THE TITUS NURSERY.
Steve Cooper expects to make a good thing on hogs this winter. He has bought over seventy head, the most of them nice thrifty shoats, and is feeding them new corn from his farm south of town.
Frank Jay has concluded that he is better fitted for town life than he is for a farmer, and has moved to Brownville and opened a confectionery and fruit store. Frank is a first class fellow and will make it win if any one can.
John Elliott was driving a young horse to his read wagon Thursday, when the horse became frightened at something, jumped to one side, broke one shaft, and then ran away. The harness was broken in several places, but no other damage was done.
Mrs. Clara Colley and Miss Edna Shuck, daughters of John Shuck, of Iona, Kansas, visited relatives and friends in Nemaha and vicinity from Thursday till Saturday of last week. They are granddaughters of the late John Shuck, who for many years owned the Quiller farm, west of town.
It is rumored that Elder T. J. Williamson, well known in this part of the state, died at his home in Marysville, Mo., lately. It is said at the time of his death he weighed over 400 pounds. Elder Williamson had many friends in Nebraska, who will be sorry to learn of his death, and who will condone with his family in their sad bereavement.—Shubert Citizen.
Ed L. Culver, after a few days' visit in Nemaha, started for Springfield, South Dakota, Tuesday. He has sold his business interests in Springfield and goes back to settle up his affairs. Mr. Culver is greatly pleased with Nemaha and vicinity and talks of locating here. His wife remained here, visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling, but expects to start for Indiana the first of next week.
The populists and democrats held their county convention at Auburn last Saturday. The following ticket was nominated:
Treasurer—A. M. Engles.
Clerk—H. E. Peery.
Sheriff—Frank Cole.
Judge—H. A. Lambert.
Superintendent—W. C. Parriett.
Surveyor—D. H. McLaughlin.
Coroner—Dr. Wilson.
Commissioner, 2d dist.—M. T. Conner.
The treasurer, clerk, sheriff and judge—the four best offices—are populists. The superintendent, surveyor, coroner and commissioner are democrats. The populists selected all their candidates from Douglas and London precincts, while the democrats went to Peru, Brownville, Washington and Douglas precinct for their candidates. The coroner is the only candidate nominated from the western half of the county, and the superintendent is the only one nominated in the north half of the county, while the southeastern part of the county gets nothing.
W. W. Sanders, Notary Public. Pensions papers of all kinds made up accurately. Legal documents drawn up. All business given prompt and careful attention.
John Griffin, of Zanesville, O., says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agony, until a box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my piles." For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. M. H. Taylor.
Ripans Tabules: at druggists.

Married, at high noon on September 1st, 1897, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. H. Vesta, of Odell, Neb., by Rev. T. D. Davis, of Tecumseh, Mr. C. J. Canon, of Vesta, and Miss Nina Moore, of Odell.
Immediately after the ceremony the company proceeded to the dining room and partook of an elegant dinner. At 1 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Canon took the train for their home at Vesta.
The wedding was a quiet affair, the only guests outside of the family being Miss Myrtle Hale, of Auburn, Mrs. R. R. Reilly, of Wymore, and Mrs. W. W. Sanders, of Nemaha. Each guest was presented with a boutonniere of sweet peas and white asters.
The groom is principal of the school at Vesta: He is one of the leading educators of Johnson county, and is the fusion candidate for county superintendent. He is highly respected wherever known. The bride is too well known in Nemaha county to need any introduction. She grew from infancy to young womanhood in Nemaha, and graduated from the Nemaha schools three years ago. Since then she has been teaching near Cook. She was offered a position in the school she has been teaching, and also one in the Cook school and in the Wymore school, but decided to undertake the training of one pupil. Miss Nina was one of Nemaha's best beloved young ladies, and her host of friends join with THE ADVERTISER in congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Canon, and extend best wishes for all the happiness and prosperity possible in this life.
The following is the program for the Woodmen of the World picnic to be held at Auburn Monday, September 6th—Labor Day:
