A B. & M. bridge a mile and a half this side of Bracken caught fire from unknown cause Monday and was badly disfigured. Only the prompt action of farmers in the vicinity saved its entire destruction. One day this week, Mayor L. L. Jones, of Forest Home, removed a corn crib and in doing so his little terrier dog killed 237 rats, many of them almost as large as the dog. He picked them up in a basket and carried away nearly two bushels of the "varmints." This story may seem a little "fatty" to some, but its truth can be proven and it wasn't much of a day for rats either.—Shubert Citizen.

The Methodist church of Nemaha is now one of the neatest looking churches on the inside to be found anywhere. The body of the church is papered with light blue paper. The ceiling is a lighter shade with scrolls. Back of the pulpit is a panel with arch and pillars. The Ladies Aid Society is to be congratulated for the good work and for the handsome appearance of the church.

An Auburn special of the 30th says: Word reached here this evening that the twenty-year-old son of Henry Taylor, an old resident of Island precinct, was killed last evening by means of a club in the hands of a neighbor boy. On Tuesday morning while Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Williams were coming to town from their home north of here, the buggy in which they were riding was upset, and they were both thrown to the ground with considerable force. In the fall Mr. Williams received several bruises, but nothing serious, but Mrs. Williams fell with her arm under in such a manner as to break both bones just above the wrist. Dr. Sutton was called, and set the broken parts and she was taken to her home, but it will be sometime before her injury will heal.—Shubert Citizen.

HARRY McCANDLESS,

G. W. Cornell, of Auburn, was advertised to speak at Nemaha last Friday night. He came in on the afternoon train but found no arrangements had been made for a hall. After endeavoring to get the hall cheaper than usual rates, or get another place to speak in, he finally got some one to take up a collection to pay the rent and then engaged the hall, but as it was then after 8 o'clock he did not get much of an audience. At Brownville his reception was also very cool. The pops would like to get rid of G. W. or a great many of them would, but they can't do it.

A TERRIBLE DISAPPOINTMENT.

Lost Monday night five of the neighbors, namely; Sherm Catchum, Sam Shuck, George Greene, Frank Collins, and George Beard thought they would furnish Mr. and Mrs. George Swopp a little music at the home of George Kittell where they are now staying. The boys formed in line at the gate and marched in as though they were going to storm a fort and take a hundred captives. But when they would have fired the opening gun both caps snapped and it evidently made the boys ashamed of themselves for they fled leaving the young couple undisturbed with a box full of cigars.

Now boys my advice is, the next time you go off on an expedition of that kind you had better take a good trusty gun and leave "Old Snapie" at home. A SPY.

Thursday forenoon a sneak thief made a raid on Hanny Bennett, who lives on the Cooper farm south of town. Mrs. Bennett went out in the field where her husband was gathering corn and stayed a short time. When she got back to the house she discovered that some one had been in it. Mr. Bennett started after the fellow and caught up with him in the edge of town. The fellow was carrying Mr. Bennett's overcoat, he halted him, and the fellow gave up the coat and also a razor and French harp he had. He claimed two other fellows were with him, one of whom had gone into the house and taken the things, giving them to him, and they were to meet afterward. Two fellows who were tramping through were arrested here, of course denying they had anything to do with the theft and expressing a willingness to go to Auburn with the officer. They were all taken to Auburn that afternoon.

The canvas was completed about 10:30 p. m.

No national democrat or prohibition ticket was voted.

The vote was light—only 210 being cast. Last year the vote was 239. In 1895 it was 206.

James A. Titus, F. M. Anderson and John C. Stokes acted as judges of election and W. W. Sanders and A. B. Paris as clerks.

Dr. Keeling says he voted for one candidate on the prohibition state ticket but his vote was not counted for that officer.

On account of the blanket ballots, the judges found it necessary to use two ballot boxes, as one box filled up when about three-fourths of the votes were polled.

The republicans got a majority in Nemaha precinct for all their candidates except road overseer in district 34—the southwest corner of the precinct. That was too heavily pop. The republicans made a gain over last year, taking the vote for regent, as the McKinley electors had a plurality of 24 on a vote of 239, and the regent this year have a majority of 27 on a vote of 210.

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lyon Center, Ill is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, and a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by M. H. Taylor, Druggist Nemaha, Nebraska.

W. W. Sanders, Notary Public, Pen-sions papers of all kinds made out accurately. Legal documents drawn up. All business given prompt and careful attention.
