the scene of actual hostilities so that he may be in either camp.

May Open More Indian Lands.

GUTHRIE, Ok., April 26.—Indian Agent Baldwin at Anadarko has received orders from the department to withdraw the advertisements for proposals to lease the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache lands. This action of the department indicates that the present administration intends to carry out the treaty made several years ago with these tribes, and allot their lands, so as to throw the residue open to settlement, but this can't be done short of a year.

Soldiers' Home Changes.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 26.—Gen. A. J. Smith, governor of the soldiers' home here, has received a telegram from Washington that he had been transferred to the home at Santa Monica, Cal., and that Col. Rowland, governor of the Santa Monica home, would be made governor of the Leavenworth home. Cyrus Townsend, of this city, has also been elected to succeed Treasurer Shockley, of the Leavenworth home.

Big St. Louis Industry to Close.

ST. LOUIS, April 26.—The main portion of the abattoir department of the St. Louis Union stock yards abattoir and cold storage plant will be closed May 1 and several hundred workmen will be laid off as a result. The high price of cattle and the general dull times are the most prominent reasons given for closing the abattoir, which is one of the largest in the west.

Father Sherman Worn Out.

CHICAGO, April 26.—After several weeks spent in a Catholic hospital here, Father Thomas Sherman, son of the late Gen. William T. Sherman, has been given a leave of absence by the head of the Jesuit order until September, in the hope that his shattered health may be restored. Overwork is assigned as the main cause of his illness.

Crossed the Plains with Fremont.

HANNIBAL, Mo., April 26.—Maj. Thomas E. Breckenridge, the western pioneer, who crossed the plains with Fremont, died here at the home of his daughter last night.

GRAND ARMY RATES.

Western Railroads Refuse to Grant Commander-in-Chief Clarkson's Request.

CHICAGO, April 24.—Some time ago the western roads had before them the question of reduced rates for the Grand Army encampment, to be held at Buffalo next September. They agreed upon a one-way rate for the round trip to the eastern gateways of the western roads, to be added to the one cent per mile rate made by the roads east thereof to Buffalo. This rate did not suit the Grand Army men, and Gen. Clarkson, as commander-in-chief, asked the western roads to reconsider their action and make a one cent per mile rate. The western roads had this request under consideration yesterday. They refused to make a lower than one-way rate, and the only concession they would make in their former arrangements was to grant an extension of the return limits to the same basis as has been adopted by the roads east of Chicago.

TO "EQUALIZE" JUSTICE.

Gov. Leedy, of Kansas, Says the Law Is More Severe on Petty Offenders Than Big Ones.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 24.—Gov. John W. Leedy is out with a brand new reform. He says that the criminal laws of Kansas are discriminative; that the penalty for trivial offenses often is more severe than for great crimes; that the unfortunate who steals to prevent starvation often is given a harder sentence than is the man who robs whole communities as a bank cashier. He proposes as a remedy to examine the records of the prisoners in the state penitentiary, and by the exercise of the pardoning power to "make the punishment fit the crime." The governor left for Lansing yesterday for this purpose.

AN AGREEMENT REACHED.

Dawes Commission and Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians Come to Terms.

ATOKA, I. T., April 24.—The Dawes commission has reached an agreement with the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indian commissioners for a division of their lands. The agreement makes provisions for townsites, persons owning substantial improvements to be permitted to purchase lots on which buildings are already erected at two-thirds of the actual value; all coal and mineral interests are reserved for the respective nations; individual royalties are to cease on the ratification of the agreement by congress and the allotment of the lands is to take place immediately upon its approval.

A CARELESS BOY.

He Turns a Coal Car Loose and Two Men Are Killed as a Result.

WEBB CITY, Mo., April 24.—A horrible accident occurred late last evening at the Duenweg mines, six miles northeast of here, causing the instant death of William McKinley and injuring Anson Knight so he died to-day. A boy recklessly turned a car loose, which fell down the shaft onto the men. McKinley resided at Aurora and leaves a wife and five children. Knight resided at Duenweg and leaves a widow and three children.

TWENTY-ONE LOST.

Crew of an Overdue Ship Unhappily Drowned, Including the Captain's Family.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—The revenue cutter Rush has returned after an unsuccessful search for the overdue ship Samaria, bound from Seattle for San Francisco. The Rush was 300 miles up the coast, but found no trace of the ship. The Samaria, with her crew, and the captain's wife and two children, is undoubtedly at the bottom of the sea. There were 21 all told on board.

A WOMAN'S AWFUL DEED.

Mrs. Albert Hovey Horribly Murders Her Aged Mother-in-Law at Wilmington, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., April 24.—At Williamston, 14 miles east of here, Mrs. Albert Hovey, aged 33 years, murdered her aged mother-in-law with an ax sometime between eight o'clock and noon yesterday. She severed the head entirely from the body and then poured oil on the lifeless body and set it on fire. The murdered woman was 80 years old and lived with her son's family in the village.

BOY HANGS HIMSELF.

An Acheson Youth Commits Suicide Because His Father Punished Him.

ATCHISON, Kan., April 24.—The body of John Wallingford, a colored boy, 13 years of age, was found hanging from the limb of a tree in his father's pasture near Port Williams, Acheson county, yesterday. His father found it necessary to punish him during the early part of the week, and he left home in a sulk. He evidently committed suicide. His body had been hanging to the tree several days.

A PREACHER'S DOWNFALL.

Rev. H. C. Farrar Expelled from the Methodist Church.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., April 24.—Rev. Dr. H. C. Farrar, ex-pastor of St. Luke's church, Albany, was yesterday expelled from the Methodist Episcopal church and the ministry at the Troy conference. The accusation against Dr. Farrar was adultery. He was formerly president of the state Sunday school association, held high rank among the Methodist preachers of the state and is a grandfather.
