NUMBER 43

Local News.

Call and see us for job work.

Mrs. Fairbank for fine millinery.

The cut worms are still working at the corn.

T. B. Skeen was in from Auburn Monday.

Charley Woodward came in from Tecumseh Thursday.

M. T. Hill was over from Stella Monday, talking insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams drove up from Shubert last Sunday.

Miss Flo Minick went to Peru Mounay, to attend commencement.

Rev. John T. Smith, of Nebraska City, was in Nemaha Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Kempthorne, Mrs. Lambert and daughter Lue drove out to Auburn Saturday.

A. J. Baldwin drove over from Stella Tuesday and visited Nemaha friends for a few hours.

Harvey D. Hacker was in town Tuesday afternoon in the interest of the Auburn steam laundry.

Mrs. Theo. Hill drove over to Stella Sunday and visited her son M. T. Hill and family for a few hours.

J. W. Taylor is visiting Nemaha friends this week. He came up from St. Deroin Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. W. W. Keeling went to Omaha Tuesday to attend a meeting of the State Eclectic Medical society.

Miss Veva Clark went to Peru Saturday, to attend the normal commencement and visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Minick and children, of Bracken, visited Mrs. E. A. Minick and family, last Friday.

Auburn will celebrate the 121st anniversary of the independence of the United States on Saturday, July 3d.

The price of lemon extract is likely to rise, so our merchants say, as there is a lively demand for it in Nemaha.

Rev. P. Van Fleet, of Nebraska City, held the third quarterly conference at the M. E. church last Saturday afternoon.

Seymour Howe drove up to Peru Thursday morning to attend the commencement exercises of the state normal school.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore was chairman of the prohibition convention which met at Lincoln last week and nominated a state ticket.

The Titus Nursery shipped a box of handsome flowers to Gene Bradley, at Nebraska City, last Saturday, to be used on Decoration day.

Ben Parker arrived in Nemaha Sunday morning, from Galveston, Texas. His family came up about eight weeks ago. Ben has no use for Texas.

Robt. I. Smith says there are more farmers planting corn now than at this time last month. Almost every farmer has had to replant some corn.

Capt. W. W. Crandall, an old soldier of Auburn, has been reinstated to the position of tagger in the agricultural department.—Nebraska Veteran.

Frank Titus experimented in grafting cherry on plum last year, and this year he has one small limb of cherries while the rest of the tree is full of plums. It is a queer sight.

The class in the public school and the Sunday school class to which Verne Taylor belongs gave him a surprise party Friday of last week. A few hours were heartily enjoyed by all present.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.

Office at residence, south of Minick store building.

Mr. and Mrs. Kempthorne visited Rev. Diltz and family at Brownville Sunday.

Mrs. Restna Wheeler, who has been visiting relatives at Winslow, Illinois, for several months, arrived in Nemaha last Saturday.

The Brownville cornet band played a number of tunes on our streets Monday. This band has improved wonderfully during the past few months, and gave us some good music.

Tom Clark made a mislick while cutting weeds with a short scythe a few days ago, and struck his foot, cutting a bad gash. An artery was severed and the blood spurted in a lively manner for a few minutes.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore preached the memorial sermon at the M. E. church last Sunday night. The church was crowded, the old soldiers and members of the relief corps having the front seats. The sermon was fine, and was commended by nearly everyone.

J. E. H. Chapman, of White Cloud, Kansas, was in town Wednesday forenoon, and gave THE ADVERTISER office a pleasant call. He was searching for that "wave of prosperity" about which he heard so much last fall, but claims he hasn't seen the wave yet.

Last week we said the Brownville band would play on Decoration day, and thereby came near offending some of the members of the band, as it appears Brownville has two bands. We should have said the Brownville Cornet band, and we hereby apologize to the boys for not making it plain which one we meant.

Robt. Frost informs us that a small worm is damaging corn considerably in this section. The worm is brownish in color, with a black head, is about half an inch in length and not much larger than a large needle. It eats into the stalk of corn after the corn appears above the ground. So far as we can learn this is the first appearance of the pest in this part of the country.

The Methodist Sunday school at Nemaha, according to the report made at the quarterly conference, has had an average attendance since the first of January of 72½. The smallest attendance on any Sunday was 42; the largest was 112. For the past three months the average attendance is larger than the above, as it is steadily growing. Dr. Keeling makes a splendid superintendent.

Decoration day was observed in Nemaha in a more quiet manner than is usual. No speaker had been secured, so the people met at the M. E. church at 10:30 a. m. Monday, where the procession was formed and proceeded to the cemetery, headed by the Brownville cornet band. At the cemetery there was singing, music by the band, and the decorating of the graves of the fallen veterans. The services were very impressive.

TO OUR DELINQUENTS.

We are hard up. We need money. We need it bad. We intend sending out statements to some of our delinquents at once, but if you fail to get a statement don't get offended but come around and pay up anyway. If you do get a statement please heed its gentle request. Otherwise THE ADVERTISER or the editor or both may be found dead from starvation in the near future.

Private money to loan on farm security on the best terms that were ever made in Nemaha county, by Wesley Dundas, Auburn, Nebraska.

Kansas Champion will make the season of 1897 at my farm, one mile south of Nemaha. Terms, $7.00 to insure a colt to stand and suck.

J. H. SEID.

MARRIED.

Mr. Earle S. Gilbert and Miss May Brooks were married Wednesday, June 2nd, 1897, at 9 o'clock p. m., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. Gilbert.

At the above named hour the bride and groom entered the parlor, and Rev. John T. Smith, pastor of the Christian church at Nebraska City, pronounced the ceremony that made them husband and wife. After congratulations had been offered a magnificent supper was served.

Many handsome and valuable presents were received.

About twenty-five relatives and intimate friends were present, the editor of THE ADVERTISER being so fortunate as to be classed with the number.

The groom is a young man of sterling character, who has passed most of his life in Nemaha. He is the junior member of the firm of S. Gilbert & Son, and is a young man of fine business qualifications. The bride is one of the best teachers in Nemaha county, and for five years has taught the primary department of the Nemaha schools.

THE ADVERTISER extends heartiest congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert. May their lives be long, prosperous and happy.

We visited the Titus nursery Friday of last week, and Joe Titus turned us loose in a half acre strawberry bed. For once we had all the strawberries we could eat.

We fared so well that we paid the nursery another visit Saturday. Jim Titus took us out and showed us the large garden, which he attends to, and which is kept clear of all weeds. Then Nat Titus took us in hand, and showed us over a great part of the nursery. Everything is in excellent shape, and it would seem from the number of young trees they have that they must expect to supply the state with nursery stock next year. Nat let us help ourselves to strawberries again, and then gave us some to bring home for our Sunday dinner, and also gave us a lot of asparagus, while Jim told us to help ourselves to the pie plant, then before we left Nat gathered a big bouquet of handsome flowers for our better-half, and Mrs. Titus gave our little girl one. These visits to the Titus nursery always make us feel like we had a host of friends, and will keep off the blues if anything will.

Miss Cora Argabright and brother Richard returned to their home in Nemaha county last Monday. Miss Cora has been elected to fill her old position in the primary room next winter. Next year will be Miss Argabright's sixth year in the Verdon school, which speaks higher for her ability than anything we could say. This ends Richard's connection with the Verdon school, he having graduated. May success crown his future efforts is the wish of his many friends here.—Vedette.

We have made arrangements whereby we can send THE ADVERTISER and the Inter Ocean both one year for only $1.40 cash in advance.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

OBITUARY.

Samuel Houk was drowned at St. Deroin Thursday, May 13, 1897. The body was found near Corning, Mo., Tuesday evening, May 25, and the next day was laid to rest in Hillsdale cemetery, in the presence of a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Samuel J. Houk was born July 10, 1859. March 6, 1892, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Kerley, and had lived in the vicinity of St. Deroin since that time. He leaves a wife, two children, two brothers and a sister to mourn the loss of a faithful and dutiful husband, father and brother.

The afflicted family have the tenderest sympathy of a host of friends and neighbors in their sad loss. .

IT WAS ADAMS.

The floater caught at St. Deroin on Thursday of last week and buried at that point, was disinterred on Saturday and identified as the body of Jas. J. Adams, who just two months before wandered away from his home at Peru while insane and had not since been seen nor heard of. A brother who attended the inquest said the body was not that of Adams, but after returning to Peru became of the opinion that he might have been mistaken. Ten or twelve of the neighbors of Adams who had known him intimately went to St. Deroin Saturday with the brother, dug up the body and fully identified it. A peculiar pencil found on the corpse was accurately described by Mrs. Adams before she had seen it. This assisted considerably in the identification, the body having been in the water for some time and being badly decomposed, besides having the throat cut from ear to ear. The funeral was held at Peru on Sunday.—Granger.

FOR RENT.—Three rooms upstairs in THE ADVERTISER building. Inquire at this office.

NEW KIMBALL ORGAN for sale on easy payments. Inquire at this office for particulars.

W. W. Sanders is agent for R. V. Muir's town lots in Nemaha. If you want to lease or buy one apply at THE ADVERTISER office.

A convention of the prohibitionists of the county was held at the court house in this city on Monday. The convention was called to order by R. V. Muir, of Brownville. Rev. G. W. Borden delivered a very interesting address on the subject of "Political Prohibition." S. W. Kennedy, of Auburn, was elected chairman and O. H. Gilmore, of Brownville, secretary of the convention. R. V. Muir, C. H. Gilmore, Miss Hannah Miller and John Davies were elected delegates to the state convention at Lincoln May 26 and 27. R. V. Muir was elected chairman of the county organization with power to appoint precinct committees, and the convention adjourned to meet at will of county chairman.—Granger.

Report of Champion school for the month ending May 21, 1897: Number on roll, 40. Average daily attendance, 36. Number of visits from county superintendent, 1. Number of other visitors, 10. Names of those present every day: Nellie Russell, Pearl Thompson, May Relf, Elsie Copeland, Florence Copeland, Pearl Roberts, Millie Webber, Dillie Webber, Bessie Dressler, Earl Copeland, Dean Argabright, Johnnie Stephenson, Bertie Morris and Robert Stephenson. E. DELIA KEMPTHORNE, Teacher.

The Peru normal school board has let the contract for the rebuilding of the new dormitory at the state normal school to J. A. Hayes of that place. The work will be pushed as fast as possible, so as to have it completed by fall. As yet the contracts for heating, plumbing and lighting have not been let, but will probably at the next meeting of the board.

The Odd Fellows of district No. 5 will hold a district meeting in this city June 8. Grand Representative Loomis will be present and deliver an address. The Auburn Rebekah lodge will work that degree, and the Talmage lodge will exemplify the second degree of the subordinate work.—Granger.
