Lack of knowledge of what to plant and how to care for it probably explains why so few farmers have bearing fruit trees and forest trees for wind breaks. The irresponsible nurseryman and the tree peddler have reaped a rich harvest. There are plenty of fruit trees that grow luxuriantly in the west if given proper care.
 You can learn all about them by reading Wallace's Farmer, published weekly at Des Moines, Iowa, at $1 per year.
 Its horticultural department is edited by "Jerry" Sexton, foreman of the horticultural department of the Iowa state agricultural college, where nearly 150 acres are devoted to this work.

 W. W. SANDERS, Publisher.
 FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1897.

The Nebraska supreme court has practically decided that a man is not disqualified from serving on a jury because he reads the newspapers. The courts will some day hold that no man who does not keep himself informed by reading the newspapers is intelligent enough to serve on a jury.—Bee.

AUBURN, Nebr., May 26.—Auburn will appropriately celebrate Decoration day here Sunday next. Addresses will be made by Thomas J. Majors of Peru, Judge John S. Stull of this city, and W.
 H. Kelligar of this city. Mr. Kelligar will speak especially in the interest of the soldiers' monument fund. It is intended to begin the subscriptions for a monument for Nemaha county to be located in the Sheridan cemetery here at Sunday's meeting.

MAXIMUM RATE CASES STILL HANG.

Omaha Bee.
 The adjournment of the United States supreme court without handing down its decision in the Nebraska maximum freight rate cases leaves the maximum rate law where it has been for four years past—hanging in the air unenforceable because of the injunction issued by the federable courts. As the court does not reconvene until October it will be impossible to have the official order in the matter for at least four months to come. This is unfortunate, because of the state of uncertainty in which the people are kept and because it prevents them from discussing the grounds upon which the decision may turn, and, if necessary, formulating other plans for railway rate regulation.

The action of the supreme court in deferring its decision, on the other hand, tends to confirm the report that the judges are agreed upon a ruling in favor of the railroad and against the validity of the law. If the opinion of the court were to uphold the law and called for a dissolution of the injunction there would be every reason for making it public at once in order that the people might have the benefit of reduced railroad rates without delay.
 That was the controlling argument that led the court to the advancement of the cases in the first instance, and later to the advancement of their rehearing, and any other conclusion would leave the court in a most inconsistent attitude. Yet so far as the patrons of the railroads are concerned, the delay in announcing a decision adverse to them would not materially affect them because the injunction now pending would simply be maintained and eventually made perpetual. Taking all the circumstances into consideration, therefore, especially the fact that the decision of the lower court was in favor of the railroads and that the rehearing in the United States supreme court was accorded at the request of the attorneys for the state, it is safe to accept the adjournment of the court without final action as pointing to a victory for the railroads and the practical annulment of the law.

Just what the people of Nebraska should do next will be difficult to say.
 They must await the opinion of the court to learn whether or not there is an legal way by which state regulation of railroad rates can be effected, and if so whether it is to be done by an amended maximum freight rate law or through a state board of railway commissioners. Whatever the views of the judges of the supreme court the railroad rate problem is bound to be a live issue as soon as the complete decision is promulgated.

ONE FARE FOR ROUND TRIP TO THE OMAHA RACES.

All railroads will sell, within 150 miles from Omaha, round trip tickets to Omaha on June 8th to 11th, inclusive for one fare.

The trotting races occur on June 8, 9, 10 and 11. The field of horses, an unusually large one, includes many known trotters, as well as several new ones, which give promise of many surprises, and a lively and interesting meeting is assured.

The Omaha Fair and Speed association has secured two new and novel attractions, at great expense, that will add greatly to the entertainment of visitors. The great pacing horse, Johnny, record 2:12, will each day attempt to lower his own record, going without driver or harness. The horseless carriage is another novelty.
 It will race each day with the fastest horse on the grounds, carrying four occupants, and will afford visitors the opportunity of seeing the first horseless vehicle in the west. The events include free-for-all pacing races.

ELECTRIC BITTERS.
 Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt.
 A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters
