There will be a grand balloon ascension on the fair grounds at Auburn next Wednesday—children's day—and a balloon race on Friday.
Dr. Withers has a new method by which he can fill any tooth without pain. He has been in practice 18 years and fully understands his business.
The Auburn steam laundry now delivers washing at Nemaha, having arranged with S. K. Anderson to look after the business here. Satisfaction guaranteed.
Miss Mellie Minick is not well enough to resume her duties in the school room. She has been suffering intensely for several days with sciatic rheumatism.
The Nemaha and Salem branch of the B. & M. has been transferred from the jurisdiction of Roadmaster E. Zook, of Nebraska City, to that of E. P. Bracken, of Tecumseh.
Levi Johnson arrived in Nemaha with his saw mill the first of the week. He has moved it just south of town, near the section house, and expects to have it running next week.
We have for free distribution a number of copies of the premium list of the Nemaha county fair, to be held at Auburn Sept. 28th, 29th and 30th and October 1st. Call in and get one.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor drove from Lincoln the first of the week, arriving here Tuesday evening. They expect to visit friends in Nemaha and vicinity for about two weeks.

We will save you money on almost any paper you want to subscribe for.
W. H. Englebright shipped a car of apples to Grand Island last Saturday night.
Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clark, of north Brownville precinct, are visiting at John Clark's.
Seymour Howe is putting in about one hundred and twenty-five acres of wheat this fall.
Johns Hoover, George Kittell, Seymour Howe and Sam Shuck are having disastrous experience with hog cholera.
Arthur Paris says he is putting in most of his time these days burning cholera hogs. He has lost a number of nice ones.
Mrs. S. A. Huntington and Peter Kerker have had new sidewalks laid in front of their residences. Let others go and do likewise.
Mrs. W. W. Sanders is not able to sit up yet, and is very little better than she was last week, though she does not suffer so much as she did.
George Kittell is taking advantage of the Dingley law and has gone to raising sheep. He bought a nice flock of a Brownville man a short time ago.
A freight train made mutton out of two of George Kittell's sheep a few days ago. The train ran into five of them at the cut on Kittell's farm and killed two of them.
Mrs. A. V. Farson, sr., sent us in a sample of beans she raised this year. The sample measures twenty-eight inches in length. It beats anything we have seen this year.
A farmer living within a mile or two of Shubert bought a bill of paint of M. H. Taylor on Tuesday. He found he could get it here cheaper than at Shubert, Stella, or any of the surrounding towns.
R. A. Black's B. & M. bridge outfit was in Nemaha from Monday evening till Tuesday evening. They were numbering the bridges and measuring the height and width of the bridges across the Nemaha.
Mrs. S. A. Scovill started for Delta, Colorado, Monday, where she expects to make her home for some time with her sons, Jim and Fred. Many of her friends were at the depot to bid her good-bye and wish her a safe journey.
Miss Minnie McGee, daughter of J. L. McGee, a former citizen of Brownville but who has lived in Beatrice for many years, was married Wednesday to Frank L. Wood, of Chicago—a member of the stock exchange firm of Wood Brothers.
G. W. Fairbrother is being urged by his friends as a candidate for the republican nomination for county judge. Mr. Fairbrother has had experience in this office, is well posted in law, is an old time republican, and we would be pleased to see him elected to this or any other lucrative office.
The people of Nemaha are well pleased with the return of Rev. C. H. Gilmore. He is the ablest preacher Nemaha ever had, and the church going people here believe he is the best preacher in the county today, and one of the best in the conference. He is fearless and outspoken, always interesting, and draws big congregations.
J. W. Webber brought us in a big bucketful of extra fine peaches last Saturday. He said they were pop peaches but acknowledged that the trees were set out while he was a republican, which accounts for their being so good. Wallace says he was afraid we were hungry for peaches, so he took pity on us. We appreciate his feelings of sympathy, and certainly appreciated the peaches.
Ripans Tabules assist digestion.

John W. Hacker died Thursday, September, 23rd, 1897, at his residence six miles southwest of Nemaha. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church at this place at noon Friday. Rev. C. H. Gilmore preaching the sermon. The services were conducted by the Odd Fellows, of which order the deceased was a member.
The deceased was an old resident of Nemaha county, but lived in western Kansas for several years, returning to this county three or four years ago. He was highly respected wherever known.
John Wesley Hacker was born Feb 26th, 1838, and at the time of his death was 59 years, 6 months and 28 days old. He had suffered for years from a complication of kidney and other troubles. He leaves to mourn his departure a devoted wife (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell), and five children, two of whom are grown—Will Hacker and Mrs. Wm. M. Swan—and two brothers, James M. and Wm. Hacker, of Auburn. The mourning ones have our sincere sympathy in their great bereavement.
Married, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Crother, in Summerland, California, on Thursday, Sept. 8th, 1897, Mr. Oliver C. Crother and Miss Imogen Wood. The many friends of Oliver Crother in this vicinity extend congratulations and wish them a long life of prosperity and happiness.
Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.
Minor Taylor drove over to Howe Wednesday afternoon, with a traveling man. As he was untying the horses when he got ready to return they gave a jump, got away from him, knocking him down, and started for Nemaha on the run. Minor got in the buggy with Frank Titus, who was in Howe and was just ready to start home, and they started after the runaways, but did not find them until they got to the hollow by the old Stokes farm, three miles this side of Howe, where the horses had run into the back end of a load of hay. The team had kept in the road, and the only damage sustained was a bridle broken when the horses jerked away from Minor and a pole strap broken when they ran into the hay wagon. A whip was lost during the run.
The M. E. conference adjourned last Monday. Rev. C. H. Gilmore was returned to Brownville and Nemaha. The other appointments in the county are as follows:
Auburn—John Gallagher.
Johnson—S Goldsmith.
Peru—G M Gates.

W. W. Sanders, Notary Public. Penions papers of all kinds made out accurately. Legal documents drawn up. All business given prompt and careful attention.
John Griffin, of Zanesville, O., says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agony, until a box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my piles." For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. M. H. Taylor.
We would like to get in a few hundred bushels of corn on subscription, and will allow two cents a bushel above market price for the same.
"They don't make much fuss about it." We are speaking of De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, and all stomach and liver troubles. They never gripe. M. H. Taylor.
Private money to loan on farm security on the best terms that were ever made in Nemaha county, by Wesley Dundas, Auburn, Nebraska.

FALL OPENING.

Mrs. Fairbank
Will have an Opening of
FALL AND WINTER HATS,
Saturday, Sept. 25th.
Trimmed Hats a specialty.
Ladies and Children invited.

The republican primaries for Nemaha precinct were held at THE ADVERTISER office last Saturday. The meeting was called to order by W. W. Sanders, member of the central committee, and he was elected chairman of the meeting. A motion was made and carried that the chairman appoint a committee of three to select a list of delegates. The chair appointed Dr. J. L. Melvin, Robt. Frost and M. H. Taylor such committee. The committee retired and after consultation brought in the following list of names as delegates: S F Bridge, S C Lawrence, Rabe Elliott, John Kempthorne, F L Woodward, M H Taylor, Oscar L Minick, Dr J L Melvin. On motion the report of the committee was adopted, and the above named were declared the unanimous choice of the republicans of Nemaha precinct as delegates to the county convention. The meeting then adjourned.

OBITUARY.

Mason City Transcript.
Died, at his late home, four miles east of Mason City, on Tuesday, Sept. 14th, 1897, Mr. Richard S. Hannaford, aged 79 years, 1 month and 5 days.
The deceased was born in England Aug. 8th, 1818, and was brought to the United States by his parents during his infancy. The family settled in Indiana where Mr. Hannaford grew to manhood. He learned the trade of a cabinet maker, which he followed during the years of his early manhood. Mr. Hannaford moved to Nebraska territory in 1855, and settled in Nemaha county, where the family resided until their removal to Custer county in 1888.
The deceased served in the late war as a member of Company C, Second Nebraska infantry.
For some years past Mr. Hannaford had been prevented by physical infirmities and old age from active participation in outside affairs. During his active years he was known as a good neighbor, a respected, industrious citizen, a kind and affectionate husband and father.
He leaves his aged wife and seven children (three sons and four daughters), and two brothers to mourn his death.
The funeral services were conducted at the family home Thursday morning by Rev. Mr. Stevens, and the remains interred in the Litchfield cemetery.

Try the new Union hotel when in Auburn. Everything clean and neat. One block southwest of court house block. John McElhaney, proprietor.

There is a time for everything; and the time to attend to a cold is when it starts. Don't wait till you have consumption but prevent it by using One Minute Cough Cure, the great remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. M. H. Taylor.

THE GRANDEST REMEDY.
Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Virginia, certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies that he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and was cured by the use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at Taylor's drug store.

It heals everything except a broken heart, may be said of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Piles and rectal diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, tetter, eczema and all skin troubles may be cured by it quickly and permanently. M. H. Taylor.
