SUBSCRIPTION, - $1.50 PER YEAR

FRIDAY, JULY 23, 1897.

C. Shuck, proprietor of the Nemaha Valley Berkshire Farm, eight miles southeast of the city was in town early Wednesday morning with a load of hogs for market. Mr. Shuck knows a hog when he sees one and keeps only the very best for breeding purposes and he fats the rest and sells them on the market.—Auburn Post.

Cliff Cole, with his venerable father-in-law, J. W. Den of Brownville, spent several days down at Langdon this week, returning yesterday (Saturday) with a fine string of bass and croppies. Mr. Den is well up in the 70s, but he is yet a sportsman who can give many of his younger brethren cards and spades and beat them out anywhere—at the trap, in the field or on the lake or stream.—Omaha Bee.

David Higgins, while attending to a cow that had a peculiar eruptive disease, infected himself with what proved to be anthrax. He was fortunate in only getting a slight infection—for the disease is fatal if the infection is great. D. Andrews has been treating him vigorously from the first and David is now rapidly on the road to recovery. People cannot be too careful in regard to such things, for there are many such diseases among stock in this country.—Stella Press.

A case has been decided in the courts which may interest those who occupy rented premises. It was decided that where improvements are made by a tenant on the premises, and nails are used for fastening the same, the improvement becomes the property of the owner of the premises, but if the fastening is made of screws, then the tenant has the right to remove the same. The court ruled that articles fastened by screws are for temporary use, and can be removed, but if fastened by nails they become permanent and cannot be removed.

On warrant sworn out by Andrew S. Craig, of Peru precinct, Lydia Brumbaugh and husband of Brownville were arrested Monday for relieving Craig of $37.65. It appears that the woman went to Craig's place in a covered wagon and the two agreed to go to Kansas together. They had not proceeded far when the injured husband and another man appeared on the scene and with drawn revolvers threatening dire vengeance and ran Craig off. In the meantime the woman got possession of Craig's pocketbook and money.

Craig came to this city and swore out a warrant and Sheriff Glasgow arrested the man and wife. When the parties were brought in Mrs. B. turned over the money to Craig and the latter refused to prosecute. Craig paid the costs, amounting to $7.30 and the case was dismissed.—Auburn Herald.

The long standing trouble between Bishop Bonacum and Fathers Fitzgerald, of this city, and Murphy, of Tecumseh, have finally been amicably settled. Father Murphy will probably go to Seward and Father Fitzgerald will go to Grafton, both of these missions are equally as good if not better than the ones they now hold.

Father Feeney will be placed in charge of the church property here and it is to be hoped that all the ill feeling that has been aroused over this long controversy will now be buried and forgotten. Father Fitzgerald during his stay in Auburn has made many friends by his genial ways and public spirit. He has always been found ready and willing to aid all public enterprises and assist in every worthy undertaking for the good of the community. His many friends here hope that his pathway in the future will not be as rocky as it has been during the past few years.—Auburn Post.

POLITICAL NOTES.

H. M. Bushnell in State Journal.

Practical completion of the tariff marks the first step in the republican policy of the present administration. It means revenues for the meeting of government expenses without being forced to bond selling, and it means a return to industrial conditions such as have marked every republican administration. Those who think there is not an active interest over the state in the return to a republican tariff are mistaken regarding public opinion. Two traveling men in discussing the question said that there were hundreds of farmers arranging to add sheep to their farming with the restoration of wool values, and that henceforth sheep along with cattle and hogs would be factors in making up farm stock. The man who now travels across the state on any line of railway sees for the first time in years sheep along the way.

A street corner orator the other day repeated the sneer of the late popocratic candidate for president regarding prosperity and the fifty thousand coal miners now striking, and yet the sneerer was the one directly responsible for the strike. The president of the miners' association in the associated press declared that the present falling in miners' wages was due and traceable to the passage of the Wilson bill. He showed that the destruction of the coal tariff had let coal from the Canadian provinces throughout New England and along the Atlantic seaboard, forcing American coal westward and breaking prices. The initial parole in the present strikes was made when the author of the bill creating the trouble was carried around the hall of representatives on the shoulders of his most enthusiastic backer.

When President Polk secured California as United States territory in the peace negotiations with Mexico there were those who fiercely denounced the acquisition of territory and saw in the new domain only a worthless and barren tract more expensive to retain than its worth when developed. California was not long in silencing that opposition and proving its worth. When Secretary Seward purchased Alaska there was ridicule and laughter from thousands and thousands of excellent citizens yet Mr. Seward's forethought and the value of Alaska understood and the little steamer came down the Yukon river in that territory the other day and on its one trip brought in gold more than one-seventh the original purchase price of Alaska. The wisdom of a policy of territorial acquisition in the past thus proven will be a future policy. Hawaii has asked for four year's admission through annexation and it will be admitted. The evidence of a foreign policy on the part of this government assures it.

"Last summer one of our grandchildren was sick with a severe bowel trouble," says Mrs. E. G. Gregory, of Frederickstown, Mo. "Our doctor's remedy had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief." For sale by Taylor the druggist.

THE GRANDEST REMEDY.
Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Virginia, certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies that he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and was cured by the use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at Taylor's drug store.

John Griffin, of Zanesville, O., says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agony, until a box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my piles." For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. M. H. Taylor.

Don't nauseate your stomach with teas and bitter herbs, but regulate your liver and sick headache by using those famous little pills, known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. M. H. Taylor.

In special session of the district court, last Thursday, Judge Stull on the bench, Mike A. Yorty was brought before the court to receive sentence, he having pleaded guilty to the crime of arson. Before sentence was pronounced County Attorney LaMaster made a few remarks in which he called the attention of the court to the mitigating circumstances in the case and the service which Yorty had rendered to the state, and asked that in view of the showing made the court would see his way clear to pass the minimum of sentence. Mr. LaMaster also added that the circumstances were such that he would draw up a petition to the governor at his earliest convenience asking that executive clemency be exercised in Yorty's behalf. By permission of the court Rev. William Murphy also made a brief plea for mercy. In passing sentence Judge Stull spoke in exceedingly plain language regarding some phases of the case and said that he did not propose to make Yorty the scape-goat for a crime which in the court's opinion was originated and planned by older heads. So long as he was on the bench it should be his solemn endeavor to execute justice as God gave him wisdom to see it and in this case he would give the prisoner the minimum sentence under the law, one year in the penitentiary. The prisoner was given permission to remain here pending the result of a petition for pardon, which is now being circulated and which will be sent to the governor. The petition is being quite generally signed.—Tecumseh Chieftain.

"I crave but One Minute," said the speaker in a husky voice; and then he took a dose of One Minute Cough Cure and proceeded with his oratory. One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled for throat and lung troubles. M. H. Taylor.

There is a Wrong Way AND A RIGHT way of treating the eyes. Some people seem to think that if they only wear glasses it will be all right with their eyes. There would be just as much sense in prescribing the same medicine for every disease. Unless you place yourself in the care of a skillful oculist or optician it would be better to give no thought to your eyes at all. We make a specialty of fitting glasses.
